A. H. HANINGTON TALKS OF D'ISRAELI MINES

Mill Built on the D'Israeli Property—Asbestos Fibre Already Out Shows Well—A Devastating Weed.

A. H. Hanington returned on Friday from a trip to the mines of the D'Israeli Asbestos Company in D'Israeli, Quebec, and he brings back most encouraging reports with him. He was accompanied on his trip by Sidney Wood, of Digby, who was elected president of the company at the meeting of the shareholders recently held here. Mr. Wood and Mr. Hanington examined some of the asbestos fibre taken from the property and the opinion is that it is of a very high grade. Mr. Wood is having a carload of it crushed and if it comes up to expectations he will have no difficulty in getting all the money needed to mine the deposits. Mr. Hanington says a fine mill has been built on the property and it is almost completed. When finished it will be used for crushing the fibre, and will be thoroughly equipped. The mill is one of the finest of its kind in existence. Work on the spur line to the mines is progressing. The rails and sleepers are on the ground and half of the line is graded and about half a mile of track laid. Practically the whole future of the work is dependant on the reports following on the crushing of the fibre taken from the mine, if it turns out as well as those who have seen it believe, there will be a campaign of active development. Both Mr. Wood and Mr. Hanington are of the opinion that the fibre will prove to be of the highest quality.

Mr. Hanington brought back a report of a pest which the people of Quebec are combating at present. It is a weed known as The Devil's Paint Brush, and is particularly injurious to grass. It grows thick over the ground and covers it like a blanket. The stalks rise among the grass and bear a peculiar blossom which gives the weed its name. The farmers fear that it will ruin the entire hay crop. The seed of the weed is very light, like thistle down, easily blown to any distance. It is believed to have come from the west, and is believed to have been brought to Quebec in consignments of a poor quality of grass seed.

Miss Betty Donn of the Nickel Theatre will sing a solo and Harold Turner will be heard in a vocal number. In addition to the list of firms mentioned last week as having contributed to the success of the production A. W. Adams has loaned 40 Canadian $100 bills which will be displayed and Short's stable have loaned horses to be used in the play. HORSE THIEF WAS CAUGHT YESTERDAY

Oscar N. Hanson, Wanted for Stealing Horse and Carriage from Kindred's Stable, Arrested Near Sussex.

Oscar N. Hanson, of Fairville, a young man well known in this city was arrested yesterday on the road from Upham to St. Martins, and will be brought to the city today on charge of stealing a horse and wagon from J. A. Kindred, livery stable keeper of the West End. The horse and rig were recovered, and although the horse had been driven 110 miles in the last few days, it was in good condition. Hanson visited Kindred's stable on Thursday, July 7, and hired a horse and rig to drive to Lorneville. He told the man in the stable that his name was Kelly, and that he was going to a dance in the village and would be back the next day. He did return the next day but did not go to the stable, driving instead to the city and thence towards the Kings county metropolis. On Sunday last the stable proprietor became suspicious and instructed the police to look for him, at the same time inserting an advertisement in the papers.

Hanson was heard of in the vicinity of Sussex, and at the same time other reports said that he was heading for the Maine border. A police officer from the city force was sent to search along the roads from St. John to the border, and Mr. Kindred himself joined in the search. Finally a report came that a man answering to the description of Hanson and driving a horse very like the one which Mr. Kindred had missed, had offered the horse for sale near Sussex. A warrant was issued for his arrest and Albert McAfee went to Sussex with it. On Saturday Chief McLeod, of Sussex, received word that Hanson was still in the vicinity and that he had started along the road from Upham to St. Martins. Yesterday morning Chief McLeod's son and Constable John Ross started after him. They got him in the house of a man named Bennett and speedily got the handcuffs on him. He made no resistance and was taken back to Sussex where the horse and rig were turned over to Mr. McAfee. Hanson will be brought to the city today, in addition to the charge of stealing a horse it is said he is also wanted for the theft of a bicycle and a cow.

ROYAL COMMISSION ON TECHNICAL EDUCATION

Will Hold Sessions Here About August 15—Opens in Halifax Today—Scope of the Work.

Several members of the royal commission on technical education who convenes in Halifax today, passed through the city on Saturday. After taking evidence in various towns in Nova Scotia the commission will come to St. John about August 15th and remain nine days in the province, visiting Fredericton, Hampton, Sussex, Woodstock and Moncton. The personnel of the commission is as follows: James W. Robertson, C. M. G., LL. D., Montreal, chairman; Hon. John N. Armstrong, North Sydney, N. S.; George Bryce, LL. D., F. R. S. C., Winnipeg; Gaspar DeSerras, Montreal; Gilbert M. Murray, B. A., Toronto; David Forsyth, M. A., Berlin, Ont. and James Simpson, Toronto.

Objects in View. The commissioners have been instructed and empowered to pursue their investigations throughout Canada, Great Britain, the United States, France, Germany and, subject to the approval of the minister, elsewhere in Europe. The commission will gather information upon which to base recommendations and the whole will later be published and distributed. In carrying on their work, the commission will confer with educational authorities in order to learn what facilities are already provided for industrial training and technical education. Then in order to learn what is needed, they will consult foremen of factories, farmers and other practical men. When they have gathered this information their trip abroad will give them the opportunity to study what has already been accomplished along these lines in order that they may be better prepared to suggest methods of education best suited to the people of Canada.

Will Take A Year. It is expected that the commission will take over a year to complete its work. It will have its report ready for the opening of Parliament in the fall of 1911. The idea from which the commission developed was first expressed in a memorandum dated 28 May, 1910, from the minister of labor to the Privy Council, stating that industrial efficiency is all important to the development of the Dominion and to the promotion of the home and foreign trade of Canada in competition with other nations, and can be best promoted by the adoption in Canada of the most advanced systems and methods of industrial training and technical education.
