
V. Miss Johnson's Classes.

(a) Class E. Reading. 14 pupils, of various degrees of proficiency. One really good reader in the class—which is composed of youngsters. As to fluency, expression, etc., they do pretty well.

(b) Kindergarten Class. 17 pupils. This class consists of a number of very young children, for whom the kindergarten system seems admirably adapted. Their knowledge of form obtained through its teaching is remarkably correct. They were required to do work in folding, weaving and sewing, and executed each kind of work with speed and accuracy. They were examined in the use of some of the gifts and were found to have mastered the work they had been taught. Their singing is good, and the accompanying movements are made as well as such things are done by seeing children in the primary classes. Here the laborious work of teaching the blind is evident. Seeing children imitate each other and their teacher. With the blind each child has to be treated individually. They were examined in numbers and reading, in both of which advancement has been made. A young lady assistant is needed here, as the Directress has too many under her care to do them all justice. The assistant could attend to the innumerable wants of the little, and thus afford Miss Johnson more time for teaching.

The gymnastics are well taught by Mr. Conolly, the teacher in charge of that department.

Respectfully submitted.
