SPORT NEWS OF A DAY, HOME AND ABROAD

Football Acadia, 5; U. N. B., 0.

Wolfeville, N. S., Nov. 2.—(Special)—In one of the most keenly contested football matches ever played in this town, Acadia College defeated the U. N. B. today by a score of 5 to 0.

For the first ten minutes of the game the Fredericton fifteen played the garnet and blue boys off their feet, keeping the ball between their five and ten-yard lines, when only the wonderful work of Acadia's defence prevented a score.

The second period opened lively, with both teams playing like demons for an advantage. Ten minutes after the half had started, Phil Andrews, the star of the Acadias, shot across the U. N. B. line for the only try of the game.

The visitors set a lively pace after this, but once more the Gibraltar-like defence of the Acadia proved impenetrable and the game ended: Acadia, 5; U. N. B., 0.

The field was very wet, making accurate passing, fast running and combination work impossible. It was a forwards' game from start to finish, and the excitement was intense.

Richmond, Acadia's speedy little half-back, sprained his ankle early in the second half, and was obliged to retire from the game, being substituted by Lauring Andrews.

Norman Ralston, formerly Captain of the Dalhousie Tigers, refereed impartially.

IRISH WOMEN AND HOME RULE

Demand Being Made For Votes In Election of Home Parliament

LEAGUE IS AT WORK

Ask That Local Government Register be Used—Say They Have Taken Good Share in Matters of Government and Should Be Considered

Dublin, Nov. 3.—The agitation of Irish women under the name of the Irish Women's Franchise League—a non-party organization composed of both Unionists and Nationalists.

The executive have issued the following manifesto on the subject—

The Irish Women's Franchise League, believing that, in the interests of the country as a whole, women ought to be admitted to a share in the government of Ireland, demands that the proposed home rule bill shall provide for the election of the members of an Irish parliament to manage their own affairs.

1. That should self-government be granted to the Irish people, the Imperial Government be not entitled to discriminate between the men and women of Ireland to the disadvantage of the women.

2. That since the claim for home rule is supported by the argument that the franchise of Irish women should be granted through the system of local government, their ability, efficiency and economic power to manage their own affairs, it is unjust and inexpedient to deprive the women of the right to vote in national elections.

3. That any post-ponement of the enfranchisement of Irish women until after an Irish parliament is constituted, besides being insulting to the women and a denial of their claim, is as urgent as that of their countrymen, involves a future and inevitable re-opening in the matter of the franchise of a question which can most conveniently and most honorably be dealt with as part of a home rule bill.

For these other reasons, the Irish Women's Franchise League declares its determination to seek by every means in its power to secure the election of the Irish parliament upon the local government register, and calls upon the members of the Irish party and the Liberal Government to include a provision to this effect in the promised home rule bill.

The Women's Social and Political Union will actively support the Irish women's demand, not on party grounds, but on the principle that whatever the system of government prevailing in Ireland, women should have a share in it.

HALF MILLION IN BAG LYING IN THE STATION

Hue and Cry From Geneva Bank and Valuable Sack is Recovered

Geneva, Nov. 3.—The principal French bank in Geneva, the Credit Lyonnais, is delighted to recover a sack containing $500,000, which for fourteen hours was lying unprotected in the little one-roomed station of Mollat, at the mercy of the first thief who walked in from the street.

The sack, consisting of valuable shares and circular letters, was seized at the instance of the local police authorities as the French bank, for the sake of economy, had, it is alleged, been infringing the Swiss postal laws for several months by having its daily correspondence to Paris carried across the frontier to Annemasse to lessen the expense of stamps and avoid registration fees.

When the sack had not arrived in Paris, the telegraph and telephone wires were hurriedly set in motion, and the $500,000 bag was found by the local director, his employees and several detectives, lying intact among vegetable bags and fruit boxes in the station.

It was only after paying the full duties that the bag was released.

LONDON, ONT., SUFFERS FIRE LOSS OF THREE-QUARTERS MILLION

(Continued from page 1) arrived. Fifteen streams were turned into the blaze in very quick order, and the fight for the mastery commenced. In a very few minutes the fire got into Kings' m-a' dry goods store, and in an incredibly short time the place was in flames, the basement of the Parsons Manufacturing Company were gun-powder and oils. These were safely carried out before the flames reached there.

A little after five o'clock the wind, which had been strong, died down and the fire ceased to show signs of spreading. Quick to seize the opportunity, they poured the big streams into the midst of the blaze, and their work began.

The fire was exceedingly spectacular, the most spectacular in many years. The flames reached a great height. The flames of dry goods and other light materials furnished excellent fuel for the fire-god. There were many stores, but fortunately no person was seriously hurt. The falling walls were a continuous menace to the firemen.

The buildings were all old and the construction was not as good as might be expected. Quick to seize the opportunity, they poured the big streams into the midst of the blaze, and their work began.

At 5 o'clock the walls began tottering in Dundas street. Capt. Case, who was in charge there, warned the men not to take any unnecessary risks. A fireman was stationed to watch them, while the men worked on in the shadow of death. Suddenly the walls bulged at Chapman's and Kingmill's. A warning sent the men scurrying in all directions. A crowd had collected in the shadow of the buildings opposite, and with a yell of terror they stampeded for safety. Fortunately they all escaped, practically without injury.

Some of the firemen suffered numerous cuts from glass, but nothing serious. Bricks bounced off the pavement into the windows of a house opposite, smashing a score of plate glass front. A late estimate places the loss at $750,000, with insurance of $600,000. Approximately 600 people are thrown out of work.

F. G. SPENCER EXTENDS HIS BUSINESS TO HALIFAX

Through the purchase of "Orpheus Hall" in Halifax, F. G. Spencer has acquired a splendid building and a going business in the sister city. He also secured the property utilizing "Orpheus Hall," which has been utilized for amusement purposes during the last quarter of a century and which is but a few yards from the corner of Sackville street.

It is Mr. Spencer's intention to operate a moving picture business exclusively and to this end will remodel and renovate the building, which will be a handsome property with a frontage of 120 feet.

On the completion, about January 1, of a large new amusement house, at present in course of erection in New Glasgow, Mr. Spencer will include that prosperous town in his circuit.

TAPS TELEPHONE TO GET EVIDENCE IN SUIT AGAINST HIS WIFE

Husband Has Extension Put In Lawyer's Office and Constenographer Take Down Conversations

New Haven, Nov. 3.—In order to secure evidence for a divorce suit against his wife, Louis M. Sagal, according to testimony given in the superior court here, where the action is now on trial, had his private telephone wire tapped, and for fourteen days a stenographer sat at the end of the extension, which was in an attorney's office, and took verbatim reports of conversations, testified to have been held over the line between Mrs. Sagal and Leo Mann, a chauffeur, named in the suit as co-defendant.

The taking of these conversations, according to the stenographer's notes, which were read in court, and which told of more or less intimate conversations between Mrs. Sagal and the chauffeur, began on April 29 last.
