STEEL TRUST IN WAR TO WIP OUT JOBBERS.

To Build Warehouses in Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Other Cities For Small Trade.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 6.—The United States Steel Corporation has decided to go after the steel jobbing trade and the steel jobbers' profits throughout the United States, and at the same time deliver a telling blow to independent makers of steel.

Its plan was revealed today through the letting of contracts by the Carnegie Steel Company for a mammoth warehouse in the heart of the business Pittsburgh. The corporation will deal directly with the small consumer of steel in any form, something the trust has never before done.

The Pittsburgh warehouse, which is to be duplicated in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Cincinnati, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Omaha, New Orleans and Dallas, will have power to run cranes, cold storage plants, etc., so that the small consumer, who has hitherto bought from the jobber, can have his material cut and fitted before it leaves the warehouse.

Independent, as well as trust-made steel, has been handled by jobbers.

In the Inter-Society Bowling League Friday night on St. Peter's alley, in the game between St. Joseph's and A. O. H., Mr. Hurley by mistake is credited with breaking two records, the single string and the three string record. Walter Harris has both the record.

McLEOD HAS ONLY SECURED GEN. MANAGER OF BANK OF NOVA SCOTIA

Mr. McLeod has only secured Gen. Manager of Bank of Nova Scotia from Press Independent.

TORONTO, Feb. 6.—The campaign will go on, said Mr. H. C. McLeod of the Bank of Nova Scotia, to an interviewer here. "I am in a better strategic position today than before to press the advantages to the Canadian people at large of my suggestions regarding the revision of the Bank Act."

Mr. McLeod said his retirement was not of sudden determination. For years he had planned that when he reached three score years he would retire from active work, in the bank. Although three score years are some way off, still, looking into the near future and seeing that Canada was headed for an era of unprecedented prosperity, which would come grave responsibility for the heads of financial institutions, he considered it the part of good business to insist upon his handing over the reins of management to someone else.

This is the true story of Mr. McLeod's resignation, rumors to the contrary notwithstanding, he declared.

It is Mr. McLeod's intention to spend many of the coming years in travel. He will maintain his house in Toronto, but two-thirds of his time he will spend in Minneapolis, where he years ago made hosts of friends.

"The debt is just begun," said Mr. McLeod. "I have shareholders of all banks and the public begin to take between the banks to join in the effort to effect independent inspection of our banks."

Every Thought She Was Going Into Consumption.

Gained Ten Pounds in Two Weeks by the Use of Burdock Blood Bitters.

Mrs. Fred Biggs, Kingston, Ont., writes: "I was completely run down, my blood was out of order, and I used to get so weak I would be compelled to stay in bed for weeks at a time. I could not eat, was pale and thin; every one thought I was going into consumption. I tried everything and different doctors until a friend advised me to use Burdock Blood Bitters. I did not have one bottle used when my appetite began to improve, and I gained ten pounds in two weeks. When I began to take I only weighed ninety-three pounds. It is just as if I were new from the grave. I never expected to be strong again. I will tell every sufferer of your wonderful medicine."

The blood reaches every portion of the body to distribute nutrient and remove waste matter. It is the life-giving element, and its purity, its influence, good or bad, affecting the blood, must necessarily affect the entire system for good or evil as the case may be.

Get pure blood and keep it pure by removing every trace of impurity from the system by using Burdock Blood Bitters. It exerts a curative influence on the blood, and is the only remedy.

MONTREAL, Feb. 7.—There was a small crowd to witness a fast hockey game between the Wanderers and the Shamrocks. The Shamrocks' weakness was not having scorers.

CASTAWAYS ON A DESERT ISLAND

Shipwrecked Mariners Live on Mesos and Shellfish—Grim Discovery.

LONDON, Feb. 6.—An extraordinary series of misfortune causing in shipwreck was told on Monday when the survivors of the London sailing vessel Deccan were landed at Liverpool by the Pacific liner Oropa.

The Deccan, a ship of 1,335 tons, left Port Talbot with a cargo of coal last August. She was bound for South America, and had on board a crew of twenty-seven.

Not many weeks had passed before the first of a series of misfortunes overtook the vessel, for when she was near Cape Horn the master, Capt. Parrell, was taken ill. His symptoms developed, and he was put ashore at Port Stanley, subsequently returning to his home at Portmadoe, where shortly after arriving he died.

When the vessel was preparing to put out to sea again she broke up, and the greatest difficulty was experienced in subduing it. When at last the ship was able to proceed on her voyage she encountered a series of tremendous waves, and was driven ashore on Mes Island. When the Deccan struck her mainmast fell overboard, and being badly holed she began to fill rapidly.

The crew took to the boats, but there was no time for the men properly to provision them, a few biscuits and some tinned meat being all they managed to get together before getting clear of the sinking ship.

