ENTERED AT THE POST-OFFICE, NEW YORK, AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.

Vol. III, No. 3.

NEW YORK, MARCH 28, 1890.

Each number will contain a Special Discussion of some feature of our Tariff.

"Can there be a higher offence than a deliberate perversion of history for a partisan purpose? It is an offence that no man should be permitted to perpetrate, without some rebuke, however great his talents or high his position. Indeed, the greater his talents and the higher the position of the man who commits the offence, the greater the offence becomes. For, of the thousands who may see a mis-statement of historical fact, made by such a man, in the most dogmatic manner, few will suspect, for a moment, that the statement is not only wholly groundless but is at utter variance with the truth."
