

Read Sherlock
Holmes on Page 2

VOL. I, 305

CANON DeVEBER

LAIN TO REST

Impressive Services Held Today At St. Paul's

A LARGE FUNERAL

The Pall Borne by Brother
Clergymen—Dean Partridge Spoke Eloquently of the Deceased's Life and Work—
A Tribute from St. Paul's Pulpit.

Impressive ceremonies marked the burial of Rev. Canon DeVeber, which took place from St. Paul's (Valley) church this afternoon. A large number gathered in the sacred edifice to witness the last rites and a number of beautiful floral tributes testified to the esteem in which the late rector of St. Paul's was held.

The body, which was encased in a black broadcloth casket with silver mountings, was taken to the church early this morning and laid in state before the altar.

The Holy Eucharist was celebrated at 8 o'clock for the benefit of the relatives and mourners. Rev. A. G. Hamilton-Dicker acting as celebrant. The casket was covered with a pall upon which were placed the floral tributes.

The choir stalls, pulpit, prayer desk, lectern and font were draped in black with bows of violet ribbon, and seats for the mourners were marked off with black silk cord. Pews were also set aside for the congregation, who were admitted to the church before the general public.

The choir and clergy assembled in the vestry at 2.15 and about 2.30 the procession entered the church passing from the vestry on the north side to the church, and chanting the opening sentences of the burial service to Gregorian tones.

All the city clergymen were present and among those representing the diocese were His Lordship Bishop Kingston, Very Rev. Dean Partridge, and others.

The choir, under the direction of Percy Burgess, chanted the proper psalms and hymns, and the choir sang "The Hymn of the Resurrection" and "On the Resurrection Morning."

Very Rev. Dean Partridge in a feeling address spoke of his personal acquaintance with the deceased, referring to his eloquent sermons, his long life of self-restraint, of his power as a speaker, his criticism of others, his enjoyment of his duties, and his faithfulness to duty, even when his performance was painful to him.

He also referred to his conscientiousness and his attitude toward parishioners and others.

His Lordship the Bishop pronounced the benediction and the choir and clergy, singing as a recessional the hymn, "Now the Laborer's Task is O'er," and then followed the committal and grace.

Among the many floral tributes were: A cross of white carnations and amaranths from the Russian embassy, cut flowers from Mr. Reid, a cross of cream roses and amaranths from A. O. Earl and numerous others.

The funeral was largely attended by all classes of people, by whom Canon DeVeber was loved and respected.

A Pulpit Reference

Rev. A. G. H. Dicker, rector of St. Paul's church, made eloquent reference last evening to the death of Canon DeVeber, who for more than 30 years was the rector of the church.

He said in part: "It has been well said that we cannot see the star while the sun is shining, but when night draws her curtain across the sky, the star, in all its beauty gleams out to our view. So it is that in the hurry of life, we only partially know our friends, and are perhaps ignorant of the best and highest parts of their natures. Then death comes, and

WITTE'S NAME CAUSED

RIOT IN A SYNAGOGUE

Police Called to Quell Disturbance at Meeting of Chicago Jews—Leaders Arrested and Several People Wounded.

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—The police were called to quell a riot last night in the Russian synagogue, at Clinton and Judd streets, where Adolf Kraus was addressing a Jewish meeting. Several persons received slight wounds and ten men and women were arrested. Mr. Kraus was giving an account of his interview with Mr. Witte, the Russian envoy at Portsmouth, at which he asked justice for the Jews through Mr. Witte's good offices.

"We may trust the word of Mr. Witte that he will do all in his power to ameliorate the sufferings of the Jews," Mr. Kraus

FOUND TIED

UP IN A BARN

Young Woman the Victim of an Assault—Police Working On Case.

There was a report about the city this morning that a criminal assault had been committed upon a domestic employed by Alexander Fowler, of Orange street, but the full particulars could not be learned from police headquarters.

