CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS FROM P. E. ISLAND.

Old Home Week in Summerside is ringing Back Many Wanderers---Scholarships For Nature Studies.

2.—The past week has been pregnant battle the recipient came to Canada with accidents in this province, some of them of a very serious nature. S. N. Dawson of North Tryon, while training a young horse on the track, was thrown violently from the sulky a distance of about fifteen feet. He fell upon his face, sustaining frightful injuries. Great gashes were cut, his nose was badly injured and his lower lip almost torn from the face. At first it was feared the brain was affected and that he could not recover, but the symptoms are now much more favorable. Two men. Ernest Hillman of Burlington and Capt. Reid of the sch. Minnie A., each had a leg broken a few days ago. The former was working at an old building, when a portion of the roof fell on him, and the latter was engaged in hoisting some barrels Fadyen and Ethel Breakney, both of North Bay, Ontario. Among those goof cement, when the canthooks slipped Riverside, Lot 30; R. E. Mutch of ing to Western Canada were: Ada and and the barrel fell, breaking the leg at the ankle. A boy named McAulay of Strathcona, while with his uncle, Edward Burdette, was thrown under the carriage. One wheel passed over his ley Point, and Christina M. Nicholson head, fracturing the skull.
