SUICIDE: -A commercial traveller named ton from Montreal on Tuesday morning, shot himself dead in McIotyre's hotel that ing was 25 years of age, and represented the noise of Laing & C. Montreal. He solicited Messre. Flett and Glover, merchants, for orders and purchased a revolver from Glover. He complained that trade was dull and said, while in Glover's store, that he would soon get out of the travelling business. The sad affair created much excitement in town. Dr. Venner held an inquest.

CHANGE OF TIME, I. C. R .: - A change in the time-table of the L. C. R. took effect several days ago, of which even connecting lines were not notified. It is only one of five minutes in the time of the evening express going north, but as it involves departure tive official table it makes a good deal of difference, occasionally, to travellers who are not informed of it. Passengers for the north, the train to connect with the I. C. R. night express leaves Chatham station at 9.20 in-atend of 9.25 as formerly.

If the Advocate has any friends capable of directing it out of and above its predominating inclination to slander those whom it envises, they should endeavor to do so. The Advance's aim is to keep its pages clean and as free as possible from personal matters, and it has never yet made adverse reference to any local publisher save when attacked—and seldom them. Per goutra, there are few numbers of the other accal paper which do not contain either open or covert attacks on the publisher of the Advance.

Two bridges, one across Little River at Coverdale, and the other at Weldon, near Hilleboro, went out with the ice on Saturday. There was a serious washout on the New Brunswick (C. P. R.) Railway between Modadam & Fredericton Junction which delayed their traps far out into the sound from the mouth of the shad rivers, in order to make extra hauls. The result has been that they not only violated the fisheries law of the state, but have nearly recommended to the proposition of all states as the early subscribers to the United Sanda and that are now beginning to run up the Connecticut rivers. Two bridges, one across Little River at Coverdale, and the other at Weldon, near Hilleboro, went out with the ice on Saturday. There was a serious washout on the New Brunswick (C. P. R.) The poets sing, in dainty rhymes

Of summer days and sunny climes, Of beauteous maidens, passing fair, With witching eyes and waving hair,

Till, near the end, you're apt to see— 'Tis but an "ad" for P. F. P.;

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria

SCHOOLHOUSE

The movement for hoising the Canadian flag on the schoolhouses on anniversaries or acceded overtising our history is spreading rapid; throughout the Beminslem and evoking the hearty approval of all patrictic citizens. Al The Empire has done its share in helping on this movemen by awarding a handsome flag to one school i each county of Ontario, but the number of est quiries from all parts of the Dominion as thow flags can be obtained by other schools had determined the publishers of THE EMPLES to offer a handsome
