PAYMENT FOR FEEDING CATTLE

I am wintering a bunch of cattle for a man. He promised to pay me half the amount agreed on at Christmas, but failed to do so, and returning last week from where he has been at work all winter paid me ten dollars, which is not a quarter of the amount. He says he has no more money at present, but will sell some of his cattle to pay me. Now, I don't believe this. Can I hold the cattle, or part of them, to the amount he owes me until he pays, or how can I recover the debt? There is no written agreement.

Alta. J. R.

Ans.—You had better press hard for a settlement, and if it is not made at an early date, lay a complaint before a justice of the peace and get a judgment against the man, which may give you the right to have sufficient of the cattle sold to cover the charges against them.

WANTS INFORMATION ON PROJECTED RAILWAY

I believe it would be a good idea if illustrated articles were published in your interesting and valuable journal on the era of development along new railways and projected lines, describing the country to be opened up, so that those of us who are here would be able to profit thereby, and new settlers coming in, enabled to procure desirable locations. I have a cousin here who wants to homestead and get a pre-emption. Naturally he would like to locate near some projected line of railway. Can you give us any information?

Alta. A. O.

Ans.—We would willingly furnish readers with all the information possible, as to the intentions of railway companies to extend existing lines, or construct new ones, but, unfortunately, the railways seldom make public their intentions, or at best give out only such information as they desire outsiders to have, and that, as a rule, is not of much importance to anybody. As a rule too, in this country during the past few years, the railways have not been opening up a new country for homesteading, but merely trying to provide railways for districts into which settlers have gone ahead of them. To get a homestead nowadays, a man cannot delay their intentions until the railways announce their intentions of building a road into any particular district. If he does, the best land will all be filed on long before he gets there. The days are nearly past when homesteads and quarters for pre-emption can be picked up beside the railway track or adjacent to a townsite. One has to go back from the beaten paths some considerable distance, and he has to take chances on being near a railway when the line finally is run. You might get some information by writing the land departments of the C. P. R., or C. N. R., or from the lands branch of the department of the interior, Ottawa.

HOMESTEAD FOR MINOR

It has been brought to our attention that we were slightly in error in our reply to a question as to the reserving of a homestead for a minor, published in the March 10th number, and we herewith publish regulations governing such reservations.

(a) An agent may reserve an available quarter-section of land for a minor over seventeen years of age, until he is eighteen, on the following conditions:—

1.—His father (or mother if the father is deceased) must live upon his homestead, or upon farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty acres in extent, within nine miles of the quarter-section applied for.

2.—The father (or mother) must file with the agent a statutory declaration, properly executed, giving the date of the son's birth and the names and residence of the parents. When this information has been satisfactorily furnished, the agent may reserve the quarter-section, reporting same to head office, at the time forwarding declaration, retaining a copy on file in his office.

ECZEMA LODGES IN THE SKIN

Not a Blood Disease—Cured by Oil of Wintergreen Compound.

For many years eczema was supposed to be a blood disease and was erroneously treated as such, but now the best authorities agree that eczema is only a skin disease and must be cured through the skin. The eminent skin specialist, Dr. D. D. Dennis, first discovered the eczema germ, and his discovery was quickly taken up in both Germany and France.

To kill the eczema germ and at the same time heal the skin, Dr. Dennis compounded oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc. The remedy is a liquid, not a mere salve, hence it sinks right into the pores of the skin. Washing with this oil of wintergreen compound seems to take the itch away at once; soon the scales drop away, and the disease disappears. The prescription has now been used so long as to have proven its absolute merit.
