

50 HEAD SALE OF MARCH 30

Registered Holsteins AT MAPLE HILL STOCK FARM (NEAR CORNWALL)

As I have decided to give up farming, my entire herd will be sold without reserve. This herd is the product of careful and intelligent breeding, with an aim to get a herd of high producers and good individuals. That I have succeeded, a glance at the records in the catalogue will show. It is the quality you want we'll see you on the 30th. Take particular note of our best sires:

Pontiac Peach Prince—This bull is a son of King Pontiac Artie Canada. This year's crop of calves in the Maple Hill Farm estate has been sired by this bull.

King Topsy of Hel Lee—This bull is a son of Sir Aggie Boots Segis. His dam and two nearest dams on sire's side average 29.74 lbs. butter in seven days.

A postal will bring our catalogue to your door. Plan to be here if you want the best. Parties arriving by the N.Y. & O. and G.T. Railways will be met by rigs at the Carleton Hotel Cornwall and conveyed to and from the farm. C.P.R. train from east will stop at crossing near farm, where parties will be met.

TERMS—Six months' credit on approved joint notes, without interest. Three per cent. allowed for cash.

In this group, in the best condition, is Mornalpage Calamity Lay, in calf to R. M. Holley's Fietsaria's Pontiac Duplicate. Cubana Dekol Princess 2nd, another with 34.2 lbs. in the seven days, will be worth while watching. The balance of Mr. Caskey's offerings will be splendid young females, with the blood of producing lines, including two daughters of Francis Ad's Admiral Ormsby. Several of the young cows are bred to Earl Burke Korydyka, a son of Victoria Durka. In this sale of Mrs. Caskey is putting up one particularly fine fellow, he is a brother of Victoria Korydyka, 21.7 lbs. at 2 yr., and sired by Francis Ad's Admiral Ormsby, tracing directly to Jenny Hennings Ormsby, with over 30 lbs. for five years in succession.

Possibly none of the big sales ever held at Belleville offers such great buying as will be placed before breeders this year. Every contribution from the big herds represented, traces direct to the Champion cows produced in the Belleville district. Many of these younger animals are well untested and at moderate prices. With much blood behind them they cannot fail to make good, as hundreds have done in previous years. As a social event, and as the grand buying opportunity of the year, this sale is held in Woodstock, March 16, and Whites" don't fail to write Fred Malloy, of Frankton for your catalogue, and join the throng at Belleville on March 30.
