

SLASH LEFT ON THE GROUND AFTER LOGGING

The slash not only increases the fire hazard but it makes conditions unfavourable for the reproduction of Douglas fir.

YOUNG FIR TREES ON AN AREA LOGGED AND BURNED ONCE

They are sixteen years old and occur at the rate of 2,000 to the acre.