

Ottawa, June 30, 1921.

My dear Sir Arthur Currie:

At a meeting of the organizing Committee of the League of Nations Society in Canada, held on the 29th instant, you were unanimously nominated as one of the Honorary Vice-Presidents of the Society.

The objects of the Society are defined as follows:-

1. To promote international peace.
2. To furnish information about the League of Nations, its principles, its organization and its work.
3. To study international problems and Canada's relation thereto as a member of the British Commonwealth and of the League of Nations.
4. To foster mutual understanding, good-will and the habits of co-operation between the people of Canada and of other countries in accordance with the spirit of the League of Nations.
5. To promote the establishment of local associations, clubs or other bodies having like objects and to co-operate with any existing organization for such purposes.

The Lieutenant-Governors of the various Provinces have been elected Honorary Vice-Presidents and acceptances have been received from all of them except the Lieut-Governor of Ontario, whose reply has been delayed through his absence.
