RAIL BIRDS WATCH WORK AT WOODBINE

Biggest Crowd of Year-Lady Curzon Full of Running —Trial Summary.

he race meet, which com-ek from today, was at the mences a week from today, was at the course yesters up morning.

The platers Lady Curzon, Beau Cheval and Ottmus were given their first work since their arrival at the track. Lady accompanied by the four-year-eau Cheval, broke from the barrier overed three-eighths in 37%, and, and at the half pole, in 51. Lady in was full of running. She will be given stiffer work this morning. likely be given stiffer work this morning. The Windsor plater, Okemus, with Jockey Albert Claver, who will pilot him on plate day, up, went a mise in 1.45, the first quarter in .25 2-5, half in .49%, three-quarters in 1.16%, and the mile in 1.45. Okemus is a fine-looking colt, with lots of early speed, but appear not to fancy going a distance. He was tiring badly after going seven-eighths, and Claver was whipping him coming up the stretch.

Hampton Dame breezed five-eighths in 1.05 easily.

The platers, Ravenscourt and Gartley, went a half in .50%, three-quarters in .17½, mile in 1.46½, and finished 1½ miles in 2.01½. Ravenscourt was about two lengths in front at the finish.

Harry Giddings' candidate, Harry Bassett II. worked a half in .51½, three-quarters in $18, mile in 1.46½. Ondramon joined Harry Bassett in the last half and was a good length in front of him at the finish. him at the finish.

Rustling and Dark Rosaleen, from the Seagram stable, went a mile in 1.47½. Froissart, from the same stable, breezed a half in .54.

Moss Fox, from the Brookdale stable went three-eighths, in 381-5. John Thompson went a quarter in 26. Other workouts of importance over a fast track were: Mona G., three-eighths in 1.46½.

Myle three-eighths in 37½.

Kyle three-eighths in 37½.

Banjo Jim three-quarters in 1.182-5.

King Hamburg and Recoil, threeeighths in .40.

King's Plate Favorite And Owner Krausmann

William Krausmann owns Hampton Dame, at present popular choice for the King's Plate, to be decided next Saturday at Woodbine Park. He also owns a German name and a hotel at King and Church streets that catered to persons of that country some time before the war. These latter incidents have caused the owner much worry and antagonism in certain directions. An alderman in the city gouncil the other day raised the question as to the elegibility of Hampton Dame for the guineas. Thereupon the outhodoxy of the situation as follows: William Krausmann was born near Elora and served nine years in the 30th Wellington Rifles. His father came from Germany to Canada when he was three years of age. His mother was a French lady So far so good. Among the plate conditions owners must be British subjects, meaning of course truly loyal. Thus, regardless of the official statements, rumblings are abroad. Letters have been received here and complaints in various forms. forms.

Would it be the correct thing for Krausmann's entry to land the King's guineas? "Sure he is Canadian born, was a volunteer and all that but we have neard things," they say.
Thus The World concluded that it was Thus The World concluded that it was only fair to have a talk with Mr. Krausmann. So a reporter visited his place vesterday and was politely received on telling his errand.

Mr. Krausmann appeared pleased when given a chance to answer: What do you think of the sinking of the Lusitania? He condemned the affair in the strongest

Mr. Krausmann was emphatic, sincere and convincing, leaving no doubt as to his levalty to the country of his birth and the British flag. His only race horse is the plate favorite. He purchased her dam, Royal Pame, after the latter had been sold at the Seagram sale and bred her to Inferno. The filly toal was dropped three years ago at Barrie, and thanks to the careful pains of her trainer, howed an impressive trial of 15, miles, the plate distance, on Tuesday of 2.09 3.5 and looks like keeping up the good form till race day. Thus she has a splendid chance to win the eldest race run continuously on this continent, and it so the crowd at Woodbine Park next Saturday will cheer right royally for Trainer feebanny Walker, owner Wm. Krausmann and the filly he bired.
