but concluded that you might not want to talk this matter over the telephone.

If you do not mind letting me have your opinion on these stocks, or if you could and would give me a list of stocks that you would recommend, naturally I would more than appreciate it.

You might think from the above list that I was going to invest a million, but of course I have not a great deal to invest. However I am willing to take a chance on whatever investments I do make, and if I make money or if I lose it, it will be my own good fortune or misfortune, as the case might be.

Yours sincerely,

Cal Miller
