

I put up a most effective campaign in the Free Press. I kept the Government in the defensive all the time and yet not in an offensive manner.
I can't imagine anything else I could have done. Aside from this I directed largely the organization from here and more certainly most fortunate.
I was about ready to collapse when the campaign was on.
I was never so tired in my life, but have quite recuperated now.
