The remains of Mr. Francis Falkner, who had been a member of the old Dublin Corporation and filled the office of High Sheriff of the city, were laid in the mily vault at Mount Jerome Cemetery on December 13th, and the funeral cortege was composed of a large number of the leading merchants and citizens. WICKLOW.

On December 13th Phillips Newton, Esq., coroner of the Southern Division of the county Wicklow, held an inquest on the remains of Robert Johnson, who died very suddenly the previous day at his residence, Tinahely. Dr. Crolly deposed that deceased died of heart disease. Mr. Johnson retired from the constabulary about four years ago.

On December 14 an address was presented to Surgeon-Major Reynolds by the superiors and students of St. Thomas College, Newbridge. In his reply Surgeon-Major Reynolds studiously referred to his heroic deeds in South Africa, but spoke with feeling and warmth of the pleasant days he himself had spent under the care of the Dominican Fathers, and exhorted those who stood around him to earnest-ness in the work of life, and even to keep God and duty before them.

CARLOW.

Mr. McCraith, President of the North London Home Rule Association, has issued his address to the electors of the borough of Carlow. In his address Mr. McCraith adopted the Tenant-right platform in its entirety; and, as regards the Education question, he stated his opinion that the the better the method state of the solution of the solution (CLA) On Dec. 14th, at C question, he stated his opinion that the late legislation was inadequate to meet the demands of the Irish Roman Catholics, demands of the Irish Roman Catholics, and that he would support a measure of ustice for them. The subject of Home tule was treated by the speaker as the question of the day.

January, 1880. The Countess of Rosse, Birr Castle, and the Countess of Hunting-ton, are patronesses, and a committee in-eluding the Earls of Rose and Huntington, have been appointed to carry out the details. A meeting was held, on Dec. 15th, in the Town Hall, Parsonstown, for the purpose of taking steps to provide fuel for the destitute poor. It was stated that sum of £80 remained in the hands of the treasurer since last year. It was un-animously agreed upon that this sum should be expended in the purchase of collected. Father O'Connor, of Ballybunion, county Kerry, has arranged to deliver a series of lectures in England on the sub-ject of preveiling distress, its cause, and the remedy against recurrence of similar calamities in future LIMERICK. The details of the assault on Lord Fer-moy, on Dec. 13th, which event was annoursed through the cable, are as follows: —He was passing into the County Club, George street, Limerick, when a man named James O'Shea, residing in Moor's lane, Back Cair, came up and struck him a heavy blow with a stick, the result being that Lord Fermov was knocked down on a rent. He was arraigned at the assizes

the Rathkeale Board of Guardians on Dec. 10th, praying that temporary out-door re-lief might be extended to them until some employment would be opened. The guardians not having in their power to afford out-door relief to able-bodied persons adopted resolutions calling on the Government to class the union in the list of those entitled to facilities for loans and other measures calculated to meet the present distress. A meeting of the inhabitants of the town was convened by Mr. Daniel Fitzgibbon, Chairman of the Town Commisioners, when a subscription list was opened, and over $\pounds 100$ was immediately subscribed. It being work, and not charity, that the laborers required, the committee formed for the expenditure of

On Dec. 14th, at Crannysbridge, a small farmer named John Collins, who had retermer names sonn confirs, who had re-cently paid his rent contrary to the wishes of other tenants on the same estate, had retired to rest, when he was attacked by four men with blackened faces, who drag-ged him out of bed and beat him with bluggeons about the head, inflicting severe initiate. Colling head head head head head head injuries. Collins has since been unable to leave his bed. His assailants have not to reach him, and after a severe struggle succeeded in landing him safely. On December 18th, in the house of a farmer residing in the townland of Drum-reagh, near Rostrevor, two boys, named McAleavy and Smith, were playing with a gun, which went off, the charge lodging in the head of McAleavy, who was killed instantaneously.

One result of the prevalent distress so far as a part of the ccunty Down is concerned, is that Lord Annesley has found it necesas that Lord Amesicy has found it neces-sary to discharge as many as seventy of his day laborers The only explanation risked is that as the tenants refuse to pay his lordship the new and increased rent the latter must cut down expenses. On Dec. 18th, a man named Patrick Campbell, a mason and plasterer, residing in the townland of Clare, was proceeding homewards from Moira. His way home lay past a limestone quarry about sixty feet deep, and when passing it he slipped on the edge and fell to the bottom. Here and his face disfigured by the fall. He leaves a wife and seven children.

