

No candidate may offer similar subjects in Parts I and II, i.e., a candidate taking a modern language in Part II may not offer a modern language in Part I; a candidate taking Physics, Chemistry, or Biology, may not offer Everyday Science; a candidate taking Modern History may not offer General History.

A syllabus of the scope of the examination and a copy of specimen question papers will be supplied on application to the Naval Secretary, the Department of National Defence, Ottawa.

NOTE.—The facilities for training Cadets of the R.C.N. in the training ship of the Royal Navy are offered on the distinct understanding that if any cadet is found to be below the usual standard the Admiralty may require his withdrawal at any time should they think fit, and it is necessary, therefore, that the educational standard of the R.C.N. Cadets should correspond to that of the Cadets of the R.N., with whom they will be receiving instruction.

(iv) Interview.—Candidates will be required to appear before a representative of the Department appointed by the Honourable the Minister of National Defence, to consider their suitability for entry as officers in the Royal Canadian Navy, from the point of view of character, school record, and past training.

Convenient arrangements for this interview will be made either before or after the educational examination.

NOTE.—Candidates will be required to defray their travelling expenses, subsistence and any other expenses in connection with interviews, and educational and medical examinations.

3. Applicants wishing to take preliminary training at the Royal Military College should apply to the Commandant, Royal Military College, Kingston.

Applications from candidates for direct entry as Naval Cadets should be forwarded to the Naval Secretary, Department of National Defence, Ottawa, on an application form which will be supplied on request. The following particulars are required.

(a) Statement of nationality of both parents and grandparents on mother's and father's side of the house.

(b) Certificate of character.

(c) Certificates as to educational qualifications, from principals of Colleges attended by the candidate during the past two years.

(d) Birth certificate.

(e) Certificate of physical fitness.

(f) Certificate of ability to swim at least 50 yards.

(g) List of subjects which the candidate wishes to take at the educational examination.

NOTE.—Final medical examination will be arranged as convenient either before or after the educational examination, probably at the same time as the interview.

NOTE.—Parents or Guardians of candidates must undertake for them that they are prepared to serve in any branch if required. The parent or guardian must declare, also, in writing, his intention that the Cadet shall adopt the Royal Canadian Navy as his profession in life.
