(This Hebrew examination to be passed by graduates who have not undergone previous examination in the language.)

Regular Students in the preparatory department, who have passed the sessional examination of the third year in that department, are not again required to stand an examination for entrance into Theology, but are entitled to take their place in the Theological Classes on presenting the usual Presbyterian certificate, together with that of the Board of Examiners to their having passed the said examination.

Regular Students, who have passed a sessional examination or examinations in the work of the lower years, and who by superior diligence and attainment are fitted to enter upon Theological studies, must pass an examination in all the work specified, with the exception of that in which they have been previously examined, such examination to be held also on the Thursday following the first Wednesday in October.

Students competing for the Scholarship at the entrance examination must take all the subjects named above, whether they have undergone examination in them before or not. Graduates of Universities and undergraduates of McGill University who are continuing their University course are not eligible for this scholarship.

Divinity Students who have already taken a part of their theological course in other recognized institutions, will be admitted,
