

CONTENTS.

ix.

CHAPTER VIII.

	PAGE.
Departure from Trinidad—First view of Cuba—The "Moro"—Harbour of Havana—Woolcot's American Hotel—Streets in Havana—The "Volante"—Houses in the Havana—The Paseo—The Plaza de Armas—Café de Dominica—Taçon theatre—Lotteries—Negro ball and nervous agitation—Virginian Connoisseur.....	83

CHAPTER IX.

Despotic nature of the Government of Cuba—The acquisition of the island by America—Statistics of Importation from the United States—Feelings of the Creoles on the subject of annexation—Objections which may be urged against its annexation—Extortions of Spanish officials—Taxation, extent, population, illegitimacy—Grievances under which the Cubans lie.....	94
---	----

CHAPTER X.

The Cigar trade—Material and mode of manufacture—Prices of the commodity—Cuban milkman—The ladies of Cuba	103
---	-----

CHAPTER XI.

Matanzas—Railways—Sugar cultivation and crop—Interest for money on landed security—Principal towns in Cuba with their population—Departure in the "Catawba" steamer for New York—Lines by the Earl of Carlisle.....	110
---	-----