

December
Twenty-second 1921.

J. T. Mitchell, Esq.,
Home Publishing Co. Ltd.,
Winnipeg, Man.

Dear Sir:-

I am now in receipt of the Christmas issue of The Western Home Monthly.

I have examined the copy and find it replete with matter of intense interest. I can well understand how welcome it would be in the 43,000 homes which it reaches. It is distinctly a home journal and I congratulate you on its appearance and the matter which it contains and the arrangement thereof.

With all good wishes, I am,

Ever yours faithfully,

Principal.