*Fort Saskatchewan,
February 3rd, 1896*

Sir,
I have the honor to report on the condition and condition of the horses of this Division for the past month.

The following horses were off duty during the month - 1224, 1207, 1241, 1236 & 1255, suffering respectively from sandcrack, fetlock sprain, sprained tendon, injured wound & inflamed eye. They have all been returned to duty, except 1224.

The remainder are in good health and condition.

The horses that are shod were attended to during the month.

Reports from the Outfitters are satisfactory.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant.

H. B. Joya.

Regt. Chief.
