ITALIANS WITHDRAW BEHIND DALMATIAN DEMARKATION LINE

Act on Advice of Superior Officers - Crown Council Considers Fiume Situation -Italy's Internal Condition is Grave.

Paris, Sept. 25 .- Paris was alive today with unconfirmed rumors concerning the resignation of Signor Tittoni, the Italian foreign minister, the decision of Italy formally to annex Flume, and the possible abdication of King Victor Emmanuel.

Rome, Sept. 25 .- The detachment of Italian officers and soldiers which crossed the line of demarkation near Trau (Trogir) and penetrated the town after disarming a small Serbian outpost, has retired to the Italian area, according to The Messaggero's correspondent in Trieste. The Italians withdrew, it was added, on the advice of superior Italian officers. The crown council held two sessions today to take up the situation that has arisen as a result of the seizure by Gabriele D'Annunzio of Fiume. If Gabriele D'Annunzio of Fiume. If any decision was reached as to what the government intends to do in the premises, no announcement was made.

The day session sat until luncheon time and adjourned until 4 o'c.ock, when the other sitting continued until 7 o'clock this evening. Baron Son-SPECULATION OVER nino, former foreign minister, and Signor Turrati, leader of the Intransigeant Socialists, were not present. Steel Magnates Decline to Deal With Union Leaders-Capital and Labor Struggle for Control, Meeting With Varying Success-No Disorder.

Associated Press Despatch.

New York, Sept. 25 .- Indications last night were that the great steel strike, entering its fifth day, might prove a prolonged struggle, for folowing a statement by John Fitzpatrick, director-general of the strike, that the walk-out could be ended immediately if the United States Steel Corporation would agree to arbitrate, Elbert H. Gary, directing head of the corporation, gave it as his personal opinion that, because of "moral principles" involved in the struggle, the directors could not deal with the union directors could not deal with the union leaders.

A similar stand was taken by E. G. Grace, president of the Bethiehem Steel Company, who, replying at length to the demand of his 35,000 employes last night, who have threatened to strike unless granted a conference, refused to negotiate with the steel workers' national committee.

Struggling for Control.

While capital and labor were struggling for control in the field of action, meeting with varying success at different points along the industrial battle front. Mr. Fitzpatrick appeared in Washington before the senate labor committee, which is seeking a way to remedy the situation, and made his leclaration concerning the manner in which the strike could be brought to an end.
