LEAFS DROPPED FIRST TO GRAYS

Leaders Had the Better of the Breaks and Scored Only
Run of the Game.

The Leafs gave the league leaders a real argument at the island yesterday and with an even break in the luck they wouldn't have been on the small end of a 1 to 0 score. The only run of the game came in the fifth inning, when Fabrique dropped a Texas leaguer over third with Powell on second. Daley made a perfect throw to the plate, but Kocher dropped the ball and the game was lost. In the seventh Daley was resting on second with one out and faced for third. He looked to have the bag cleanly stolen, but was ordered back to second when the Providence pitcher hit Kocher. Such is luck.

It was a tidy pitcher's duel between Bayres and McGuire, two outliners and both at their best. The former only allowed four scattered hits against McGuire's seven. Bayres passed four and hit one, while McGuire only walked one. Both pitchers were relieved, McGuire giving way to a pinch hitter in the eighth and Manning finished the game, while in the ninth with two down and Ball on second and Cather on first, Oeschger was substituted for Bayres. He only pitched two balls, Kocher ending the game with an infield out.

Strong—Scores.

Special to The Toronto World.
BUFFALO, N.Y., July 27.—The tournament progressed rapidly under excellent weather and music from the Buffalo Band. The semi-finals in the trophy were reached, with two Toronto rinks alive. They are split in the draw and one of both may reach the final. If the Granite rink, skippered by Geo. Orr, wins, the Church street club will become owners of the beautiful trophy. The final will be played tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. Doubles will commence in the afternoon and singles on Thursday.

Many good rinks were defeated. Ed. Seagram lost to Bennett of Brooklyn by 21 to 8. Scores:

TWO GAMES TODAY.

The Leafs and Grays will meet this afternoon at the stadium in a double-header, the first game commencing at 2 o'clock. The Leafs showed yesterday that they were playing good ball, despite their low standing, and they are about due to break into a winning streak, as Manager Clymer looks to have the material.

CHICAGO, July 27.—Both Chicago Federals and Chicago Nationals today announced that their games scheduled for tomorrow would be postponed out of respect to the official day of mourning for the Eastland victims set by the city authorities.

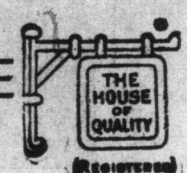

KNOTTY GETS FIRST-SACKER.

QUELPH, Ont., July 27.—Robert Kelly, a first-baseman, secured by Manager Knott from the New York Americans, reported here tonight and will keep for the first time against Brantford tomorrow. Kelly has been with the Yankees all season, but has not been used as there has been no place for him. He ranks high in a fielder, and is said to be a first-class hitter. Manager Lee has lines out for another first-class pitcher. No other changes have been made in the team.

T. & D. Refuse to Accept Resignation of President

Thomas Guthrie Popular With Soccerites—Robertson
Charity Cup Games on the Bill Tonight—More
Transfers Are Allowed—Gossip and Club Notices

At the monthly meeting of the T. and D. F.A. the delegates refused to accept the resignation of President Robertson, and have asked him to withdraw same. It is to be hoped Mr. Guthrie will accede to the wishes of the delegates, as the league can ill afford to lose his services at this stage.

The attention of all soccerites is drawn to tonight for the Robertson Charity Cup. These games are worthy of support, as the funds go to help defray expenses of injured players. Overseas and Wyewood will meet at Eaton Field at 8:15 p.m. while Polons and Dunlop will battle at Dunlop ground. The fact that all these teams lead their respective divisions is sufficient guarantee that a good brand of soccer will be played.

The following transfers have been sanctioned: E. Wrispen, Don Valley to Mid Country; A. McLean, Don Valley to Dunlop; R. Law, Don Valley to Polons; A. Martin, Queen's Park to Hiawatha; A. Leslie, Ulster to Overseas; H. Gilder, Queen's Park to Lancaashire; S. Magill, Bell Telephone to Ulster; J. Peden, Casdonians to Devonians; H. Brown, Manchester U. to Berkeley St.; J. McHenry, Devonians to Casdonians; J. McHenry, Devonians to Manchester U.; J. McHenry, Devonians to Manchester U.; J. McHenry, Devonians to Manchester U.

Dunlop Rubber play Polons in the semi-finals of the Robertson Cup this evening on Dunlop Athletic Ground, corner of Caroline and Queen, kick-off at 8:15, when a rousing game is expected. The total proceeds go to the charity fund.
