

ST. PATRICK'S SCHOOL, ST. ALEXANDER STREET.

Through the days of my childhood have fled, I feel like a school-girl still;

When oppressed with the cares and the turmoil of this world so callous and chill;

There were "Birdie" our fair "Prima Donna" and "Sarah" renowned for her skill;

Our Pastor oft paid us a visit, And in our youthful minds tried to instil

Oh! could I but tell you the raptures With which every bosom would thrill,

To the Church we'd repair in the evening, And breathe a few prayers at our will,

"Tis true from loved Teachers we've parted, And others their places now fill:

God be with you forever, Dear Convent, And may they who your classes refill;

Altho' the days of my childhood have fled, In spirit I'm a school-girl still;

Remain with St. Patrick's dear School on the Hill.

WIT AND HUMOR.

What is the spot most dear to cattle--Their fold!

The naval review has taken place, and the fleet has been hung up to dry.

A beggar set up business the other day with a small sign reading, "Help wanted."

Charles Lamb remarked of one of his critics, the more I think of him, the less I think of him.

An Old Lady (the modest Curate): Lor, sir, I do like to hear you preach extrumpet!

Charles Fox and his friend Mr. Hare, both much incommoded by duns, were together in a house,

A GOOD FAMILY MEDICINE CHEST with a prudent use has saved many a life, and yet, we think, the idea might be improved

Holloway's Ointment and Pills--Diseases and casualties incidental to youth may be safely treated by the use of these excellent
