RECENT DEATHS

James Morgan.
The North End lost one of its most prominent citizens late last night in the death of James Morgan, proprietor of the well-known dry goods business bearing his name, and with which he had been actively associated all his life, first with his father and later as sole owner. Mr. Morgan was fifty-eight years of age, and until a few months ago personally conducted his business. He was attacked with heart trouble and had been confined to his room for about two months. The end, which came at 11:30 o'clock last night, was not unexpected.

The late James Morgan was the son of Patrick Morgan, a native of County Armagh, Ireland, who came to New Brunswick in 1855 after experience in the mercantile trade in Durham, England, and founded the business to which James Morgan succeeded, the year before the latter was born. Patrick Morgan married at Wigtown, England, Mary Ann Robinson, and she was the mother of five children, of whom four now survive. Mrs. Patrick Morgan's brothers and two sisters came to St. John at the same time as the Morgans, and one of the latter, Margaret Robinson, became the wife of James E. Hogan, of St. John. Patrick Morgan was an old freeman of the city.

The late James Morgan spent his life in the business, and on the death of his father, succeeded to its control. His career has been characterized by the same enterprise and honest business methods by which his father succeeded, and he will be sincerely mourned by a large circle of friends and acquaintances to whom he displayed every courtesy. Mr. Morgan performed the duties of citizenship unostentatiously, but faithfully, and the city is the poorer by his death. He was a staunch Liberal in politics, and his counsel was valuable at all times. He was an active member of St. Peter's church, and Mrs. M. B. A., and had served as president of St. Peter's Temperance Society and of the St. Vincent de Paul Society of the church.

He married, in 1887, Miss Fannie C. Hayes, daughter of the late Edward Hayes, of this city, who died in 1894. One son, Cuthbert, and one daughter, Mrs. E. L. O'Regan, both of this city, survive. Thomas J. Morgan, of M. R. St. Ltd., is a brother, and Mrs. Frank A. Foster, Mrs. Joseph Harrington, wife of the principal of St. Malachi's school, and Mrs. Elizabeth Callahan, are sisters.

THE CARLETON MEETINGS

A large and interested audience gathered in the public hall, Carleton, last evening to hear Dr. Burrows declare the unsearchable riches of the Word of God. Last evening marked the beginning of the last week of the campaign which was started on March 18th. Three churches—the Methodist, the Ludlow street Baptist, and the Charlotte street Baptist—were instrumental in obtaining the services of Rev. Dr. Burrows of Youngstown, Ohio, and his assistant Mr. Van Horn, of Sidney, New York, for the work. From every view point the campaign has been a success. The ministers are more than pleased with the large gathering of souls, and the evening which embodied sentiment for the cause of the Word of God, and indifferent to the demands of the Christian life. In spite of criticism and unfavorable circumstances the interest in these meetings has remained at a high pitch from the very beginning. Dr. Burrows is a preacher of the old time religion which emboldens sentiment for the forgiveness on the part of God, and belief in the atoning power of the Cross. Through these services men have been enabled to free themselves from the power of sin. Many families have been brought closer together in the bonds of love because of a change in the life through Christ.

Last evening Dr. Burrows used the story of Zacchaeus as a basis for the sermon that he delivered.

Monday services were conducted today by the evangelists. Doctor Burrows spoke to the employees of the Simons brush factory, and Mr. Van Horn to the employees of the Cornwall cotton mills.

ELECTION CARDS

To the Electors of the City of St. John:

Ladies and Gentlemen:
I desire to express my sincere appreciation of the very gratifying support accorded me in the primary election of Tuesday, May 1 voice the hope that in the final you will by your ballots permit me to serve your wishes for a further period, in returning me to office, and that your opinion as expressed at the polls on Tuesday may be accepted as satisfaction with the manner in which my duties have been performed in the past.

In the department over which I have had the honor to preside I have tried to meet the demands of the public as well and faithfully as my abilities and the facilities at hand enabled me to do.

The policy of improving our streets with permanent pavement and better sidewalk regulations I will continue to urge and popularize. Daily committee meetings are most essential and should be revived. The Assessment Act should be readjusted so as to meet present day objections.

Should you again express your confidence in me by placing me in office I will do my best to justify your support and to conscientiously discharge my obligations and responsibilities which your trust will impose upon me without fear or favor. I have the honor to remain,
Your obedient servant,
M. E. AGAR.

To the Electors of the City of St. John:

Ladies and Gentlemen:—
When a candidate appeals for your support upon his past civic record and estimates that his record of services rendered has been sufficient to warrant the continuance of your support, he should be prepared to establish, by a statement of facts, his claim to that support.

I repeat NO MORE GENERALITIES. Let my opponent get down to business and deliver a statement of facts. What has he done for Saint John? Can he conscientiously serve two masters?
Respectfully yours,
H. R. McLELLAN.

To the Electors of the City of Saint John:

Ladies and Gentlemen:—
I am naturally very much gratified with the very hearty support which you have rendered me in the primary election. To those who have so generously supported me, especially my friends of the North End, I desire to extend my thanks, and to the voters as a whole I wish to say that if favored with a continuation of your approval in the final elections on April 29th, I will, to the utmost of my ability, endeavor to carry out your wishes in the administration of whatever work I may be called upon to perform. My previous experience in civic affairs has, I believe, given me something of an insight into the duties of administration, and I hope, if elected, to be able to meet your views in all matters which it may be my duty to decide.

Yours respectfully,
JAMES V. RUSSELL.
-1515-

To the Electors of the City of Saint John:

Ladies and Gentlemen:—
I wish to state most emphatically that I am an independent candidate in the election now pending, for Commissioner, and the canvass that is being used against me that such is not the case, is entirely without foundation and has, no doubt, been originated by some jealous rival. I think that for the short time I had to canvass the public, my belief on the 14th inst. was very true, and with a little more hard work, there will be a great change in the returns on the 29th. And I hope my friends and the public generally will bear in mind that I am in this game to stay until the finish, and if elected will, at all times, give the laborer the same consideration as I should to the more wealthy populace and will endeavor always to play on and play the game, and do it in a straightforward manner.

Yours very truly,
CLARENCE W. DEFOREST.

To the Electors of the City of Saint John:

Ladies and Gentlemen:
As you have honored me by election in the primary to a place in the final contest on April 29th, for the office of Commissioner, and my platform has been well advertised, I think that this card should be brief. The reforms for which I especially pledge myself to work are better streets and more equitable taxation, in both of which matters I have had a considerable amount of experience and gained a stock of knowledge.

I again thank you for the splendid support so far accorded to me, and I look forward to being chosen as one of your representatives.

Yours Sincerely,
GEORGE FREDERICK FISHER.
