

- Carefully remove the attached Emergency Contact Card.
- Write down the contact information for the Government of Canada office nearest to your travel destination (see pages 29 to 56 or travel.gc.ca/offices).
- Carry the card with you at all times while abroad.

ERS

de Canada

es of this booklet, visit your ar Services website (travel.gc.ca), 10-267-8376 (in Canada) or s upon request. s le titre Bon voyage, mais...

r personal and public non-commercial y any means, without charge or further de Canada. We ask only that users e materials reproduced; that Foreign as the source department; and that the of the materials reproduced, nor as or with its endorsement.

as is" basis without warranty of and International Trade Canada nation contained in this publication is as the publisher, is solely responsible bility of any such information. The e without notice. Consult our website or the most up-to-date information. ormation with independent research

Foreign Affairs and International Trade Canada

Affaires étrangères et Commerce international Canada

Canada

In case of an emergency abroad

En cas d'urgence à l'étranger

Contact Consular Services:

Communiquez avec les Services consulaires :

(call collect from most countries)

613-996-8885

(appels à frais virés dans la plupart des pays)

sos@international.gc.ca www.travel.gc.ca

www.voyage.gc.ca

MIX Paper from responsible sources
FSC® C011825