BELLA KING DECLINED TO EAT.

But When Threatened "With the She Partook of Food.

Bella King, one of the inmates of the Haven on Seaton-street, gave the authorities of that institution a lot of trouble last week because she could not have her own way. On Wednesday last she got in a temper after the matron had spoken to her about some trivial offence, and for four her about some trivial offence, and for four succeeding days she refused to take any kind of nourishment. At first the authorities paid little attention to her, thinking that she would reconsider the matter, but when she expressed her determination not to eat anything, in mo uncertain terms, they became alarmed. On Saturday the fasting had become apparent in the woman's physical condition, and the authorities of the institution sought the advice of the police. The threat of the latter that a charge of attempting to commit suicide would be laid against her had the desired effect, and the woman is now partaking of her meals once more. Bella King came to this city about a year ago from the Muskoka District, and for several months was employed as a domestic. Some weeks ago sine suffered an attack of asthma and hron-chitis and was taken to a local hospital. She recovered sufficiently to be removed to She recovered sufficiently to be removed to She recovered sufficiently to be removed to the Convalescent Home, where she remained for about two weeks.