It is alleged that the young woman in question was going to the barn attached to the Fowler residence when she was attacked by an unknown individual and thrown to the ground, where her limbs were bound together with a rope, while a second piece of rope was tied about her waist. It is understood that the victim of the assault remembers nothing that will throw much light upon the case, but states that this is not the first time she has been attacked in the same manner. The young woman was found by a milkman yesterday.

Chief Clark was investigating the matter this morning, but stated to the Times that he had not received as yet the full particulars.

"TIP" O'NEIL

BACK HOME

John (Tip) O'Neil, the well-known baseball player, who has been making a name for himself in the baseball world, arrived home this morning on the Boston train. In conversation with the Times, he said he was feeling pretty well considering his bad leg.

He is recovering slowly but surely from the injury and hopes to be all right again by the end of the month.

Regarding his plans for next year, he could not speak definitely. He has been bought by the Chicago National League team, but does not know yet whether he will play with them or not.

He says the present season is the most successful he has ever had, except for the fact that he has been injured or laid up two or three times.

He has not made up his mind yet whether he will stay in St. John this winter or go to Boston, as he has been offered two or three good positions at the Hub, it is possible that he may decide to go there.

The Milwaukee team, of which he was a member, secured second place in the American Association and was a very close second at that.

BUSINESS SOLD

The business of the Penobscot Natural Sulphur Spring Co. has been sold to a New York syndicate, and the company will take possession probably about the end of the week. It is not known whether the new owners will run the place in this city or not, but it is stated that they will establish a sanatorium at the spring near Penobscot. The business has only been running about six weeks, and the proprietors, Samuel and James Watson, will, it is said, receive a nice tidy sum.

Col. W. W. White and members of the 3rd Regiment C. A. will have leave either Saturday or Monday next for the annual drill at Petawawa, Ont. Col. White said this morning that he had not yet received word which day they would leave. He had asked for transportation so that they could leave on Saturday by C. P. R. but had not yet received a reply. If they could not go by the C. P. R. they would likely leave by the I. C. R. on Monday.

Diavolo, the man who leaps the chasm at the Fredericton exhibition, was badly injured today in attempting to carry out his performance. He fell heavily to the ground on his face and was knocked unconscious. It is thought it will recover.

Through its darkness, the star of the spiritual life gleams before us. It might be thought that in our late rector, William DeVeber, we had an exception to this rule, and that while he was yet with us, his virtues were appreciated by all. Yet even in this instance it is probably true that of late years only a few realized the inestimable value of his life to the church and community.

"How remote and firm he was when principle or conscience were at stake. How absolutely unselfish—ever seeking to exalt others, and place himself in the background. How sincere in his religion and daily converse, and how the commonest things he did were governed by Christian principle and referred to God in prayer. Indeed during the past years we had without realizing it, been privileged to count as our friend and teacher, one who was a true saint of God if ever one lived on this earth."

The funeral was largely attended by all classes of people, by whom Canon DeVeber was loved and respected.

A crowd of white carnations and amaranths from the Russian embassy, cut flowers from Mr. Reid, a cross of cream roses and amaranths from A. O. Earl and numerous others.

The funeral was largely attended by all classes of people, by whom Canon DeVeber was loved and respected.

Among the many floral tributes were: A cross of white carnations and amaranths from the Russian embassy, cut flowers from Mr. Reid, a cross of cream roses and amaranths from A. O. Earl and numerous others.

The funeral was largely attended by all classes of people, by whom Canon DeVeber was loved and respected.

Among the many floral tributes were: A cross of white carnations and amaranths from the Russian embassy, cut flowers from Mr. Reid, a cross of cream roses and amaranths from A. O. Earl and numerous others.

The funeral was largely attended by all classes of people, by whom Canon DeVeber was loved and respected.

Among the many floral tributes were: A cross of white carnations and amaranths from the Russian embassy, cut flowers from Mr. Reid, a cross of cream roses and amaranths from A. O. Earl and numerous others.

The funeral was largely attended by all classes of people, by whom Canon DeVeber was loved and respected.

Among the many floral tributes were: A cross of white carnations and amaranths from the Russian embassy, cut flowers from Mr. Reid, a cross of cream roses and amaranths from A. O. Earl and numerous others.

