8.50

6.00

erette cloth, light glish style, Raglan pockets, silk sleeve trough shoulders;

in sand shades; a style, buttoned-field; patch pock-linings. Not a Nippon"

se China

Decorated Bowls,

se Bowls, Handled

es, Olive Trays,

shes, Mustard Pots,

Hair Receivers.

nnaise Sets, Sugar

s. Manicure Sets.

-Bons, Condiment

Bon-Bon Dishes.

eapots, Sugar and

ake Plates, Bon-

ve Dishes, Cracker

tands, Condiment.

Tubs and Jewel

ment Sets of Salt

hakers, Mustard

Sugar and Cream

00 only, each, 98c.

aise Dishes, 39c.

Fruit Sets, bowl apples. Regularly $1.29.

age. Per bag 1.37

LIST

ELAIDE 6100.

Basement. Regularly 300

ick Holder, 49c.

Trunks

Building

88 King St. E.

GE BRITISH FORCE HAS BEEN LANDED ON GALLIPOLI PENINSULA Make Substantial Headway in Counter-Strokes to Restore Lines West of Ypres DIANS HELD IN RESERVE AFTER FOUR DAYS' HARD FIGHTING

TWELVE PAGES-TUESDAY MORNING APRIL 27 1915-TW ELVE PAGES

DIANS "COVERED WITH GLORY"

Highlanders d Been Captured Proves re--Col. McLean, M.P., or Big Force.

TAWA, April 26. — "Canadians selves with glory. Their n is most highly appreciated at ters. In reserve today after m J. J. Carrick, M.P., who is brought much relief here. The ians will now have a rest after nded in the recent fightear Ypres was received at the tment tonight. A feature ght's list is that it includes of the 48th Highlanders of nto, who are known as the 15th Highlanders Not Taken.

his disposes of the rumor that Col.
a A. Currie, M.P., and his regithad been captured, and that the had been captured, and that they the 1000 Canadians whom the ans claim to have taken prison-ng whatever has been received de department concerning the artilnor concerning the report from in that the Germans had captured thousand Canadians sample of the way in which the ious achievement of the Canadian and their heavy losses is taken ada is found in a telegram from S. C. Scobell of St. Catharines nt to help fill gap. in the United opinion by a telegram is exemplified by a telegram General Hughes received from agton from General James A. , of the United States' Army, "I bolts; waterproof magnificent showing of the lined, with double in., 34 in. and 36 iesday, all sizes, at says: "We mourn with pride our empire's rights. Are we down-rted? Let us answer by one hunthousand men in fighting line and sand in reserve. Congratula-

Wave of Enthusiasm. evidently sweeping the country. for Canada in London,

"All London is praising the con-spicuous gallantry of the troops." Hon. Lewis Harcourt, secretary of tate for the colonies, says:

"The general attack on the Dardanelles by the fleet and the army was brothers." The prime minister ans-wered: "I am most grateful for your message, which will be deeply appreciated by the people of the Do-

Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper of Vansympathy in the death of his son-in- wire, was completely successful. aw and the wounding of his son, anada in its sorrow is consoled by bravery of her soldiers. Reggie

LARL OF ERNE DEAD

Message Received in To- pean Turkey composed of British and IontoConcerns Brother of Lady Evelyn Ward.

and has been received in Toronto by weigh Ward that her brother, the of Erne, is dead. The message considered no other information of the way and that he was taken prisoner by the mans late last fall, within a day reflect his succeeding to the title on the of his father. The cause of the earl's death can only be surmised; the advices received in England and the area of the part of the part of the mans. Evelyn Ward that her brother, the Evelyn has heard no recent word on her husband, the Hon. Gerald well-known in Toronto, and who definitely heard of as desperate-ting with a small body of men a great force of the enemy. She ods the belief that her husband is

NANNETTI, M.P. FOR DUBLIN, IS DEAD

Patrick Nannetti, member of the of Dublin, died last night.

Proposed Drink Restrictions

akes Stirring Appeal British Government Is Said To Have Arrived at More Moderate Decision.

