A Call That Is Not Yet Fully Appreciated

(Toronto Globe)

Upon all single men and widowers without children, between the ages of Syrup Company. 20 and 34, and who are British subjects in the Dominion of Canada, there rests an obligation by law that is yet scarcely realized by them. By the issue of the proclamation last Saturday, under the terms of the military service act, all the men comprised in the above definition are soldiers, absent on leave without pay, subject to military law, save s in the same act otherwise provided. The men thus described are defined by the term Class One, and every man in Class One, on or before November 19, 1917, must:

DUTIES OF YOUNG MEN (1) Apply at a postoffice for a form, upon which he will report for service, and give the said form to the postmaster or his deputy, who will forward

(2) Apply to a postoffice for a form, upon which he will make applica it to the Registrar; or tion for exemption from military service, the reason for such application being indicated by the letter "X" being placed beside one or more of the six sentences which set out the six causes for which application for exemption can be made, and give the said form to the postmaster or his deputy; or (3) Apply in person to any exemption tribunal on No

1917, and make application for exemption to such tribunal, Any person who is ill, or who cannot attend at a postoffice for the purpose of filling in a form, may have the form filled in by a near relation, or

After November 10, 1917, no report for service will be accepted, and the person thus tardy will be liable to be considered as a deserter, for which the penalty is five years' imprisonment, without escaping service in the army. After November 10, 1917, no application for exemption will be received, and the person thus tardy will forfeit whatever cause, however excellent, he may have for being exempted from service in the army. EXEMPTION CLAIMS

It is strongly advised that all exemption claims be sent through the postoffice, and not by personal application. Again, it is emphasized that November 10, 1917, is the last day. The medical examination does not require to be taken before filling in the forms at the postoflice. If it has been taken, the applicant is advised to attach his medical sheet to the form he fills out at the

The Military Service Act is law. It is being enforced. It has behind it the parliament of Canada, who made it, and a government comprising representatives of the two great political parties in Canada. To the men of Class One, The Globe would say: "Do not delay. Make your slogan "Do it today."

THE CASES NOT PARALLEL

Paris, Oct. 20-The Associated Press Paris, Oct. 20—The Associated Tress today asked Jules Cambon, general secretary to the minister of foreign affairs, if he had seen the attempts of the German press to point out the difference in the execution of Matt-Hari and Edith of $400. The sum of $88,000 was in sight last evening and a member of the com-

Belgian soldiers to escape to Holland.
This, in German eyes, may be a crime, but not one that endangered their army.
"Matt-Hari was a courtesan. It was proved that she was a spy and the centre of a spying system. Her correspondence showed that she received money from Berlin. She herself admitted that she was one of Germany's chief spies in France, who used the relations she had been able to make by her mode of life. She merited no indulgence. No