The funeral was largely attended by all classes of people, by whom Canon DeVeber was loved and respected.

Among the many floral tributes were: A cross of white carnations and amaranths from the Russian embassy, cut flowers from Mr. Reid, a cross of cream roses and amaranths from A. O. Earl and numerous others.

The funeral was largely attended by all classes of people, by whom Canon DeVeber was loved and respected.

Among the many floral tributes were: A cross of white carnations and amaranths from the Russian embassy, cut flowers from Mr. Reid, a cross of cream roses and amaranths from A. O. Earl and numerous others.

The funeral was largely attended by all classes of people, by whom Canon DeVeber was loved and respected.

Among the many floral tributes were: A cross of white carnations and amaranths from the Russian embassy, cut flowers from Mr. Reid, a cross of cream roses and amaranths from A. O. Earl and numerous others.

The funeral was largely attended by all classes of people, by whom Canon DeVeber was loved and respected.

Among the many floral tributes were: A cross of white carnations and amaranths from the Russian embassy, cut flowers from Mr. Reid, a cross of cream roses and amaranths from A. O. Earl and numerous others.

The funeral was largely attended by all classes of people, by whom Canon DeVeber was loved and respected.

Among the many floral tributes were: A cross of white carnations and amaranths from the Russian embassy, cut flowers from Mr. Reid, a cross of cream roses and amaranths from A. O. Earl and numerous others.

The funeral was largely attended by all classes of people, by whom Canon DeVeber was loved and respected.

Among the many floral tributes were: A cross of white carnations and amaranths from the Russian embassy, cut flowers from Mr. Reid, a cross of cream roses and amaranths from A. O. Earl and numerous others.

The funeral was largely attended by all classes of people, by whom Canon DeVeber was loved and respected.

Among the many floral tributes were: A cross of white carnations and amaranths from the Russian embassy, cut flowers from Mr. Reid, a cross of cream roses and amaranths from A. O. Earl and numerous others.

The funeral was largely attended by all classes of people, by whom Canon DeVeber was loved and respected.

Among the many floral tributes were: A cross of white carnations and amaranths from the Russian embassy, cut flowers from Mr. Reid, a cross of cream roses and amaranths from A. O. Earl and numerous others.

The funeral was largely attended by all classes of people, by whom Canon DeVeber was loved and respected.

Among the many floral tributes were: A cross of white carnations and amaranths from the Russian embassy, cut flowers from Mr. Reid, a cross of cream roses and amaranths from A. O. Earl and numerous others.

The funeral was largely attended by all classes of people, by whom Canon DeVeber was loved and respected.

Among the many floral tributes were: A cross of white carnations and amaranths from the Russian embassy, cut flowers from Mr. Reid, a cross of cream roses and amaranths from A. O. Earl and numerous others.

THE EVENING TIMES.

ST. JOHN, N. B., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1905.

SECOND EDITION

ANOTHER ST. JOHN GIRL

MAKES A DESPERATE

ATTEMPT ON HER LIFE

Annie Craft Drank Poison in King Square This Afternoon

---Esta Spicer, a Native of Nova Scotia, Twice Tried

Suicide in Aberdeen Hotel Rather Than Marry the Man Whom She Could Not Love.

Annie Craft, daughter of Abraham Craft of West End, made a desperate attempt on her life this afternoon while sitting in the King square.

The young woman was seen to enter the square about three o'clock, when she took a seat opposite the Park Hotel.

She had a small bottle with her from which she drank frequently, but her actions were not such as to attract attention.

A number of children were playing in the vicinity and their notice was first drawn to Miss Craft when she fell forward from the seat into the path and lay there to all appearances unconscious.

Frightened, the children sought a policeman. Sergeant Baxter was on hand and carried the girl into A. C. Smith & Co's drug store, Charlotte street.

The ambulance was procured and the young woman hurried to the hospital.

In the meantime the news that something unusual had happened had spread and a large crowd gathered in front of the drug store anxious to learn the cause of the trouble.

Nothing could be learned, however, aside from the bare fact that the young woman had taken a poisonous substance and was in a critical condition.

