WASHINGTON TOPICS.

BLAINE ON CLEVELAND-THE BENEFI-CIAL EFFECTS OF A EUROPEAN CON-FLICT.

Washington, March 25.—Mr. Blaine, who has been considerably impressed by President Cleveland, says that he is a man with an univer-Cleveland, says that he is a man with an universally stiff backbone. This he regards as a danger signal for the Democratic party, and is of the opinion that if Mr. Cleveland lives up to the letter of his inaugural address, as he believes he will, when Congress meets next year the President will find himself dependent upon Republicans to make up a majority for the support of his policy. Mr. Blaine foreces a split in the Democratic party, and says that the day is not far off when the President will find himself deserted by the bulk of his party.

THE EUROPEAN WAR CLOUD.

In diplomatic and State circles unusual inter est just new is attracted to the strained rela-tions between Great Britain and Russia, and an open rupture is regarded as not improbable. Great Britain has not had a European war on her hands for many years, her policy for obvious reasons being to avoid by every means consistent with honor and dignity, complications of that character. In the meantains she has contacted the latest that the contact of the characters. stantly added to her possessions by preying on weaker Powers in other continent until, as remarked by a tronment diplomat, the other great Powers of Europe have awakened to a realization that if they do not demand and take their share of the spoils Eugland will get all. Private information which has just reached here from jourope gives the impression that Russia has determine t to continue her aggressive policy in the East without regard to consequences, and that England will have no afternative tut disgraceful surrender of all points or issue or a deel ration of war,

RESULTS OF A CONCLICT.

If these impressions should be confirmed and war ensue, what will follow can sea cely be calculated, for ever it other. European mations do not somer or later become involved in the struggle, the contest between such Powers as Rus in and Great Britain will entail results ithis in and Great britain win entail responsible which will be sensibly felt the world over. To the United States it would being an era of prosperity never before known, opening up, as it would, an unlimited custom for our products would, an unlimited custom for our products and manufectures. The foreign commerce of these two great producing countries, hampened and fettered as it would be by war, would be practically destroyed, and the world would have to look to us for what it now obtains from them. But Great Britain has so long escaped hostilities which it was not her interest, to provoke by hamiliar to be seen to provoke by begnifting her autagonists in devious and tortu-ous ways of diplomacy that she may, after all, find some loophole through which to make credit-able retreat from the prosest emburrassing on innglement,

---RIOT IN A CHURCH.

wolchfoling Under Difficulties Ar VALLEY CITY, DAROTA.

Maryana, Wis , March 25 Rev. Joseph Westford, paster of the Episcopal church at Valley City, Dakoto, who was at rested a short Valley City, Dakota, who was arrested a short time ago charged with meiting not and destroy by variable property, has just preced through Mirwankee on reads for New York, where he will visit friends for a few weeks. The despitches merely told of the reverend gentleman's arrest on the serious charges mentioned. To the Telegram correspondent Mi. Woodford today told a very sensational story. We wor hip in a church which belongs to a man manned Kod," and Mr. Woodword, "and I am assemed to say he was formerly an Episcopal cirtyyman. He is a banker now, and is one of the tor most men in Valley City. and is one of the foremost men in Valley City. Some months ago this man Root imagined that he had received some offence at my hands, and he had received some offence at my hands, and he and his family at once began annoying me in every possible manner. Their conduct in clauch because unbearable, and I finally told Root that he must cease attending services if he didn't become more decorous while in the house of God. The next day I received a most house of tord. The next day a received a most scarrilous letter from him, in which he said that he would comped me to leave town. He also aunounced that his wife had purchased the church building and that he intended closing it. I read the letter in church the following Sunday I read the letter in church the following Sunday and a great sensation was the result. The following Sunday, when I reached the church, there was a padick on the door, and a card bearing the words:— "Harriet Root has purchased this building, and it will remain closed until further notice." Members of the congregation were standing around wondering what to do. I got an axe and chopped the door down, and proceeded with the services. In the evening, when we reached the church, the door had been repaired and was fastened on the inside. Members of the congregation came to my assistance. ors of the congregation came to my assistance, and, procuring a fence rail, we battered in the door. What was our astonishment to find Root on the inside. I was so vexed that I was fairly frenzied. I told some of the conwas fairly frenzied. I told some of the congregation who had reached the scene to hold Root until I could get a rope, and we would lynch him then and there. I remembered that evergreens had been string down, and actually had the cord around the fellow's neck before my senses came to me. Then it was with difficulty that I could restrain the others from hanging the badly frightened man. Of course, we could not hold services after such a scene. The matter was then taken to the courts and will come to trial before long. I was arrested for inciting a riot, leading a mob, destroying property, assault and battery, and am out under heavy bonds. I had Root arrested for disturbing public worship, descrating the Sabbath, and on about a half dozen other charges." Mr. Woodford said that he expected there would be a lively time when he returned to Valley City. He is a mild-mannered man in appearance, has red hair, wears glasses, and is apparently about fifty years old.

LOWELL ON PHELPS.

LONDON, March 25 .- The Pall Mall Gazette publishes an interview with Mr. Lowell in ref-orence to the appointment of Mr. Phelps as United States minister to England. Lowell said President Cleveland was the last man who would make an inconsiderate appointment, especially to such a high office as that of munister to the Court of St. James. Phelps, minister to the Court of St. James. Freque, he said, was a gentleman of high character and marked independence. He was most agreeable in his manners, and had fine social qualities. The change was unavoidable, owing qualities. The change was unavoidable, owing to the ascendancy of the new party to power. Both countries were to be congratulated on Mr. Cleveland's wisdom, as shown in his selection of Phelps. The Gazette says editorially: "Phelps is a Vermont lawyer, unknown on this side of the Atlantic, but doubtless he is a most respectable person. respectable person.
