Terrible Ravages of Yellow Fever. The Superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Company at New Orleans telegraphs to the company at New York as follows:

No telegraph transfers proper can be made with Shreveport, as Manager Raeis dying and the operator who went there dying and the option of the purpose. I have transferred the money, however, through a banking house without cost, through a banking house without cost, and can transfer whatever may offer unless the banking house at Shreveport should be closed by sickness. The last messenger at Shreveport lay down sick this morning. No report of the affliction can possibly exaggerate the actual condition of the town. MEMPHIS, Sept. 15.

The following despatch was received here to-night from the Superintendent of Telegraphs in Arkansas and Texas, dated Little Rock, to-night: To the Agent of the Associated Press: Latest advices from Shreveport represent the yellow fever as unabated, and sent the year was the city as indescr. bable.

Of six men in our telegraph office five have teken the fever and two are already dead. Interments average thirty or forty daily, in a population of not over four thousand. Physicians and nurses are worked out. worked out.

The people of the entire country should know these terrible facts and send aid to this suffering city.

(Signed)
L. C. BAKER, Superintendent. CINCINNATI, Sept. 15.

Private despatches received here by business men state that there is terrible suffering at Shreveport, La., on account of yellow fever, and ask for assistance. The attention of the Chamber of Commerce was called to the subject to-day, and $1,000 appropriated, to be dispensed under the direction of the President and board of officers. board of officers.

AID FOR THE SUFFERERS. WACHINGTON, Sept. 15. Senator West of Louisiana, who is now in Washington in order to secure the ap plication of immediate relief to the suf-ferers from yellow fever, has obtained from President Orton of the Western Union Telegraph Company, the following order addressed to the superintendent of the company throughout the country Instruct all the managers to send free messages relating to the relief of the citi zens of Shreveport, and at the request o
the Covernor or United States Senator

In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to Dr. J. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, DR.
