A QUEER SERMON.

A remarkable temperance sermon was that delivered in Ireland which concluded with this convincing statement to the flock: "What makes ye shoot at yer landlords? The drink! Aye, and what makes ye miss them? The drink!"

BRIEF PSALM OF LIFE.

What ardent friends were you and Gray!
You wore each other's collars.
But you lost him when one luckless day
You lent him forty dollars.

HER SUGGESTION.

He—You are as sweet as sugar. I wish I had courage to kiss you.
She—What is sugar without sand?

A clergyman who has traveled much in the South told of Dr. Dashiell's reception in a large negro church down that way. The Doctor was prominent throughout the whole church, so the pastor thought he was telling the truth when he introduced the stranger as follows:—"Breddern and sisters, I now hab de honnah of intrujucing to yoh de rebberder Doctor Dashiell, who am de sounding brass and tinkling cymbal ob de Melodist Church."
