out in full strength tonight.

Bat-Boy Now Shortstop.

St. Louis, May 28.—(A. P.)—The development of Howard Preiss as the one of the chief topics of discussion in fanon. Preiss, who served as a bat boy part of last season, is regarded as one of the most promising recruits to come up in the majors.

He is but 20 years old. His hitting has been timely, and his defensive play has been described as spectacular.

He was born at Dayton, O., and signed by the Cardinals while attending college. He was turned over to the Syracuse Nationals, but was recalled late last season. Not being in the line-up, he voluntarily handled base and was referred to as the "highest paid bat-boy" in baseball.

This season he has been placed regularly at short because of the incapacitation of John Lavan by illness.

Phillies Trade With Pirates.

The Pittsburgh and Philadelphia National League clubs completed a trade at the conclusion of a game last week which gives Lee Meadows, a pitcher, and John Rawlings, second baseman, to the Pirates in exchange for Charles

Glazier, pitcher, and James Tierney,

ARE OLD PROBLEM

What's Wrong
with the Women?

A terrific drama of the money-mad luxury-loving age of society gone wild.

No picture in the history of the screen has ever contained such a lasting impress on the heart and soul of humanity!

No picture has ever contained such modern woman ruthlessly revealed in all her glorious strength and weakness.

A terrific drama of the Mad-Age—Of a society bathed in luxury—dressed in wine—gone wild with excesses—With Modern Women triumphant in the end!

Booth Tarkington Knows Pretty Nearly All About Fellows and Girls

SEE HIS MASTERPIECE TODAY:

Honest now—did you ever think this about yourself?

"Oh
You
Darling"

"THE FLIRT"

SHE WAS SWEET OF FACE and graceful of figure—so alluring in fact that she captivated herself. And often she pressed her lips to her own image in the mirror and murmured, "You darling!" She moved the swains down right and left, and awoke to the shallowness of her soul only after she had involved her loved ones in grief and near-tragedy. It is such a story as Booth Tarkington has always loved to write—full of dramatic situations, irresistible humor and just enough pathos now and then to arouse the softer emotions. No one knows life as Tarkington knows it, no one can depict it more graphically.