LONDON, April 27.—(3.50 a.m.)—The government has finally arrived at a more moderate decision for dealing with the drink problem, according to The Times, which places the proposed restrictions under the fol-ng heads:

"FIRST--Prohibition of the sale of immature spirits "SECOND—Encouragement of the brewing of lighter beers. "THIRD—Special public house restrictions in 'munitions' areas "FOURTH—Reduced hours of sale generally.
"FIFTH—Compensation for the interests affected."

Disembarkation at Dandan- Counter Stroke of Canadians, elles Carried Out Under Heavy Fire.

ADVANCE IS CONTINUED

m ready to Attack is Being Carried Out London Believes Conflict Will or next day, and the necessary orders in council will be trained and the date

LONDON. April 26 .- All that is known of the attack on the Dardan-Calls for 100,000 Men. eiles is contained in a brief report iseiles is contained in a brief report isthe eastern brigade in the this evening, which simply says that England like the rest of Europe, is in spite of serious opposition, troops awaiting the outcome with anxiety.

have been successfully landed at have been successfully landed at various points on the Gallipoli peninsula on the Dardanelles and that troops are and that their advance continues.

The attack is being made by land, you on the great work you are the sea and the air. The allied airmen are playing an important part in tion in the face of the starts that are the operations, in locating and drop-Messages of a congratu atory na-the operations, in locating and drop-re continue to pour into the govern-ping lombs on the Turkish guns and re continue to pour into the govern- ping tomes on the Turkish gans and While the majoriey of those capable ent and a wave of intense patriotism trenches and directing the fire of the of forming an opinion believe that the evidently sweeping the country. wars lips which are covering the land-George Perley, acting high com- ing of the troops. The Russians are livered against the British, French and doing their share by making a demonstration against the forts at the Black Sea entrance of the Bosphorus.

Official Statement-The following official announcement was given out in London today:

"The disembarkation of the army covered by the fleet, began before sun rise at various points on the Gallipoli Peninsula, and in spite of serious opposition from the enemy in strong couver, B.C., answering a message of entrenchments protected by barbed wand the wounding of his son, "Before nightfall large forces were pire—recaptured the ground they had use the son below to call Merritt established on shore. The landing of been compelled to give, and, since then, his son-in-law), he would have the army and the advance continues."

Kitchener Force There. British troops have been brought from Egypt and French soldiers are m) cables from Boulogne 'Slightly believed to lave come from the south-ern shores of the Mediterranean.

> relating to the movements of British and French transports in the direction A report is current that Kitchener's new army to the number of 100,000 and even 200,000 men is in the Aegean. A recent despatch from Egypt disclosed that General Ian Hamilton, of the British army, was in command of an expeditionary force destined for Euro-

There have been despatches recently

DID NOT SINK GERMAN MERCHANT STEAMER

CALLAO. Peru. April 26.—The British cruiser Kent arrived here today for provisions and will depart again tomorrow morning. Officers of the Kent assert that the recent report that the British auxiliary cruiser Orcoma sank a German man merchant sleeping again. man merchant steamer near Bayovar is untrue. They say that the report probably amanated from the fact that the British warships were recently at gun practice off the coast.

NO DRINK FOR TROOPS IN DUBLIN DISTRICT

DUBLIN, April 27.—(1.29 a.m.).—Brig.—Gen. Hill. commanding all the troops in the Dublin district, has issued an order forbidding the sale of alcoholic liquors to soldiers or salors.

REV. I. MOORE MODERATOR.

LONDON Ont., April 26.—At the opening session of the annual meeting of the Presbyterian Synod of London and Hamiton in New St. James' Presbyterian

SECOND CONTINGENT LEAVES FOR FRONT

Men Who Have Been in Camp at Shorncliffe Sent to Battlefront.

NELSON, B.C., April 26.-From a cable received here today it is assumed that the second Canadian contingent has left Shortcliffe for the front.

GERMAN SEAPLANE ATTACKED TRAWLER

DOVER, Eng., April 27 .- (1.55 a.m.) .-German seaplane attempted last night to drop bombs on a trawler in the channel, just east of Dover. The attempt met with no success and a British seaplane pursuit.

