

LOCAL MATTERS OF INTEREST.

SATURDAY

There were four baptisms and one confession at the Billy-Mitchell evangelistic services in the Douglas avenue church last evening.

William Bruckhoff, managing director of the Portland Rolling Mills, has placed his resignation in the hands of the directors, and George H. Waring is acting manager.

The many friends of Patrick Egan, night watchman at Charles Miller's mill, Pokok, will be glad to hear that he has greatly recovered from the recent injury he received.

A boy named Little, employed in Brown's drug store, Princess street, had a narrow escape from serious injury last evening.

Publicity makes a product noted, quality brings fame. "Salada" Tea is both noted and famous.

MONDAY

The deaths reported for the week past by the Board of Health number twenty-four, and the causes are as follows:

A countryman named Walsh started to drive into the city Saturday morning with a load of produce on a horse and white horse, but when he reached the stable here his horse was black.

During the past week there have been twenty-three births, eight of whom were males, and nine marriages.

TUESDAY

A teamster named Gorman caused quite a laugh in the police court this morning. He had been charged with breaking one of the city by-laws and when his case was called he got up and walked from his chair.

WEDNESDAY

The evangelistic services which have been conducted by Messrs. Mitchell and Bilby in the Douglas avenue church the past three weeks will end on Friday evening.

THURSDAY

At Dorchester yesterday upwards of two hundred citizens headed by a band, gave Justice Hanington a great send off on his start for England.

given away by Mr. D. G. Spencer. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Stone left for Amherst, where they will in future reside.

In Kings County probate court on Saturday, Judge McIntyre heard the will of the late Mrs. Richmond, of Providence, R. I., asking for ancillary probate in the state of the late Mrs. Amanda Ross Richmond, formerly of this province, who died in Providence, R. I., leaving property in Kings Co.

At the University sports in Fredericton yesterday four new records were made while another was tied. The records broken included the running broad jump by Baird, 21 ft., 3/4 inches; the 2-20 yards dash, Bridges, 24.5 seconds; putting the shot, Baird, 27 feet, 1/2 inches; and the mile run, Landry, 5 minutes, 10 seconds.

Albin R. Foster, formerly Deputy Sheriff of Carleton County, has been appointed Chief of Police along the construction line of the G. T. Pacific in New Brunswick.

The young son of Thomas H. Johnson was hurt yesterday while handling a revolver near Spruce Lake. The boy, as usual, did not know it was loaded. The bullet entered his hand, but the injury is not very serious.

At the races at Sackville yesterday a fast pacing mare, caught in the harness and fell on her head. She will probably have to be killed.

The body of Mrs. Helen Hart was found in New York harbor on Sunday. Full pay is suspected.

The evangelistic services which have been conducted by Messrs. Mitchell and Bilby in the Douglas avenue church the past three weeks will end on Friday evening.

At the races at Sackville yesterday a fast pacing mare, caught in the harness and fell on her head. She will probably have to be killed.

The body of Mrs. Helen Hart was found in New York harbor on Sunday. Full pay is suspected.

Luther Brown, boatman for Gardiner and Doon, hooked up a live lobster at Wilson's Beach, Campbell, on Thursday last, that turned the scales at 16 1/2 pounds.

Business at the St. George granite factories is none too bright. The proprietors have been hastening forward the completion of pressing orders in anticipation of the workmen's strike which is expected on the 1st of June.

The Montreal harbor board will employ an expert railway man to study freight rates and classification and in general to look after the city's interest as a distributing point.

Henri Bourassa yesterday accepted nomination in St. James division of Montreal, where he will oppose Prentiss in the coming provincial election.

Percy Clark, a son of the late Rev. John Clark, is visiting his relatives in St. John, after having spent the winter season in connection with a Dominion government survey in the vicinity of Hudson Bay.

Mr. Geo. Taylor, chief Conservative whip, put it this way: "Withdraw your clause one and seventeen, and we will give you supply immediately."

At 4:15 when it was apparent that the pleasurable criticisms and "facious" objections of the opposition were to be maintained indefinitely, Hon. Mr. Fielding suggested that Paterson might consider whether it was worth while trying to press the estimates through now.

At 4:15 when it was apparent that the pleasurable criticisms and "facious" objections of the opposition were to be maintained indefinitely, Hon. Mr. Fielding suggested that Paterson might consider whether it was worth while trying to press the estimates through now.