What led up to her rash act is at present unknown.

At A. C. Smith & Co's it was stated that the poison taken by the girl was a liquid intended for external use.

The bottle in which the poison was contained was taken in charge by the police.

Chief Clark says it was a poison procured by prescription.

The unfortunate girl is a daughter of Abraham Craft of 6 Lullow St. She had been employed as a domestic servant and for the past three months has been living in a situation. Her father, mother, two brothers and one sister reside in the West End and she has a married sister living in the United States.

Miss Craft has not been in robust health and was discharged from the hospital only about three weeks ago.

Still Another Case.

There was another case of attempted suicide in the city last night. A girl named Esta Spicer, who belongs to Nova Scotia, and is employed in the Aberdeen Hotel, took carbolic acid and then laudanum. Dr. Lewis was summoned and attended her and she is resting easily today. She is 19 years old.

It is stated that the girl's mother wanted her to marry a man in Nova Scotia and she objected. She got a doctor's certificate to the effect that she was not in a fit physical condition to be married, but her mother wrote back, it is said, declaring that she must marry the man. Then she took the poison, in an attempt to end her life.

KOCH KILLED HIMSELF

WHILE HE LISTENED

AT THE SPEAKING TUBE

Williamsburg Lawyer, Whose Wife Had Left Him, Shot Himself in Vestibule After Calling Wife to Speaking Tube to Hear the Report.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Assenting reluctantly to listen to one last word from her husband from whom she was estranged, Mrs. Henry Koch pressed her ear to the speaking tube leading from her apartment to her apartment in New York to her apartment yesterday.

A moment later she had sprung back with a cry of fear. Up the tube there had come the muffled report of a revolver.

Ten minutes later Dr. Whitton pronounced Koch dead. The man had called his wife to the speaking tube to hear him shoot himself.

Koch was a well-to-do lawyer living in Williamsburg. He and his wife had separated some time ago, the husband retaining the old home, which was presided over by the 35-year-old daughter, Mamie, and the wife taking up her residence in East New York, with three younger children.

In a letter found after his death Koch declared the woman had forsaken him.

Koch not only brought friends to bring about a reconciliation, but he frequently in East New York to plead with her to return to him. Of late she refused to admit him.

He appeared at the house early yesterday, and after ringing the bell was accosted through the speaking tube. He asked his wife to receive him, which she refused to do. He pleaded with her, came down to the door, which was likewise refused. Then Koch begged her to listen a little longer. "Listen, won't you?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

"Well, what is it you want to say?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

His voice was lost in the report of the pistol. The letter about Koch that Koch had planned his suicide.

He appeared at the house early yesterday, and after ringing the bell was accosted through the speaking tube. He asked his wife to receive him, which she refused to do. He pleaded with her, came down to the door, which was likewise refused. Then Koch begged her to listen a little longer. "Listen, won't you?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

"Well, what is it you want to say?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

His voice was lost in the report of the pistol. The letter about Koch that Koch had planned his suicide.

He appeared at the house early yesterday, and after ringing the bell was accosted through the speaking tube. He asked his wife to receive him, which she refused to do. He pleaded with her, came down to the door, which was likewise refused. Then Koch begged her to listen a little longer. "Listen, won't you?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

"Well, what is it you want to say?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

His voice was lost in the report of the pistol. The letter about Koch that Koch had planned his suicide.

He appeared at the house early yesterday, and after ringing the bell was accosted through the speaking tube. He asked his wife to receive him, which she refused to do. He pleaded with her, came down to the door, which was likewise refused. Then Koch begged her to listen a little longer. "Listen, won't you?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

"Well, what is it you want to say?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

His voice was lost in the report of the pistol. The letter about Koch that Koch had planned his suicide.

He appeared at the house early yesterday, and after ringing the bell was accosted through the speaking tube. He asked his wife to receive him, which she refused to do. He pleaded with her, came down to the door, which was likewise refused. Then Koch begged her to listen a little longer. "Listen, won't you?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

"Well, what is it you want to say?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

His voice was lost in the report of the pistol. The letter about Koch that Koch had planned his suicide.

