You Save The Middleman's Profit

It pays to buy D'Allaird Blouses— You have but to compare our lovely beaded and embroidered Georgette Crepes at $10.00 with those sold usually at $15.00 to prove this for yourself. There is a very good reason, too, for the saving — you buy direct from the maker. D'Allaird Blouses are made in D'Allaird's Blouse Factory and sold through D'Allaird Stores exclusively.

THE BEST QUALITY AT A REASONABLE PRICE Common Troubles Caused by Eye Strain Many ailments which are a menace to health begin with eye strain. Sight requires that the muscles which control the eyeball and its parts should work constantly. If the shape of the eye is not perfect, the work becomes too heavy and the muscles are strained. This strain causes headache, nervousness, exhaustion, tired, weak, painful eyes. Medicine does not cure. The only remedy is properly fitted glasses. You secure thorough competent attention to your eye needs when you come to Sharpe's.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

YOU'LL BE CHARMED WITH THE QUARTETTE

Old Homestead—Four at Opera House, with Joe Kilcoyne—Fine Bill—Tomorrow's New Feature

Have you heard the Old Homestead Quartette at the Opera House? Joseph Kilcoyne, a great favorite here, is one of them. Sweet singers surely—and a good male quartette comes but seldom. Other good features on the bill include Gertrude Dudley and company in a comedy vocal and piano novelty; Barbettes, feats on the bounding wire and flying rings; Gwen and Claris, in comedy songs and bright sayings; Ball Brothers, in a rattling good comedy knockabout act, and the serial drama, "Peris of Thunder Mountain." Tonight is the last time for this programme. Two shows, at 7:30 and nine.

The regular change of bill opening tomorrow night offers James and Bessie Aitken in a novelty variety offering, with songs, dances and sensational roller skating; Carrie Lillie, international singing comedienne; The Nagytys, in a novel fire eating and magical offering; Lipton, singing and musical mimic; kelo and Blair, classy songs and dances, direct from Churchill's famous New York cabaret; and Marie Walcamp in another "Fenest Cody" picture story of thrill and romance. Tomorrow night at 7:30 and nine.

MEXICAN GOVERNMENT REFUSES TO REFUND $150,000 RANSOM MONEY Washington, Nov. 5.—The Mexican government, according to Mexico city newspapers, has refused to refund to

William O. Jenkins, American consular agent at Puebla, the $150,000 ransom money which Jenkins' attorney was forced to pay Mexican bandits in order to secure his release after he had been kidnapped last month. "I've sent you twenty bills for that account." "Well, some time," said the incorrigible debtor, "you'll get sense enough to stop wasting postage."—Louisville Courier-Journal

Stolen Cars Recovered. Chicago, Nov. 6.—Recovery of $80,000 worth of automobiles stolen from Chicago, and the location of others valued at $50,000 or more is announced by detectives of the automobile squad. Benton Harbor, Michigan, was disclosed as the cache of the stolen cars. Detectives returning from that town brought names and addresses of garages where many recovered cars are stored. They will return to Benton Harbor to seize other stolen cars.
