URGES COMMON SENSE GOVERNMENT TO SHOW SOME SIGNS OF LIFE

"Pound of Action Is Worth a Ton of Oratory," Fort William Member Tells House in Demanding That Steps Be Taken To Develop Canada's Natural Resources — Western Members Urge Need of Irrigation Work.

OTTAWA, March 14.—(By Canadian Press).—The House of Commons spent a Monday morning in discussion of natural resources. Capt. Manion of Fort William-Rainy River, brought the topic before the House last session, and again today it was Capt. Manion who introduced the subject. He had a motion urging the advisability of the Government bringing forward a policy having for its object the development of the natural resources of Canada. He emphasized the importance of Canada's undeveloped resources from iron ore to the possibilities of the timber industry in the wilderness of the North.

A pound of action, he exclaimed, was worth a ton of oratory. While not binding himself to any particular course, he suggested a possible means of development: Tariff protection to encourage iron ore production; assistance to the lumber industry with private corporations, and a thorough investigation into the entire situation. There was now evidence of negligence, and here Capt. Manion insisted (Canadian lumber) ecological survey parties, on which cooks were paid as highly as technical experts.

In the course of the debate this evening, Hume Cronyn (London) appealed for the carrying out of plans for the national research institute as a first step towards the development of resources. People all over Canada were demanding it. The honor and glory of the country, he said, had been done. As an instance of the work which could be achieved through research, Mr. Cronyn instanced the fact that a pulp mill had found a means of using pitch pine for the manufacture of paper. Previously when this pitch pine had been used for the manufacture of pitch, it had caused heavy losses to the manufacturer. The discovery of the use of this pitch pine had increased the pulpwood resources of the Dominion by from 10 to 20 per cent.

Mr. Cronyn made a personal appeal to Mr. George Foster to give his attention to the proposed bill to provide for the research institute.

Naturally, western men held the floor for a great part of the day. Dr. Cowan (Regina), speaking of the Government benches, declared that young men of the West were calling for industrial expansion. "All the Klondikes of the North have not been discovered," echoed Dr. Thompson (Edmonton) and W. A. Buchanan (Lethbridge) speaking from the cross benches, to which he recently crossed, argued that development was being retarded by the present uncertainty in control over natural resources. Irrigation was the great necessity for the arid and semi-arid parts of Alberta and Saskatchewan. "The development of natural resources," Dr. Thompson declared, "should be a pressing Liberal view, 'should be the A. B. C. of any government.'"

Capt. Manion (Fort William and Rainy River) in the House this afternoon moved that "it is advisable that the Government should bring forward a policy having for its object the development of the natural resources of Canada."

Capt. Manion referred to development of the reindeer industry in Alaska as illustrative of what might be done in a land supposed to be barren.

Referring to the vast deposits of iron ore in Canada, Capt. Manion said that before the war the United States and England were mining rapid industrial development as a basis. Experts had declared that Canada was one of the richest countries of the world in natural resources, but despite that, had in 1920 imported $100,000,000 worth of coal, iron and oil.

Small Production. Canada, one of the potential iron-producing countries, had in 1920 produced only six cents of the iron value of the Dominion.

Duplication and over-development of Canadian railways was stressed by Capt. Manion in his claims that this country possessed one mile of railway to every 200 persons as against one in the United States and one mile to every 200 persons in Great Britain. The proper utilization of the railways, he said, was his suggestion for a remedy.

For the fullest development of Canada's resources he suggested, first, a tariff against importation of iron ore; second, financing private corporations; and, third, a thorough investigation into the entire situation.

While instancing Canada's "neglected resources," Capt. Manion declared that the Government should develop a high wage as technical experts were paid.

Supports Resolution. Dr. Cowan (Regina) supported the resolution and said that the same time he hoped to see a policy which would lead not only to the development of resources, but to the securing of these raw materials in the Dominion.

The amount of coal in Western Canada, beyond comprehension, was estimated to contain 21,000,000,000 tons, enough to fill all Canadian needs for 6,000 years! This coal was good quality anthracite.

Feeling Changed. The feeling in the West toward the development of natural resources had completely changed. Today the young men of Western Canada were calling for industrial expansion. The Government should exercise every means in its power to make the natural resources of the greatest value to the country.