At 4:15 when it was apparent that the pleasurable criticisms and "facious" objections of the opposition were to be maintained indefinitely, Hon. Mr. Fielding suggested that Paterson might consider whether it was worth while trying to press the estimates through now.

Bulyea was the last of her immediate family, all of whom have been dead for some years. Wm. Ellsard, who was formerly engaged in fish business in this city, was a brother.

Leutenant Governor Bulyea of Alberta, who is a son of the deceased, is in the province and has been paying a visit to his mother. The other surviving son is John P. of Gagetown. The daughters are Mrs. John Alexander of Los Angeles, California; Mrs. Coll Campbell and Mrs. Jas. Robinson of Peachland, B. C.; Mrs. Harwood White of Murray, Ontario; Mrs. C. L. Slipp of Cambridge, Quebec county, and Mrs. A. S. Corey and Mrs. R. T. Babbitt of Gagetown.

William Fitzpatrick, who died on Wednesday at his home, 67 Broad street, December 12, 1898, was 67 years of age.

Richard N. O'Brien, at one time a prominent news paper man in this city, died at the hospital this afternoon as the result of injuries from being struck by a motor car.

Mrs. Charles Nevins. The many friends of Charles Nevins will be sorry to hear of the somewhat sudden death of his wife, which took place at the residence of her uncle, Senator King, Chatham, Wednesday afternoon.

Bishop Washington. Toronto, May 27.—Bishop Washington, head of the colored people's church, died at Woodstock, last night, aged sixty-one years.

Mrs. Mary A. Day. Mrs. Mary Ann Day, widow of John Day, died Wednesday at her home, 67 Sheriff street, at the age of 72 years.

David E. Howland. Worcester, Mass., May 28.—Word was received here today that David E. Howland, formerly editor of the Worcester Gazette, and formerly editor of the Montreal Free Press, died yesterday from pneumonia at the insane hospital at Bloomington.

Boyd Putnam. NEW YORK, May 24.—Boyd Putnam, the actor and leading man this season for the Lillian Russell company, died at his home in New York, brother-in-law, Lyman Clark, at Irvington, N. Y., from Bright's disease, which developed during a nervous breakdown in Rochester, N. Y., in 1907.

OBSTRUCTION POLICY OPENLY PROCLAIMED AT ALL NIGHT SESSION

OTTAWA, May 27.—The deliberately planned obstruction to going into supply, which commenced at the beginning of the session, yesterday maintained to 4:25 this morning by the opposition. Estimates under consideration were those of the Minister of Customs who explained his desire, at midnight, to get part of them through, urging that unless they were passed some 2000 employees of the department scattered from the Atlantic to the Pacific would not be able to draw the pay which they had earned.

Mr. Foster and his colleagues who continue to draw their seasonal indemnity, while the men on whom the carrying out of the business of the country depends, cannot get money to pay their salaries. He said that they are entitled to be carried on their campaign with less regard to order than irresponsible school boys.

Time after time they asked questions to which answers had been given a few minutes before, and time after time claimed in the face of this that the estimates of the moment and the country would be passed.

Mr. Geo. Taylor, chief Conservative whip, put it this way: "Withdraw your clause one and seventeen, and we will give you supply immediately."

At 4:15 when it was apparent that the pleasurable criticisms and "facious" objections of the opposition were to be maintained indefinitely, Hon. Mr. Fielding suggested that Paterson might consider whether it was worth while trying to press the estimates through now.

At 4:15 when it was apparent that the pleasurable criticisms and "facious" objections of the opposition were to be maintained indefinitely, Hon. Mr. Fielding suggested that Paterson might consider whether it was worth while trying to press the estimates through now.

At 4:15 when it was apparent that the pleasurable criticisms and "facious" objections of the opposition were to be maintained indefinitely, Hon. Mr. Fielding suggested that Paterson might consider whether it was worth while trying to press the estimates through now.

At 4:15 when it was apparent that the pleasurable criticisms and "facious" objections of the opposition were to be maintained indefinitely, Hon. Mr. Fielding suggested that Paterson might consider whether it was worth while trying to press the estimates through now.

Castoria For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson. Perfect Remedy for Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Worms, Convulsions, Feverishness and Loss of Sleep. Not Narcotic.

RELATIONS BETWEEN EVELYN AND HARRY'S FAMILY ARE STRAINED. NEW YORK, May 27.—That the relations between Evelyn Nesbit Thaw and her husband's family are strained to the highest tension was made apparent today when she gave out a statement vigorously assailing the interference of her relatives.

