Reach Hard-to-Get-At Places

Once you have used an O-CEDAR POLISH MOP, you'll wonder why you have kept house so long without one. The long light handle, with its patent attachment, enables you to reach easily the tops of door and window casements, high furniture, under radiators and other hard-to-get-at places. The is a labor-saver, cleanser and beautifier, cleaning as it polishes and leaving a brilliant, durable, sanitary luster. The O-Cedar Polish Mop is readily cleaned and made good as new.

COME AND SEE HOW NICELY THEY WORK.

Parliament in Session Again

Ottawa, April 20.—When the House of Commons resumed yesterday, fitting reference was made by Sir George E. Foster, acting premier, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, leader of the opposition, to the entry of the United States in the war as an ally.

Canada will be represented at the conference of the allied governments in Washington next week. Sir George E. Foster will go first and when he returns Sir Thomas White will follow.

When the house assembled yesterday the government found itself with practically no majority. This is due partly to the number of vacancies for which elections have not been called and partly to disorganization since the resignation of the government whip. It was necessary for the acting premier to make a personal appeal for better attendance.

At the request of E. M. MacDonald, the minister of labor reviewed the strike situation in the western coal mines. He announced that the committee investigating conditions has completed its report; its findings have been accepted by the miners and it was expected that the strike would agree.

Mr. Bickerdike moved the second reading of his bill to abolish capital punishment. In the debate which followed, the bill was strongly opposed.

Highways Bill.
Now that the government has control of the senate as well as the commons, the highways bill will be introduced again, notice being given yesterday by Hon. Frank Cochrane. The bill provides for an appropriation of $10,000,000 to aid the provinces in building highways. The opposition has taken the stand that the money would be used practically for campaign purposes as bribes to constituents.

KING'S DAUGHTERS' OFFICERS.
The executive council of The King's Daughters met yesterday afternoon at the guild and elected officers for the coming year as follows: Mrs. A. P. Crockett, president; Mrs. D. Puddington, 1st vice-president; Mrs. Arthur Kirkpatrick, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. B. Langley, 3rd vice-president; Mrs. T. H. Carter, recording secretary; Mrs. Rothsay McLaughlin, assistant; Miss Lillian Pritchard, corresponding secretary; Mrs. George Disher, treasurer; additional members of executive: Mrs. Charles Peters, Miss Gertrude Campbell, Mrs. W. H. Nice, Mrs. Fred Barbour, Mrs. H. Colby Smith, Mrs. H. W. Robertson, Mrs. W. J. Birmingham, Miss Alice Rising, Mrs. C. A. Clark, Mrs. John Bullock, Mrs. J. S. Flaglor, Mrs. John Foster and Mrs. W. Robson.

Y. W. P. A. girls sell English flags for Red Cross Monday.
— Miss Alice Maud Andrews.

The many friends of Alice Maud Andrews will learn with regret of her death which occurred, April 19, in the St. John County Hospital after a long illness. The late Miss Andrews was a graduate nurse of the Laura Franklin Hospital of New York and leaves to mourn, besides her mother, four brothers, three of whom are at the front in France, and one at home and five sisters, all living at home.

James Hart of Winsted, Conn., has had the name of his dog changed from Kaiser to Uncle Sam. Mr. Hart is a Scotchman and the dog is an English bull.

Anniversary Celebration

Twenty-eight years of valuable business experience to us and we trust satisfactory service to our customers.

This 28th year opens a brilliant outlook for this business. May we always merit the confidence of our people.

First Day Crowds Prove That This is To Be a Celebrated Celebration Indeed!

THE first day of any event usually indicates whether or not we are offering just what you and other folks really want. The numbers who came here yesterday—the rustle and bustle of buying activities—the great number of sales made—all gave evidence of the timeliness of our Celebration and the true desirability of its offerings.

It is YOU that we want to thank for your patronage. It is YOU that we offer EVIDENCE of our appreciation in the form of a share of our profits. Secure everything you require now and will want for many months to come. It's one of the important purposes of this Celebration to offer YOU these things at goodly savings!