Frank S. Cahill (Pontiac) ironically congratulated Captain Manion for instancing the Government for not developing natural resources. The only development by the Government so far, Mr. Cahill said, was to extend to a gentleman named Stefansson the privilege of raising reindeer. Very soon the reindeer industry would vanish, as it was altogether likely that the Hudson Bay Company would buy Mr. Stefansson out.

The only suggested method by Captain Manion was to give old Tory one of a bounty on developments. It was impossible to get out of the treasury. It was impossible to develop the country without a sound policy of immigration. The present Government seemed to have a policy of emigration instead of immigration.

Mr. Cahill retorted that Captain Manion suggested a bounty last year, and again asserted that the whole thing worked on a basis of how much it was possible to get out of the treasury. It was impossible to develop the country without a sound policy of immigration. The present Government seemed to have a policy of emigration instead of immigration.

WAS ADVISED NOT TO LET SPRACKLIN SPEAK

Toronto Pastor Explains Why
Invitation Was Suddenly
Cancelled.

TORONTO, March 14.—Why an invitation which had been given to Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin to preach in Elm Street Methodist Church, this city, yesterday was suddenly cancelled, was explained here tonight by the pastor, Rev. E. F. Church, who had extended the invitation.

Mr. Church stated that he felt that the time had come when he should take a stand on the question of Mr. Spracklin's status, and so he had invited him to preach in his church. He had done so, he said, after having consulted with the board of trustees of the church. "I deliberately extended the invitation," he said, "because I believed in placing him (Spracklin) on the same footing within the church that he held in the community. The regrettable incident which ended his connection with the church, however, was the result of the action of the board of trustees."

The incident referred to was the shooting and killing of Beverly Trumble, hotelkeeper, Sandwich, by Rev. Mr. Spracklin while acting as a license inspector of Sandwich, for which Mr. Spracklin was acquitted by a jury at his trial in recent sessions.

"There was no opposition to the move from my own church," Rev. Mr. Church continued, "but when certain parties advised against having him speak, after considering the matter, again I cancelled the invitation."

Mr. Church said that he sympathized with those who evinced a desire to leave Mr. Spracklin in the background at the present time, but that, with other younger members of the ministry, he felt that such an attitude was not doing justice to the former pastor, who had risked much in standing for the principles for which the church existed.

STRAFORD TO GET TWO GERMAN GUNS

STRAFORD, March 14.—Mayor W. H. Gregory has received word from the militia department, Ottawa, that two German machine guns and two ammunition boxes are to be sent to Straford. It is not definitely known when these trophies will arrive, or where they will be placed.

Death removed a well-known resident in the person of John Sowerby, aged 70 years. Annie Killoran, aged 21, of Downville, died at the home of Mrs. Sowerby, aged 67, also died.

TAKE CARE OF THAT COUGH

Some people get a nasty cough and don't pay much attention to it, saying: "Oh, it will wear away in a short time, but while it may wear off, serious injury may have been done to the lungs and respiratory organs by the prolonged, harsh, racking coughing."

On the first sign of a cough or cold get a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. It will stop the cough, soothe some cough, ease the tightness across the chest, and loosen the phlegm.

Mrs. Wm. Earnshaw, Aspley, Ont., writes: "Last winter I caught a bad cold, had a sore throat and a terrible hacking cough that I could not get rid of. I could not sleep at night. I tried quite a few remedies, but they did not do me much good until I got Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. By the time I had taken two bottles, my cough was gone, and I feel that Dr. Wood's has no equal."

When you get Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, you must be experimenting with new and untried remedy, but one that has a reputation extending over thirty years.

Put up in a yellow wrapper: three pine trees the trade mark; price 35c and 50c a bottle, manufactured only by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

The name of the person who interested me is:

Name.....

Address..... (Street and Number) (Postoffice)

NOTE.—Contestants desiring the paper sent to somebody else should merely attach a note to this blank giving name and address of persons they wish the paper sent to. Any subscriber whose name or address is given on the label of his paper will please fill in this blank as it should be and attach note to blank, giving name and address as it is now printed on his label.

THE PROBLEM

The problem is to draw a chain of circles once across the chart, from the first circle on the left to the last circle on the right, selecting the figures to encircle from which you can obtain the greatest difference between the sum total of the even and odd figures. The odd figures are 3, 5, 7, and 9, and the even, 2, 4, 6, 8. By "sum total" is meant the figures you put circles around, and add them up; then the difference, and the difference between the two totals is your solution. It makes no difference which of the two sum totals is the larger; the greatest difference you can obtain either way is what counts.