GENERAL ELECTION MONDAY, JUNE 7?

Best Information in Ottawa Points to Appeal to People.

EXPECT ANNOUNCEMENT

Sir Robert Borden Will Intimate His Decision in Day or So.

By a Staff Reporter.

French and Belgians Prevented Retreat.

MUCH WORK AHEAD

Last for Some Days

More.

LONDON, April 26 .- The tremen-around Ypres in the plains of Flanders.

who believe that it is only a feint in force to draw the allies' reserves while

Canadians Win Pragise.

were holding the British portion of the lines, were the first to recover them, and in an encounter the praises of which are ringing thruout the em-with their comrades, have successfully withstood the German assaults.

The Belgians and French, who re-ceived the blast in fuller force, and who were driven back across the canal between Boesinghe and Steenstraate, were not much slower in recovering llied line in the region of Ypres.

formation that the cannonade forestalled that of the allies.

across the English channel.

OTTAWA, April 26 .- The best information in Ottawa today, whether in Liberal or government circles, points ham. London. Eng. to a general election early in June. probably on Monday, June 7. If this is so, Sir Robert Borden will intimate his decision to his colleagues tomorrow announced on or before Thursday of this week. All the ministers are in One of the results of the survey of the country by the respective minis ters is that Queboc may give the Con-servatives 20 scats. It is not so cer-tain that Sir Lomer Gouin, the Libdous battle, begun by the German at-tack on the ailled are-like front eral premier of Ouebec, will appeal to his electors a few days before the federal election.

One near friend of the government put it this way tonight: The govern-ment are forced by the situation and the intricacies of Canadian politics, to and a:my have commenced an attack go to the people, and they will give their reasons in a statement from Sir trenchments which a few days ago would have aroused immense enthus-Robert Borden to the electors this week. The public should wait for this statement; then weigh it against th in the battle which is being fought

PICKS AND SHOVELS PLIED ON GERMANS Belgians, are once again aiming at Dunkirk and Calais, there are others preparations are being made for an at tack at some other part of the long Canadian Describes Scottish has issued the following statement respecting the battle around Ypres: Borderers' Fight at Hill Germans, they certainly made a coup. Sixty. which, while it did not break, did dinge the allied lines. The Canadians, who

ENEMY DRRIVEN OFF

Canadians in Thick of It,' Says British Columbia Private.

Canadian Associated Press Cable. and, according to the French official LONDON, April 26.—A Canadian private belonging to the First British reports, succeeded in regaining pos-session of the canal banks and much Columbia Regiment who has just arof the surrendered territory to the rived in London, gives a vivids story of the battle for Hill 60. "It happened about 6.30 in the morning," he said. There is no inclination here, however, to belittle the initial success of "The previous night we had blown up the hill and rushed the German the German sweep and the work that is before the allied armies before the trenches, thruout the night we were situation can be fully restored.

A writer in The Pall Mall Gazette engaged in getting the captured trenches into a protected state while describes it as "a masterly tactical counter-stroke," and deblares that "if this was going on, at four in the morning the Germans began a counter-atthe Germans have waited long to take tack. The King's Own Scottish Bordtheir revenge for Neuve Chapelle, they erers had been detailed to make a have taken it new." By getting across he canal, it is pointed out, the Gertect us. While they were doing this, mans gained for the moment comthere came a perfect nail of shot and shell followed by a charge by the nand of the new roads, and if they had not been driven back would have Germans. The Borderers jumped out of forced a readjustment of the whole the trenches and met the charge with The official reports throw little light on the progress of the battle. their picks and shovels. They laid in to those Germans like madmen. It was terrible to see the havoc our men but news from Holland gives the inwrought among the Germans with night was more severe than ever, and that long trains of German reinforce-Buried Alive. ments going to the front are passing equally long trains of wounded bound for the base hospitals. There is no likelihood, therefore, that the battle will be over for some days to come, as the Germans have made immense preparations in men and material for practically buried alive. A huge baulk the Germans have made immense preparations in men and material for their offensive, which has temporarily of timber pinned me down by the leg.

