

APRONS.

Entered Apprentice.—A plain white Lambskin, from fourteen to sixteen inches wide, twelve to fourteen inches deep, square at bottom, and without ornament—white strings.

Fellow Craft.—A plain white Lambskin, similar to the Entered Apprentice, with the addition of two sky-blue rosettes at the bottom.

Master Mason.—The same, with sky-blue lining and edging, one and a half inch deep, and an additional rosette on the fall or flap—no other colour or ornament shall be allowed except to officers and past officers of Lodges who may have the emblems of their offices in silver or white in the centre of the Apron.

The Masters and Past Masters of Lodges to wear, in lieu and in the places of the three rosettes on the Master Mason's apron, perpendicular lines upon horizontal lines, thereby forming three several sets of two right angles; the length of the horizontal lines to be two inches and a half each, and of the perpendicular lines one inch; these emblems to be of ribbon, half an inch broad, and of the same colour as the lining and edging of the apron.
