POWER HORSE CLIPPERS
BURNS IS CONFIDENT.
GALT, Ont., Nov. 15.—Noah Brusco, alias Tommy Burns, the Canadian heavyweight, writes to one of the local papers from Long Beach, California, where he is in training for his fight with Jack O'Brien, and says by means to land the heavyweight championship and $25,000, and then at the end of a theatrical tour return to Canada and stay at home for a time. His mother lives in Preston, and believes she will have sufficient influence with him to persuade him to abandon the prize ring.

A FATAL BOXING CASE.
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Nov. 20.—Frank Lynch, of this city, who promoted the boxing match between Mike Ward and Harry Lewis, in which Ward met his death last Thursday night, was arrested today on a warrant charging him with making an agreement to promote a prize fight, he was arraigned before Police Judge Hess and pleaded not guilty. He was held under $1,000 bonds to appear for examination in December.
The coroner's jury, which investigated the death of Ward, returned a verdict finding that Ward came to his death "through a fall, as the result of a blow by Harry Lewis (best man), which engaged in a prize fight." The verdict says that blame should be laid upon the promoters and backers of the fight as fully as upon the principal combatants.
After the return of the verdict a warrant was issued for the arrest of Lynch, who has been in custody since the fight, charging him with wilful murder.

SPORTING MATTERS
THE RING
THE WELTERWEIGHT CLASS.
Its Origin—Men Who Have Been In It.
The Welterweight class, says the Worcester Gazette, was designed for the fight between Tom Williams of Australia and Mysterious Billy Smith. The Australian and English light-weight limit is 140 lbs.; the American 128. Both Williams and Smith were too heavy for the lightweights and too light for the middleweights. The special class was agreed upon with the New York Athletic Club, and the men weighed in at 140. They fought before the Coney Island A. C. April 17, 1883. Smith winning on a knockout in two rounds. Tommy Ryan won the title from Smith in 20 rounds at Minneapolis, July 25, 1884. Ryan was never defeated at the weight, but he gradually grew away from the class and Smith again became the recognized champion, holding and defending the title until he was beaten by George Green (the original Young Corbett) at Carson, March 17, 1897, in 11 rounds. Walcott won the title from Green in 18 rounds, at San Francisco, Aug. 26, 1897. Green then retired. Smith and Walcott fought for the title at Bridgeport, Conn., April 14, 1898, a draw result. Smith won the championship from Walcott at New Haven in 20 rounds. Smith was beaten on a foul for the title by Jim (Rube) Ferns at Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 15, 1899, in 21 rounds. Smith declined to relinquish the championship and both men claimed it. Matty Matthews and Ferns fought for it at New York, April 19, 1899. Matthews winning on a knockout in the 18th round. Matthews and Ferns subsequently met at Detroit, Sept. 1, 1900. Ferns winning the decision in 15 rounds. On Oct. 15 of the same year, Ferns and Matthews again fought at Detroit. Matthews winning this time in 15 rounds. Ferns clearly established his superiority over Matthews at Toronto May 24, 1901, when he knocked out Matthews in ten rounds. The next battle for the title was between Ferns and Walcott at Fort Erie, Canada, Dec. 18, 1901, when Walcott won in five rounds. Walcott could find no suitable opponent in the welterweight class, and he began fighting all sizes and shapes, regardless of weight. On Sept. 30, 1904, he met Gans for the championship at San Francisco, a draw resulting in twenty rounds. It was shortly after this that Walcott was shot in the hand, and for a time he retired. Since returning to the ring he has beaten Jack Dougherty and was later turned in by Honey Melody, and in turn winning in 25 rounds, at Chelsea.

THE TURK
MANY RECORDS BROKEN.
The Canadian Record says: The turf season of 1906 in the Maritime Provinces has been remarkable for extreme speed, with both the trotting and pacing records lowered. This latter was expected, with the number of fast racers in the province, but the trotting record has stood for five years. The record has already given a list of it new 20 performers and a dozen which have reduced their records and it now presents a list of fastest records on Maritime Province tracks, as follows:
PACING.
Fastest performer and fastest mare—Gloria, b. m., 2:19, by Ethan Wilkes, F. P. Fox, Boston, 2:19.
Fastest gelding, Dr. Band, b. g., 2:15, by Ira Band, F. P. Fox, Boston, 2:19.
Fastest stallion and fastest new performer, Kingborough, blk. h., by May King, L. D. Morton, Digby, 2:15.
Fastest Maritime Province bred, Rita M., b. m., by Israel, Wallace Cole, Chester, 2:17.
TROTTING.
Fastest performer and fastest gelding, Estill Boy, b. g., by Potential, J. R. Covans, Spinghill, 2:34.
Fastest stallion, Bourbon T., b. h., by Bourbon Wilkes, John McCoy, Frederickton, 2:31.
Fastest mare and fastest province bred, Lady Tip, b. m., by Israel M. Hill, Sydney, 2:25.
The Boston mare Gloria, 2:19, was the fastest performer of the year, placing the record at Chatham at 2:19, and in her five starts won every race and winning $1,000 in prize money.
Terrace Queen, 2:26, owned by C. P. DeWitt, Bridgetown, was the only mare to win a heat from Gloria, in the fast time of 2:18. She started in nine races during the season, and won three heats, was four times second, and had two thirds to her credit, her total winnings being $11,200.
Sismaree, 2:24, owned by F. P. Boutlier, Halifax, was the biggest money winner of the season on the Maritime Province turf. She was in ten races, winning four firsts, four seconds, and two thirds, and securing a total of $1,160. There was great rivalry between her and Terrace Queen; they met seven times, with the Halifax mare having a better position than the Queen in the summaries on four occasions, and the Bridgetown mare having the best of her opponent three times.

KEENE STANDS AT TOP.
In addition to heading the list of winning running horse owners for the year, James R. Keene can anticipate another successful season in 1907, when he will have a formidable stable of three-year-olds. Ballot, Court Dress, Superman, Peter Pan (the same as Colli).

Zambest, Philander, Vell and others bid fair to carry the Keene stable to victory in many events. A tabulated estimate of the stable's winnings in stakes and purses for the last thirty years show it to be over $1,000,000 on the right side of the account.
Strange to say, however, the tabulator, in his grand total of $1,087,000, won by the Keene stable during his turf history, has omitted to include the winnings of the first two good racehorses Jas. R. Keene ever owned. Reference is made to Spendthrift and Dan Sparling, that won Mr. Keene the Withers, Belmont, Travens and other turf stakes in 1873. Dan Sparling afterwards was sent to Major Foxhall Dangerfield's place at Wrentham, near Exeter, where Spendthrift made a great name for himself in the stud.
Of the horses that have won this leather saddle, Domino, Snyobyn and Dehl, secured the largest amount in the order named. Foxhall's fourth colt, the latter's $83,000 was won in England and France, as he never ran on this side of the ocean.
