RACING GAME DEAD LETTER IN NEW YORK

New York, March 21.—Horse racing is dead in New York State for this year at least. The Jockey Club issued a statement tonight saying that because of adverse financial conditions it has decided to make no application for dates. This news came out almost simultaneously with reports from New Orleans that horse owners believe the sport beyond revival there.

The Jockey Club's announcement, signed by A. Dalgard, secretary, follows: "At a meeting of the representatives of the Coney Island Jockey Club, the Brooklyn Jockey Club, the Westchester Racing Association, the Saratoga Association, the Queen's County Jockey Club, the Empire City Racing Association and the Metropolitan Jockey Club, held today, it was decided to make no application for racing dates; as the so-called directors' liability law remains on the statute books the same reason exists as in September 1910, for keeping the courses closed and it is further decided to make this public announcement."

Darkey Hall, 202 1-4, will be raced over the half-mile tracks this year. Most of the horses in the Geers stable are getting miles around 230.

- TO AMATEUR BASEBALL CLUBS.
- Last summer The Standard carried more news of the amateur baseball clubs of St. John and vicinity than all the other local papers combined.
- During the past winter The Standard has carried more news of the amateur hockey clubs than all the other local papers combined. These facts speak for themselves.
- The amateurs, whether at baseball or hockey have come to look on The Standard sporting page as theirs.
- Amateur baseball clubs are again preparing for a busy season. The Standard, as usual, will be glad to give them all the assistance necessary in the direction of printing club notices and news.
- Managers and secretaries of clubs can rest assured that space for their news can always be found on this page.
- The only stipulation is that all communications must be signed as an evidence of good faith and that ONE SIDE OF THE PAPER ONLY BE WRITTEN ON.

THE LANGFORD WAGNER OWNS M'VEY GO OFF BEST ARM IN ANOTHER WEEK BIG LEAGUES

It is now announced that the Langford-McVey fight, which was scheduled for next Saturday night in Paris, has been postponed one week at the request of Langford. He says he needs another week's training, as he suspended work when McVey refused to fulfill his first contract.

The postponement comes at a very late hour. All the advertising has been printed and the necessary preliminary arrangements completed, and Langford is now expressed that the match will ever take place. Booking has begun, however, and seats are selling at from 5 to 100 francs each.

County Jockey Club, the Empire City Racing Association and the Metropolitan Jockey Club, held today, it was decided to make no application for racing dates; as the so-called directors' liability law remains on the statute books the same reason exists as in September 1910, for keeping the courses closed and it is further decided to make this public announcement."

Back in the good old days when I was a catcher for the Pittsburgh club, Wagner played the outfield. It is so long since Honus played the outfield now that I guess half the big league fans don't remember him as anything but the most wonderful ground-covering shortstop they ever saw, but I remember I ever saw in action.

"Honus used to play right field for us in the days when Ely was the regular shortstop, and in those days Ely became later in the short field. With Beaumont, a youngster then, in center field, and Fred Clark, also a youngster, in left field, the mighty Hans in right, we had a slick outfield, and don't you forget that tip. Every one of those lads could throw and Wagner could trim the ball over their distance and accuracy. The closest approach to the equal of that Pirate outfield of years ago in throwing power is the outfield John J. Taylor has got right now, Speaker, Lewis and Hooper.

"Beside's losing one of the greatest throwers the game ever saw, baseball lost a man destined to become the greatest outfielder in the business when Wagner quit the garden to become the star shortstop of the country. When a man was racing home trying to beat one of Wagner's throws from right field I never looked at Wagner; I looked at the runner and doped his slide. Then I just held out my hands and glanced toward Wagner. That momentary glance would show me that ball bounding straight and true five feet from the rubber into my hands. His throw always bounced about waist high, which made it easy to get a slider. They can talk about their cobbs and Speakers, but give me Wagner for throwing, now or any time during the past eight or ten years."

McCoy NOT IN IT.
Philadelphia, March 21.—"Kid" McCoy gave a miserable exhibition in his six round bout with Jack Fitzgerald at the American Athletic club last night. Fitzgerald is a preliminary fighter, and the best McCoy could do was to get a shade the better of the bout. The fighters clinched almost continuously and were hissed repeatedly by the spectators. McCoy made a sorry showing.

BASEBALL REVIVAL IN ENGLAND

London, March 21.—Although baseball has never "caught on" very well in England, but a meeting of the Football Association, of London, is this summer going to make another big attempt to make the American pastime popular in England, by a meeting this week to discuss and make arrangements for the coming season.

Last summer the chief teams were made up of members of the Tottenham Park, Westham, Brentford and Clapton Orient football teams, and one more big attempt will be made to induce other clubs to join. It is also decided to make the game popular among juniors if possible. There are no particularly good baseball players in England, but a lot of respect will be made to arrange fixtures with Britishers and some "Star" Americans.

SHEFFIELD CHOIR.

Of the 550 members of the Sheffield Musical Union, who applied for the coveted distinction of inclusion in the world tour, 200 were finally selected by Dr. Coward after a searching individual test, and he has made the deliberate declaration, carrying with it the weight of authority attaching to the greatest choir conductor in the world today, that they are the finest body of voices he has ever controlled in his professional career. Dr. Coward is to the Sheffield Choir what Hamburg is to the piano, and Sevilla to the violin. St. John is evidently rising to the opportunity afforded it on Saturday afternoon and evening, the demand for seats continuing very heavy with a prospect of the house being sold out.

M'FARLAND TOO MUCH FOR RYAN

Oswego, N. Y., March 21.—Packey McFarland of Chicago scored an easy victory over Billy Ryan of Syracuse in the fourth round of a scheduled 10 round bout before the Oswego City A. C. at Richardson theatre Monday night. Fight fans from all parts of central New York to the number of 2000 filled the theatre.

Ryan was outclassed from the opening bell and appeared exceedingly nervous. He clinched most of the first and second rounds, receiving several wicked jabs in breaks. McFarland's cleverness kept him unmarked during the exhibition, while Ryan at close range was covered with blood.

During the third round McFarland put Ryan to the floor with a straight right to the jaw, but recovering, Ryan was saved by the bell. McFarland started the fourth with a rush and placed several hard ones to Ryan's face and kidneys. Ryan appeared groggy, his seconds saving him from a sure knockout by throwing the sponge into the ring.

In the preliminary High Ross of Oswego was the star, easily disposing of Jack Clarke of Philadelphia in the first round.

Earl Thier, manager of McFarland, announced tonight that McFarland would meet Ad Wolgast in New York on April 28.
