

provide. He shall receive such compensation for his services as may be agreed upon by himself and the Society.

DUTY OF THE TREASURER.

The Treasurer, previous to entering upon the duties of his office, shall give bonds to the Society, with suitable security, to be approved by the Society, as to their form and amount. He shall have the custody of the money and other property of the Society. He shall keep regular accounts of his receipts and expenditures in suitable books provided for that purpose. He shall, at each quarterly meeting, present an abstract of accounts, stating the amounts received and expended since the previous meeting, and likewise the whole amount received since the previous Anniversary assembly, specifying cash on hand, and what accounts may become due before the next meeting, that the Society may, if they think proper, take action for the disposition thereof. He shall enter on his book each sum paid by him in consequence of the recommendation of the Trustees, keeping all such orders on file. He shall not retain more than $30.00 (Thirty Dollars) for immediate use at any time.
