

Norman Macleod's Works.

THE OLD LIEUTENANT AND HIS SON.

Illustrated, Crown 8vo., Cloth, $1.00., Paper Covers, 75 cts.

"The work will, doubtless, in his own words, 'do good to many and harm to none.'"—The Globe, Toronto.

"As a book in the hands of youth we especially commend it."—Mercury, Quebec.

* * "Everybody who takes it up will be delighted with it."—Canadian Post, Lindsay.

THE GOLD THREAD.

Profusely Illustrated, Square 8vo., Cloth, Full Gilt, $1.00.

"It is a charming story for children, and as a holiday gift for little folks it is admirably suitable, being richly bound and profusely illustrated."—Stratford Beacon.

"In this book Dr. Macleod appears at his best as a story teller."—Globe, St. John.

THE EARNEST STUDENT.

Crown 8vo., Cloth, $1.00, Paper, 75 cents.

"It is full of the most instructive materials, and breathes forth in every page an earnest spirit of true religion."—Star, Goderich.

"It is a book that will do good wherever read."—Bulletin, Collingwood.

"The example of candour, assiduity and self-consecration portrayed in these memorials must strongly impress the reader."—Colonial Farmer, Fredericton, N.B.

WEE DAVIE.

Crown 8vo., Paper Covers, 16 cents.

"It is of this and kindred books that our Sunday School libraries ought to be composed."—Reporter, Cornwall.

"A pathetic tale told with a heart full of sympathy."—Weekly Canadian, Sarnia.

BELFORD BROS., Publishers, Toronto.