He appeared at the house early yesterday, and after ringing the bell was accosted through the speaking tube. He asked his wife to receive him, which she refused to do. He pleaded with her, came down to the door, which was likewise refused. Then Koch begged her to listen a little longer. "Listen, won't you?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

"Well, what is it you want to say?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

His voice was lost in the report of the pistol. The letter about Koch that Koch had planned his suicide.

He appeared at the house early yesterday, and after ringing the bell was accosted through the speaking tube. He asked his wife to receive him, which she refused to do. He pleaded with her, came down to the door, which was likewise refused. Then Koch begged her to listen a little longer. "Listen, won't you?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

"Well, what is it you want to say?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

His voice was lost in the report of the pistol. The letter about Koch that Koch had planned his suicide.

He appeared at the house early yesterday, and after ringing the bell was accosted through the speaking tube. He asked his wife to receive him, which she refused to do. He pleaded with her, came down to the door, which was likewise refused. Then Koch begged her to listen a little longer. "Listen, won't you?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

"Well, what is it you want to say?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

His voice was lost in the report of the pistol. The letter about Koch that Koch had planned his suicide.

He appeared at the house early yesterday, and after ringing the bell was accosted through the speaking tube. He asked his wife to receive him, which she refused to do. He pleaded with her, came down to the door, which was likewise refused. Then Koch begged her to listen a little longer. "Listen, won't you?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

"Well, what is it you want to say?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

His voice was lost in the report of the pistol. The letter about Koch that Koch had planned his suicide.

He appeared at the house early yesterday, and after ringing the bell was accosted through the speaking tube. He asked his wife to receive him, which she refused to do. He pleaded with her, came down to the door, which was likewise refused. Then Koch begged her to listen a little longer. "Listen, won't you?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

"Well, what is it you want to say?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

His voice was lost in the report of the pistol. The letter about Koch that Koch had planned his suicide.

He appeared at the house early yesterday, and after ringing the bell was accosted through the speaking tube. He asked his wife to receive him, which she refused to do. He pleaded with her, came down to the door, which was likewise refused. Then Koch begged her to listen a little longer. "Listen, won't you?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

"Well, what is it you want to say?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

His voice was lost in the report of the pistol. The letter about Koch that Koch had planned his suicide.

He appeared at the house early yesterday, and after ringing the bell was accosted through the speaking tube. He asked his wife to receive him, which she refused to do. He pleaded with her, came down to the door, which was likewise refused. Then Koch begged her to listen a little longer. "Listen, won't you?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

"Well, what is it you want to say?" he pleaded. "I promise you I will never ask you to listen again to me."

His voice was lost in the report of the pistol. The letter about Koch that Koch had planned his suicide.

BLACK HAND TACTICS OF

GANG OF NEW YORK THUGS

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Irene Grossman, a girl of 16 years, was found clubbed into insensibility in the hallway of her home in West 122nd street early today.

The attack was the culmination of a series of nightly entries into the Grossman residence, which were intended to enforce, by "black hand" methods, payments of money for immunity from attack. Beginning Friday night, a negro visited the house nightly, appearing to only Miss Grossman and escaping when frightened by her screams. Despite the lookout set for him by the family, he succeeded today in reaching Miss Grossman before she had a chance to give a warning.

The girl's brother told the police that his sister had started for an early morning walk when she was attacked. He heard her scream and ran into the hallway, where he found her unconscious, but saw nothing of the man.

Immediately after the clubbing the police found two pictures in the Grossman home with their faces turned to the wall and notes demanding money written on the backs. On the back of a photograph of Mrs. Grossman was written: "We expect $500 from you. B. F. C." On the back of one of her daughter's pictures was written in the same hand "We expect $200 from you. B. F. C."

In the two previous visits to the house the burglars had stolen several valuable pictures and more than $400 worth of silverware. Miss Grossman's injuries are not believed to be dangerous.

Information reached the Times news reporter today by special cable that a man was knocked down by an omnibus on the streets of London. He was only slightly injured. The omnibus passed on.