On Dec. 13th the principal traders of Virginia held a preliminary meeting at the Headford Arms Hotel for the purpose of taking such steps for the relief of the poor of the town and district as might be deemed essential under the depressed state of the times, and as regards the keen competition in trade, &c. Mr. Henry having been moved to the chair, resolutions were proposed and carried to the effect that, instead of continuing the old system of giving Christmas Boxes, the money usually expended in this way be subscribed to a fund for the relief of the

The Derry "Apprentice Boys," on Dec. 18th, celebrated the anniversary of the "shutting of the gates," the primary inci-dent in the memorable siege. At mid-night there was a discharge of some im-provised ordinance, and a fife and demu provised ordinance, and a fife and drum band broke in on the stillness of the night and the slumber of the citizens. During the day there was the usual parade, with music and banners, but it was merely an attenuated representation of the demonstrations of former days. In the afternoon there was a gen-eral gathering on the city wall to witness the burning of governor Lundy in effigy. The cremation having been carried out to the satisfaction having been carried out to the satisfaction of the brethren, who called Lundy a traitor, and execrated his mem-ory, the assemblage of the public, who take some anusement out of this part of the execution of the public out the programme, dispersed, and the out-

GALWAY. In the vicinity of Cloonberne, three men-two brothers named Froany, with their brother-in-law-retired to bed in a room wherein was placed to heat it a pot filled with fire. There was no chimney in the room nor any ventilation, the door and windows being closed, and the result was that one of the brothers was sufficiated and the other rendered unconscious. The latter has recovered, and the brother-in-law, strange to say, was not in any way injured. On Dec. 15th, a bailiff named Tully went to the property of Mr. Francis Comyn, to serve ejectment processes, the tenants having refused to pay their rent unless an abatement were made of 25 per cent. Tully was accompanied by three members of the Royal Irish Constabulary from Spiddel, Mr. Comyn's property being situated about two miles beyond Acctings.

the distress of the county Klikenny. There is no employment. Local charity is actively at work. Mr. Arthur Kavanagh, M. P., has promised to in-stitute works next week, on his property at Ballyragget. Lady Harriet Kavanagh has distributed fifty blankets to the poor of that town, and Mr. Brennan, J. P., here given a supply of coal for disturbution has given a supply of coal for disturbution amongst the poor. The Rev. Wm. Martin, P. P., Freshford, has acknowledged a donation of £50—the joint gift of Lady Milford and Mrs. Thomas Eyre, Lady Millora and Mrs. Homas Eyre, Upper Court, towards the alleviation of the distress. The corporation of the city are about borrowing $\pounds 1,000$ from the National Bank to spend on public works.

CORK.

As an evidence of the prevailing distress, owing to the dearth of employment in the neighborhood, the West Cork Eagle further announces that at the meeting of Skibbereen Town Commissioners, on Dec. 15th, overforty able-bododied men, many of whom bore the appearance of pinchin hunger and want, attended and asked th commissioners if they could do anything for them in the way of affording employ-ment. Several of them stated that they and their families were actually starving. The dearth of employment in the town of Kilworth has reduced several poor people there to a most pitiable condition—lacking food, fuel and clothing. Mr. Kennedy, of Dublin, agent for the Kilworth property of Mr. Hopkinson, of London, has for-warded a cheque to the Rev. Mr. Carver, yet unknown. R. C. A., to form the nucleus of a fund for supplying the poor with coals at Christmas. Several clergymen and gen-tlemen have supplemented this sum. At employment.

Castlelvons, the landlord, Mr. Perrott, has given $\pounds 20$ worth of coal and $\pounds 15$ worth of flannel to the needy. He has in contemplation also the clearing of the river bed, the reclamation of a larg extent of bogland, and the building of cottiers' re-

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every-body, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are, at the same time, the safest and best physic for children. By their aperient action they gripe much less than the common purgatives, and never give pain when the bowels are not inflamed. They reach the vital fountains of the blood, ALL RHEUMATIC AND OTHER and strengthen the system by freeing from the elements of weakness.

Adapted to all ages and conditions in Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates, containing neither calomel nor any deleterious drug, these Pills may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar-coating preserves them ever fresh, and makes them pleasant to take; while being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.
