HENRY GEORGE'S RELEASE. New York, Oct. 18 .- The following is furnished for publication :- " Washington, October 17 .- Henry George, Eq. : The Department has received from the charge L'offaires ad interim of the United States at London, a despatch enclosing a copy of a note from Lord Granville to him of date 27th ult, in which His Loordship says on receipt of Lowell's note in reference to your arrest, he lost no time in applying to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland tor an explanation of the circumstances which led to it. After mentioning your arrest, your re-arrest and the circumstances alleged to have been calculated to excite suspicion as to the object of your visit to Ireland, Granville says: 'I am convinced that the United States Government will readily acknowledge that considerable allowance must be made for the difficulties with which the officials charged with the preservation of order in that country have to contend at the present time. Nevertheless, in view of the information furnished by Mr. Lowell as to the character and pursuits of Mr. George, which certainly rebut any presumption of unlawful designs on his part, I can only express the regret of Her Majesty's Government that this incident should have occurred.' Let me add, Mr. George, that it would give me pleasure to have an interview with you at this department at your convenience. (Signed), Fredk. L. Frelingbuysen."

Household Notes.

LIMA BEANS. Lima beans are now in market. They must be dropped into water that has been salted, and is just beginning to boil. A tablespoonful of salt to every two pints of water. Cook till tender. SWEET PICKLED RESTS.

Boil them in a kettle till they can be pierced with a fork; when cool, cut lengthwise to eize of a medium cucumber; boil equal parts of vinegar and sugar with half a tablespoonful of ground cloves, tied in a cloth, to each gallon; pour boiling hot over the heets.

SEASONAB E HINTS.

Snipe and wookcock are best roasted with a piece of pork, fied to the breast. At the seashore, or wherever oysters can be obtained, dip an oyster in the yelk of an egg, roll in bread crumbs, and put inside the bird for stuffing. They take about thirty minutes to

TO POACH EGGS. The best way to poach eggs is to get boiling water in your mustin tine and set them on the hottest part of the slove; break the eggs in a sencer, then drop one in each tin; in two or three minutes they will be done, and can be taken up one at a time in good shape with the belp of a small strainer; sesson with butter, pepper and salt.

LEMON SYRUP.

Equeeze the lemon and strain the juice: to every pint put one and a half pounds of finely pounded lump sugar, put it in a wide-mouthed bottle, and cork it tightly; boil it in the bottle till the sugar is dissolved, stirring it occasionally; when cold, bottle it. It should be put on the fire in cold water and heated gradually. If required to keep longer than a few weeks the sugar should be increased to two pounds per pint, but it is more refreshing with the smaller quantity. CARROTS AND CREAM.

Choose very small carrots, scrape them well, cut them in balves, and blanch them for two minutes in salted water; put them in a stew pan with some butter, add a little salt and sugar, let them fry gently until the moisture is reduced; sprinkle a little flour over them, add a small quantity of good white stock; let it boil and remove to the side of the fire; when the carrots are done, thicken them with the yelks of two eggs beaten smooth with milk or cream, and add a pinch of grated nutmeg and a piece of butter as the butter dissolves dish them up.

A VEGETARIAN'S DAINTY DISH. Choose a young lettuce, strip off the outside leaf, open the centre, and place in it a fresh sprig of thyme, tie it up again so that the lettuce head will not fall to pieces. Place it in a stew pan with three pints of young peas freshly shelled, a half pound of fresh butter and a gill of water; not more than this, because the lettuce and the peas yield a good deal. Add salt, but in modertion. Let it cook on a slow fire for twenty minutes; then take out the lettuce and allow the peas to stew until the sauce is absorbed. Then stir the yelk of an egg into four table. spoonfu's of cream (or milk), a tesspoonful of powdered sugar and a sprinkle of white pepper. Mix this quickly with the peas, so that their heat and that of the stew-pan warm the cream. Do not put the sauce on the fire or the egg and cream may curdle.

TOMATO SAUCE. Ten pounds ripe tomatoes, one pint best brown vinegar, two ounces salt, one-half ounce cloves, one ounce allepice one-half poond white sugar, one ounce garlic, one-half ounce black pepper and one helt ounce Cayenne pep-Wipe the tomatoes clean and boil or bake till soft; then strain and rub through a sleve that will retain the seeds and skins. Boil the juice for an hour, then add the above ingredients (all the spices must be ground). Boil all together for a sufficient time, which may be known by the absence of any watery particle and by the whole becoming a smooth mass; five hours will generally suffice. Bottle without straining into perfectly dry bottles and cork securely when cold. The garlic must be peeled. The proportions of spice may be varied according to taste.