A meeting of the carnival committee will be held this afternoon in the board of trade rooms, when details of the celebration will be talked over.

A fleet of two steamers, one barkentine and twenty schooners arrived at this port within the past twenty-four hours.

A cable to J. Willard Smith stated that the schooner Chesla, Captain Brown, had sailed at Barbadoes from Jacksonville with a cargo of pitch pine. All well.

A meeting of the carnival committee will be held this afternoon in the board of trade rooms, when details of the celebration will be talked over.

A fleet of two steamers, one barkentine and twenty schooners arrived at this port within the past twenty-four hours.

A cable to J. Willard Smith stated that the schooner Chesla, Captain Brown, had sailed at Barbadoes from Jacksonville with a cargo of pitch pine. All well.

A meeting of the carnival committee will be held this afternoon in the board of trade rooms, when details of the celebration will be talked over.

A fleet of two steamers, one barkentine and twenty schooners arrived at this port within the past twenty-four hours.

A cable to J. Willard Smith stated that the schooner Chesla, Captain Brown, had sailed at Barbadoes from Jacksonville with a cargo of pitch pine. All well.

A meeting of the carnival committee will be held this afternoon in the board of trade rooms, when details of the celebration will be talked over.

A fleet of two steamers, one barkentine and twenty schooners arrived at this port within the past twenty-four hours.

A cable to J. Willard Smith stated that the schooner Chesla, Captain Brown, had sailed at Barbadoes from Jacksonville with a cargo of pitch pine. All well.

A meeting of the carnival committee will be held this afternoon in the board of trade rooms, when details of the celebration will be talked over.

A fleet of two steamers, one barkentine and twenty schooners arrived at this port within the past twenty-four hours.

A cable to J. Willard Smith stated that the schooner Chesla, Captain Brown, had sailed at Barbadoes from Jacksonville with a cargo of pitch pine. All well.

A meeting of the carnival committee will be held this afternoon in the board of trade rooms, when details of the celebration will be talked over.

A fleet of two steamers, one barkentine and twenty schooners arrived at this port within the past twenty-four hours.

A cable to J. Willard Smith stated that the schooner Chesla, Captain Brown, had sailed at Barbadoes from Jacksonville with a cargo of pitch pine. All well.

A meeting of the carnival committee will be held this afternoon in the board of trade rooms, when details of the celebration will be talked over.

A fleet of two steamers, one barkentine and twenty schooners arrived at this port within the past twenty-four hours.

A cable to J. Willard Smith stated that the schooner Chesla, Captain Brown, had sailed at Barbadoes from Jacksonville with a cargo of pitch pine. All well.

A meeting of the carnival committee will be held this afternoon in the board of trade rooms, when details of the celebration will be talked over.

A fleet of two steamers, one barkentine and twenty schooners arrived at this port within the past twenty-four hours.

A cable to J. Willard Smith stated that the schooner Chesla, Captain Brown, had sailed at Barbadoes from Jacksonville with a cargo of pitch pine. All well.

A meeting of the carnival committee will be held this afternoon in the board of trade rooms, when details of the celebration will be talked over.

A fleet of two steamers, one barkentine and twenty schooners arrived at this port within the past twenty-four hours.

A cable to J. Willard Smith stated that the schooner Chesla, Captain Brown, had sailed at Barbadoes from Jacksonville with a cargo of pitch pine. All well.

A meeting of the carnival committee will be held this afternoon in the board of trade rooms, when details of the celebration will be talked over.

A fleet of two steamers, one barkentine and twenty schooners arrived at this port within the past twenty-four hours.

A cable to J. Willard Smith stated that the schooner Chesla, Captain Brown, had sailed at Barbadoes from Jacksonville with a cargo of pitch pine. All well.

A meeting of the carnival committee will be held this afternoon in the board of trade rooms, when details of the celebration will be talked over.

A fleet of two steamers, one barkentine and twenty schooners arrived at this port within the past twenty-four hours.

A cable to J. Willard Smith stated that the schooner Chesla, Captain Brown, had sailed at Barbado