The Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, P.C., M.P.,
Ottawa, Ont.

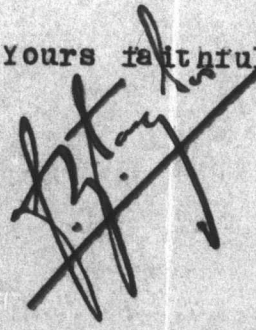

My dear Arthur :-

I have your letter of the 4th instant. Since Mr. King announced that the Session was not meeting until January, I have been rather looking for you coming up before Christmas.

I am very glad you have written Mr. Nichols.

The Rev. Dr. Melvin was in this afternoon. He is Pastor of Grace United Church, and has a Sunday Afternoon Class composed of about forty or fifty young men of the age of Harvey Sparling. He wants to know if you will be here over Sunday, and, if so, if you will speak to them for half an hour on any subject you wish. He has had different people entirely from outside the Church giving addresses on Sunday afternoons. He is writing you himself, but he asked me to write this letter merely for the purpose of introducing him.

FGT/D

Yours faithfully,