None of us were killed, tho my two pals were knocked about badly by fragments of shell. The man who rescued That there is no shortage of either nen or munitions is shown by the fact

EIGHT ADDITIONAL CANADIAN OFFICERS ON CASUALTY LIST

* ADDITIONAL CASUALTIES *

SECOND BATTALION.

Captain P. E. Bowman of the 19th Edmonton Dragoons, transferred from the 9th Battalion. FOURTH BATTALION.

Major Ballantyne, Georgetown, Ont., SEVENTH BATTALION.

Lieut. W. L. Ford, Kamloops. Lieut. H. R. Scharshmidt, Var

THIRTEENTH BATTALION. Lieut. F. S. Molson, Montreal. FIFTEENTH BATTALION.

CANADIAN ENGINEERS. Lieut. H. F. Hartzburg.

FIRST BATTALION.

T. Shaw, Wellington buildings, Dunoon, Scotland

Pte. Alexander McLaren Elliott,
April 26. No. 14 General Hospital.
Wimereux. Next of kin. Miss Kate Hospital, Ireland. Elifott, No. 31 Aristotle road, Clape

SECOND PATTALION.

Wounded.

and men were captured.

his machine safely back to our lines."

GALLANT RESISTANCE

Weight of Numbers-British Lines Holding

Fast and General Situation Around

Ypres Unchanged

justing its line to meet the altered conditions due to the forced retire-gallant resistance by the Canadians against superior numbers, St.

Julien was captured by the enemy. Our lines now run south of that Troops Severely Tested.

of repeated heavy attacks, which they stubbornly opposed thruout

the battle in an entirely unexpected situation, which has demanded

No Heavy Guns Lost.

heavy casualties on the Germans. Our losses also have been heavy.

The German wireless report that four English heavy guns were cap-afternoon and destroyed the junction. Altho wounded, he brought

"In the fighting during the last three days we have inflicted very

"One of our aviators dropped bombs on the Courtrai station this

The capture of St. Julien, as reported in the British official statement, is "Second-Our troops to the east of Ypres have borne the brunt

LONDON, April 26 .- (11.15 p.m.) - The British War Office

"First-Severe fighting to the northeast of Ypres still continues,

THIRD BATTALION.

Dangerously Iill. Pte. Richard Shorney, (formerly 9th Pattalion). No. 14 General Hospita', Wimereux, gunshot wound in head. Next of kin, Mrs. Hedges (mother). No. 4 St. John's avene. Clevedon, Someraet, Eng. FOURTH BATTALION.

Died of Wounds. Pte. David McHarg, April 24. Next of kin. John McHarg, Dromboure, Kirkmichael, Scotland.

FIFTH BATTALION.

Died of Wounds. Pte. Eric Preston, April 24.

SEVENTH BATTALION.

Pte. Lee S. Timlick. . Next of kin, Thimas Timleck, No. 814 Fifth avenue, New Westminster, B.C.

bury drive, Vancouver. field. Ross Hill. Carrick-in-Shannon, Pte. Harry Holmes (formerly 12th battailon). Next of kin. T. W. Holmes (father), East Trington, Brough, East

Capt. Geo. H. MacLaren. M.D., and Lieut, Dansereau of Toronto Reported Wounded-Fourth Battalion Suffered More Than Any of the Canadians.

Eight additional names of Canadian officers wounded in the great Canadian attack north of Ypres were reccived from Ottawa last might. They include one major, two captains and five lieutenants. The Toronto officers are Capt. George Haggerty MacLaren and Lieut, J. A. Dansereau of the 15th Battalion (48th Highlanders). No par-Lieut. J. A. Dansercau, Toronto. of kin. Mrs. M. Preston. No. 736 23rd ticulars have been received as yet received. George Haggerty MacLaren, avenue. Vancot. er, B.C. garding the extent of their wounds. garding the extent of their wounds. Major Ballantyne of the 4th Battalion, whose home is in Georgetown, where he has lived for years, is reported wounded seriously.

Lieut. Dansereau is not a Toronto man, but is connected with a very Dangerously III.

