Purina Chicken Chowder Helps Hens Moul

Few hens can produce feathers and eggs at the same time. Feathers are mostly protein. Purina Chicken Chowder helps hens moult because it runs high in protein.

Grain feeds are not suitable for moulting, and unless Purina Chicken Chowder is fed, moulting will be slow, recovery slow, and the chances of winter egg laying considerably reduced.

You want Eggs next Winter Ask your dealer for Purina Chicken Chowder and Purina Scratch Feed, guaranteed to make hens lay more eggs.

HEARST EXPRESSES CONFIDENCE GOVT. WILL BE RETURNED

Says Record Has Justified Such a Belief.

HYDRO-ELECTRIC POLICY

Sir William Points To This as One of Government's Accomplishments.

BRAMPTON, Aug. 29.—Sir William Hearst, premier of Ontario, addressed a large gathering here tonight in support of Major T. L. Kennedy, the soldier-Conservative candidate for Peel in the forthcoming provincial general elections.

Sir William declared that in the forthcoming provincial general elections, Sir William dealt at some length with the record of the Government, which he claimed was such as to justify the belief that the Government would be returned to power.

He expressed himself as confident on this point, and said the Government had no fears as to the outcome. The various acts of the Government were referred to in substantiation of this faith.

Chief among them was the hydro-electric policy, which he claimed had done much to maintain and make sure the industrial supremacy of this province.

He said that the hydro-electric had prevented a complete industrial collapse during the fuel shortage of a year ago, and today took the place of 50,000,000 tons of coal alone.

Sir William declared that the completion of the plants at Niagara would add 300,000 horsepower to the hydro-electric equipment, and make it the most economic power development in the world.

Temperance Question. Dealing with the temperance question, Sir William pointed out that the policy of the Government was the continuation and the natural development of the temperance policy of the late Sir James Whitney.

The late leader of the Conservative party had pledged himself to be ever on the alert to advance the cause of temperance and to seize every opportunity to promote sobriety.

Under the administration of Sir James Whitney the liquor tax in Ontario was reduced from 2,800 in 1904 to 1,600 in 1914, a reduction of 1,200. Local option in 1906 had made 86 municipalities dry, and in 1914 it had made 31 municipalities dry.

When the war came and the nations were training and arming themselves like athletes for the struggle, it became the duty of the Government to further curtail the liquor traffic as a means of increasing efficiency.

Who would dare say that in such a moment that patriotic statesman, Sir James Whitney, would have hesitated to discharge his duty to the province and to the Empire? He did not; the Government have been false to the Whitney pledge if it failed to act as it did?

Explained Ballot. Sir William devoted considerable attention to an explanation of the referendum ballot. He pointed out that prohibition had come to the province as a war measure, and it was necessary for the people now to say whether they wished to continue or what modifications were desired.

The ballot had been designed that it would give expression to the various phases of opinion that had been advanced on the subject. There need be no misunderstanding and it would be clear to all who desired to express their views at the polls.

He was confident that it would elicit an expression of public opinion that would satisfy the public mind and enable the government to carry out the expressed wishes of the people.

OLD LADY ADVISES PRINCE TO MARRY SOON AND RAISE "SOME MORE LIKE YOU"

H. R. H. Recognizes Sergeant Who Was Runner For Sir Arthur Currie When the Prince Was Attached to the Canadians—Shakes Hands With Blind Workers.

OTTAWA, Aug. 29.—There is one old lady in Ottawa who believes princes have a duty to their country and doesn't mind telling them so, but this afternoon she nearly fainted at her own audacity.

She was one of the 2,000 who grasped the hand of the young Prince of Wales at the popular reception at the city hall. Unlike most of the others she refused to just grasp his hand and then pass along, but retained a firm clasp of his royal highness' right hand while she said in an audible voice:

"You must marry soon, your highness, and raise more like you." The prince, joined in the general laugh which followed her remark, and then, alone, gave her name as Mrs. Alice Woolley, 468 Parkdale avenue.

Recognized Old Friend. During the reception the prince recognized Sergt. Scooby, a one-armed veteran who was a runner for General Sir Arthur Currie while the prince was attached to the Canadians.

"Where did you get hit?" asked the prince. "At Loos," replied Sergt. Scooby, as he passed along, proud and happy.

The prince was very friendly to the Ottawa Blind Association and had much to say to the members of the association. They were very glad to see him, and he was very kind to them.

SAW FIRST CANADIAN SOLDIER CRUCIFIED BY HUNS IN 1915

First St. Catharines Soldier To Leave, Last To Return, Tells Story.

ST. CATHARINES, Aug. 29.—About the first St. Catharines man to leave for the front and about the last to get back, Lieut. T. Edward Jones, of his city, arrived here yesterday.

"I saw the first Canadian soldier crucified," he said. "He was a sergeant of the 15th Machine-gun Battalion and it was in April, 1915. There was no support and they drove us back a mile and a half. The Huns captured this poor fellow and pinned him up to a barn door. They ran one of their saw-like German bayonets through his stomach, and they pinned his wrists and legs with Canadian Ross rifle bayonets."

"Do you suppose he was alive when they crucified him?" was asked. "I certainly do, because he was bleeding when we got to him," was the lieutenant's reply.

Use Assets of Belgian Relief for Education. Herbert Hoover's Suggestion Accepted by Belgian Government.

BRUSSELS, Aug. 29.—(By The Associated Press.)—The Belgian Government has accepted the proposal of Herbert Hoover, director-general of the Inter-Allied relief organization, that the final assets of the Belgian relief commission, amounting to about $16,000,000, be devoted to the creation of a foundation for the higher education of children of the working and people of limited means.

The assets consist of deposits in Belgian banks and equipment and stores which have not yet been realized.

Rev. (Dr.) C. P. Corbett, 5-29, Pierces, officiated in the service, which was witnessed by about sixty guests.

After a dainty luncheon, Dr. and Mrs. McAlpine motored to Chatham, en route for a lake trip, the bride wearing blue suit and purple hat.

FOCH GIVES BRITAIN CREDIT FOR SPEEDY CONCLUSION OF WAR

Due to Sustained Determination of Her People, He Says.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—The speedy conclusion of the war, Marshal Foch declared today in a personal letter to parliament, was due to the sustained determination of the British. This was evident in two facts: the reinforcements which maintained sufficient reserves at the front, 1918 and the powerful assistance which was given in the transport of the American divisions.