Fifteen minutes after the vessel struck ashore was down, and the crew in their open boats were left at the mercy of the breakers. After a long search the Deccan was found, and a small boat was discovered, and a landing was effected on one of the islands of Tierra del Fuego.

Although safe from peril by sea, the men were now exposed to fresh dangers. Their provisions soon gave out and this wretchedness was added to by currents of rain and sleet, which fell practically the whole of the time they were on the island, their only protection being afforded by a rough tent made from a strip of sailcloth.

With the last of the tinned meat and biscuits gone the marooned sailors laboured, raving a small sandy beach was discovered, and a landing was effected on one of the islands of Tierra del Fuego.

On one occasion when in search of food a member of the party chanced upon a number of human skeletons lying beside a pile of mussels shells, indicating only too plainly the fate of some luckless crew who had been shipwrecked before them.

Thirteen days after the loss of the Deccan a whaler was sighted. She was promptly signalled, and came to anchor off the shore and took on board the survivors, who were again landed at Punta Arenas, from which port they sailed for Liverpool by the Oropa.

SCIENCE HOPES TO HEAL IN YOUTH CRIME DISEASE

Plan Adopted by New York Medical, Legal and City Authorities to Eradicate Criminal Tendencies.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Medical science in New York have joined in an effort to arrest criminal tendencies in the young. An announcement of a definite plan was made today as the result of conferences between President John D. Lindsay of the New York Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, Justice Deuel of the children's court and Dr. Crutcher of the Children's Justice City Medical School.

Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., is one of the patrons of the project which aims to decrease the number of defective children by effecting cures that criminal tendencies will not be impacted to posterity. Surgery will be employed for minor afflictions with the consent of the parents and the presiding officer of the children's court.

"It should be understood that surgical work is a detail of the plan," Dr. Schuyler said. "Medicine rather than surgery, and healthful surroundings while the patient is under treatment, will be depended upon to effect cures. The consent of all concerned being secured, the patient, suffering from growth in the nose which obstructs proper breathing, enlarged or inflamed glands in the throat, or other ailments that offend are the results of inherited taints, will be recommended for surgical treatment."

Recruits brought to the children's court whose delinquency is attributed to physical causes, will be examined by experts. Rooms for their examination will be equipped immediately in the children's society headquarters, Fourth avenue and Twenty-third street, and in the children's court, Third avenue and Twenty-third street.

The staff will consist of Dr. Schuyler and Dr. Glib, Winters, Bulkeley and Brown, the children's society corps. Their findings will be submitted to the presiding officer of the children's court for decision.

The number of cases calling for such operations will probably not be large, Justice Deuel said. Dr. Schuyler's investigations, which led to the present plan, disclosed that hereditary blood taints which can be remedied often bring a child into court when the child is not otherwise responsible. These blood taints, if unchecked, often lead to crimes that are habitually criminal.

STOMACH DISTRESS IS ENDED FOREVER

Indigestion, Stomach Gas, Heartburn or Dyspepsia Relieved in Five Minutes

DIAPHESIN IS FINE

Take your sour, out-of-order stomach—or heart burn, indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or catarrh of stomach; it doesn't matter—take your Diaphesin. It will cure you in five minutes. It is the only cure for all these troubles. It is the only cure for all these troubles. It is the only cure for all these troubles.

For the treatment of such cases, adequate quarters must be provided. Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., who visited the children's court recently to study conditions, is looked upon as the person best fitted to furnish quarters. A large nearby or a home within the city limits probably will be secured and adequately equipped. This would necessitate the outlay of a large sum, say Mrs. Vanderbilt.

In the report of the children's court received by Mayor Gaynor is included a summary of conditions which led to the adoption of plans on a broad humanitarian scale probably never before attempted by any city in the world. The report says in part:

"It has long been known scientifically that many adult criminals are victims of conditions, acquired or hereditary, which result in mental derangement. These conditions, if unchecked, often lead to crimes that are habitually criminal."

ONE IS DYING AND TWO OTHERS ARE HURT

Insane Act of a Montreal Man—Shoots Three—Row Starts as Result of Demand for Board.

MONTREAL, Feb. 6.—James McGovern, 46 years of age, is dying at the General Hospital from a wound received at the hands of Joseph Martel, 30 years of age, who is under arrest. Martel and his mother boarded with the McGovern family, who lived at 44 William street, and on Saturday when a demand was made for the payment of back rent, Martel became enraged and refused to pay the rent or leave the house. He went into his room and declared that he was master in his own room. The quarrel continued for some time, when finally Martel pulled his gun and shot at random.

McGovern was shot in the head and fell in a pool of blood on the floor. Martel's two daughters, who were in the house, tried to make their escape, whereas they were being held by the police. The ambulance of the General Hospital was immediately summoned and the three victims were hurried to that institution. No immediate efforts were made to extract the bullets, but the ambulance was taken to the hospital.