Pte. Hugh John Carlyle Geldert.
Next of kin, John M. Geldert (father).
County Court House, Hallax, N.S.
Lieut. Howard Butler Scharschmidt.
(Previously reported.) Next of kin.
Understand to the Toronto Highlanders at Valcartier, and was one of their most efficient subalterns, having graduated from the Royal Military Pte. Fred Whitfield (formerly 12th battalion). Next of kin, Mrs. Whit-regiment.

Toronto Doctor Woundsd.

Capt. MacLaren was connected with the 48th Highlanders for seven years. He is the son of Col. H. MacLaren, the state of the son of the seven years. Yorkshire. Eng.
Pite. William Coleman. Next of kin.
Mrs. Wilkinson, Market street, Bilston.
Eng.

The son of Col. II. Machardi, commanding the 13th Regiment, Hamble of the Son of Col. II. Machardi, commanding the 13th Regiment, Hamble of the Son of Col. II. Machardi, commanding the 13th Regiment, Hamble of the Son of Col. II. Machardi, commanding the 13th Regiment, Hamble of II. Machardi, II Lieut. Thomas Ashmore Kidd, (previously reported). Next of kin. T. A. Kidd (mother). Burrit's Rapids, Ont. Capt. Poter Edwin Bowen (former-ly 9th Battalion). Next of kin. Mrs. P. E. Bowen, No 384 First avenue. dministered first aid to all the in-

The Heaviest Losses.

Probably no battalion has suffered so heavily in the great engagement north of Tyres as the fourth, commanded by Lt.-Col. Birchail, who was killed This battalion losa three officers killed and 13 wounded, which include the second in command. Lt.-Col. Bueil and both majors, all of whom were wounded. The fourth had a reputation as being the most efficient MADE BY CANADIANS putation as being the most efficient fighting unit in the division and was St. Julien Captured By Enemy Thru Sheer ralsed after a recent inspection by General Sir Horace Smith Dorrien, who is in command of the Second Army of which the Canadians are a part. The battalion comprises companies recruited from counties near Toronto, including Peel, Haldimand, Dufferin, Cayuga and Bruce.

GERMANY'S PRESS FAKE VICTORIES the general situation remaining unchanged. Our left flank, in readment of the French, had to face to the north and to extend to the west

"This extension weakened our line for a time, and after a very An Army Corps, Withdrawn From Argonne, Stated to Be Annihilated.

PARIS, April 26 .- "The German press, basing its claim on so-called losses of the French army," says a semi-official the exercise of gallantry and fortitude by the men, and quick resource and other military qualities by their commanders.

"Third—Attacks were also delivered yesterday by the Germans on the east of the Ypres salient. In spite of the use by the enemy of asphyxiating gases, the attacks were repulsed, and German officers and men were captured.

annihilated.

"It is true that this second army corps at the end of the winter was withdrawn from the Argonne, but the Germans faced it in Champagne, and to this corps is due a large part of the credit for the French succers on the Perthes-Beause-jour front."

Dineen's Set the Style in Hat Fashion.
A new shipment of hats was being unpacked at this old-established house yesterday when a World reporter happened to enter. "By Jove these look swell hats — something spection. The consignment comprises man commerce raider, Kronprinz Wilhelm, late today informed Collector of styles, from such celebrated makers Customs Hamilton, at Newport News, Va., that he would intern his ship for as Henry Heath. Christy, London, England, and Borsaiino, Italy. match-some have bands of centrastnot important, this town being on the extreme northern verge on the British lines, and being about three miles northwest of Ypres. It was on the line of the British advanced trenches, occupied by the Canadians. The British forces smart effects, too. are evidently waiting for a favorable opportunity to rush this village. This attack failed and all was quiet by 5.30 km. An hour later we Canadians who had also been in the thick of it decided to turn in for a rest.

Kronprinz Wilhelm Interns of the salesmen. handing one of the new models to the new models to the reporter for further in-WASHINGTON, April 26.-Lieut, Capt. Thierfelder, commander of the Ger- the very newest hat creations in soft the war in American waters. The commander presented this note: "Herewith I have to officially inform colors are pearl gray, with bands to No. April 27.— (2.08 a.m.).—4 April 28.—4 April 29.—4 you that I intern."