The chain must be drawn in continuous sections of either three, four or five circles in a straight line. You may use either number of circles you wish in each section. The sections of the chain may go either up or down, or to the right, but not to the left. That is, start in the first column by drawing either three, four or five circles up or down, as you wish; then proceed to the right, then up or down again; then to the right, and so on until you reach the last column. The chain must end with either three, four or five circles in this column.

ILLUSTRATION

The accompanying illustration explains what a chain of circles is. The first section, it will be noted, consists of four circles; the second, three; the third, three; and so on. The sum total of the even numbers, viz., 46, 58, 32, etc., is 730, and the sum total of the odd numbers, viz., 65, 75, 83, etc., 892. The difference between these totals is 162.

The Prizes

All prizes have an added value for the person who sends in from one to four new subscriptions. New subscribers are worth as high as $25.00 each.

FIRST CAPITAL PRIZE $700.00

$100.00 in cash, to which will be added 50 times the amount paid by the subscriber with the winning solution; also $25.00 for each new subscriber, not to exceed four, sent in with the winning solution; $25.00 will be added to this prize if the winning solution is received by February 25. Contest closes on March 19.

THIRD CAPITAL PRIZE $400.00

$50.00 in cash, to which will be added 25 times the amount paid by the subscriber with the winning solution; also $25.00 for each new subscriber, not to exceed four, sent in with the winning solution; $25.00 will be added to this prize if the winning solution is received by February 25. Contest closes on March 19.

FOURTH CAPITAL PRIZE $300.00

$50.00 in cash, to which will be added 15 times the amount paid by the subscriber with the winning solution; also $25.00 for each new subscriber, not to exceed four, sent in with the winning solution; $25.00 will be added to this prize if the winning solution is received by February 25. Contest closes on March 19.

SECOND CAPITAL PRIZE $450.00

$100.00 in cash, to which will be added 25 times the amount paid by the subscriber with the winning solution; also $25.00 for each new subscriber, not to exceed four, sent in with the winning solution.

SPECIAL CONSOLATION PRIZES

There are in the above list 50 all cash prizes. The contestants who submit the next 50 best solutions (51 to 100) will each receive 50 per cent. of the amounts they turn in with new subscriptions. If they send in any. Each new subscriber may pay any amount from $2.75 to $10, and has the same privilege of participating in the contest as those who interested him. The greater the amounts paid by new subscribers the larger will be the amounts received by those sending them in.

CONTEST OFFICE OPEN EVENINGS FROM 7:30 TO 9:30.

The Contest Closes on March 19, 1921. Address All Solutions, Inquiries and Requests for Charts to

CONTEST MANAGER, THE LONDON ADVERTISER

GENERAL RULES

This contest is wholly independent of and is in no way connected with any other newspaper contest in London or elsewhere. The prizes are offered solely by this paper, and will be paid in accordance with the terms and conditions stated in this announcement. The Advertiser offers these prizes to those working in union to send a solution of the puzzle. When in the judgment of the contest manager more than one member of the same family, or more than one of any number of persons he believes have worked together, send in a solution of the puzzle, he reserves the right to refund subscriptions and return the solution of the puzzle. The Advertiser also reserves the right to finally decide any other questions which may arise, and those entering the contest agree to abide by such decisions. The spirit and intent of the contest is to encourage the puzzle solver to submit his solution upon your first effort, you have the chance of submitting many more solutions as you enter the contest. Your solution blank must state correctly the sum totals of your odd and even numbers, as well as the difference. Otherwise your solution will be considered as incorrect, and ruled out of contest.

INFORMATION

In the event of ties on this puzzle, as many prizes as there are contestants tied, before any prizes are awarded for a later puzzle. For instance, if five solutions are tied for the first prize, the first five prizes would be awarded to the tied contestants. That is, the one submitting the best solution of the second puzzle would receive the prize of the first puzzle. The next best, the second, and so on.

No solution unaccompanied by a remittance will be accepted. Solutions and the money should be sent together, not separately. No solution may be submitted after March 19, 1921. If you want to submit a solution, you must pay in advance. No one directly or indirectly connected with the Advertiser will be permitted to enter this contest.
