Ottawa 9th August, 1904.

Sir,

With further reference to the matter of your claim against the Indians of the Rama Reserve, I beg to inform you that the matter has been fully considered. The Department is willing to pay to your creditors the amounts withheld from Indians on account of your debts, when the same are collected, if you can obtain a joint agreement from your creditors (including the Dominion Bank) regulating such payments.

Your obedient servant.

Secretary.