RECENT DEATHS. MRS. JAMES KENDALL. CHATHAM, May 25.—Mrs. James Kendall of Napin died on Wednesday in the city of St. John.

RECENT DEATHS. MRS. JAMES KENDALL. CHATHAM, May 25.—Mrs. James Kendall of Napin died on Wednesday in the city of St. John.

RECENT DEATHS. MRS. JAMES KENDALL. CHATHAM, May 25.—Mrs. James Kendall of Napin died on Wednesday in the city of St. John.

RECENT DEATHS. MRS. JAMES KENDALL. CHATHAM, May 25.—Mrs. James Kendall of Napin died on Wednesday in the city of St. John.

RECENT DEATHS. MRS. JAMES KENDALL. CHATHAM, May 25.—Mrs. James Kendall of Napin died on Wednesday in the city of St. John.

RECENT DEATHS. MRS. JAMES KENDALL. CHATHAM, May 25.—Mrs. James Kendall of Napin died on Wednesday in the city of St. John.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of J. C. Watson. Perfect Remedy for Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Worms, Convulsions, Feverishness and Loss of Sleep. Not Narcotic.

MARRIAGES. DOW-MILLER. At Carroll Ridge, near Canterbury Station, 23th inst., by Rev. J. E. Fiewelling, rector, Canterbury, Thomas Dow to Charlotte Elizabeth, daughter of George Miller, both of the parish of Canterbury.

MARRIAGES. DOW-MILLER. At Carroll Ridge, near Canterbury Station, 23th inst., by Rev. J. E. Fiewelling, rector, Canterbury, Thomas Dow to Charlotte Elizabeth, daughter of George Miller, both of the parish of Canterbury.

MARRIAGES. DOW-MILLER. At Carroll Ridge, near Canterbury Station, 23th inst., by Rev. J. E. Fiewelling, rector, Canterbury, Thomas Dow to Charlotte Elizabeth, daughter of George Miller, both of the parish of Canterbury.

MARRIAGES. DOW-MILLER. At Carroll Ridge, near Canterbury Station, 23th inst., by Rev. J. E. Fiewelling, rector, Canterbury, Thomas Dow to Charlotte Elizabeth, daughter of George Miller, both of the parish of Canterbury.

MARRIAGES. DOW-MILLER. At Carroll Ridge, near Canterbury Station, 23th inst., by Rev. J. E. Fiewelling, rector, Canterbury, Thomas Dow to Charlotte Elizabeth, daughter of George Miller, both of the parish of Canterbury.

MARRIAGES. DOW-MILLER. At Carroll Ridge, near Canterbury Station, 23th inst., by Rev. J. E. Fiewelling, rector, Canterbury, Thomas Dow to Charlotte Elizabeth, daughter of George Miller, both of the parish of Canterbury.

MARRIAGES. DOW-MILLER. At Carroll Ridge, near Canterbury Station, 23th inst., by Rev. J. E. Fiewelling, rector, Canterbury, Thomas Dow to Charlotte Elizabeth, daughter of George Miller, both of the parish of Canterbury.

OBSTRUCTION POLICY OPENLY PROCLAIMED AT ALL NIGHT SESSION. OTTAWA, June 3 caucus this afternoon that the obstruction to go into supply is being maintained.

OBSTRUCTION POLICY OPENLY PROCLAIMED AT ALL NIGHT SESSION. OTTAWA, June 3 caucus this afternoon that the obstruction to go into supply is being maintained.

OBSTRUCTION POLICY OPENLY PROCLAIMED AT ALL NIGHT SESSION. OTTAWA, June 3 caucus this afternoon that the obstruction to go into supply is being maintained.

OBSTRUCTION POLICY OPENLY PROCLAIMED AT ALL NIGHT SESSION. OTTAWA, June 3 caucus this afternoon that the obstruction to go into supply is being maintained.

OBSTRUCTION POLICY OPENLY PROCLAIMED AT ALL NIGHT SESSION. OTTAWA, June 3 caucus this afternoon that the obstruction to go into supply is being maintained.

OBSTRUCTION POLICY OPENLY PROCLAIMED AT ALL NIGHT SESSION. OTTAWA, June 3 caucus this afternoon that the obstruction to go into supply is being maintained.

OBSTRUCTION POLICY OPENLY PROCLAIMED AT ALL NIGHT SESSION. OTTAWA, June 3 caucus this afternoon that the obstruction to go into supply is being maintained.

OBSTRUCTION POLICY OPENLY PROCLAIMED AT ALL NIGHT SESSION. OTTAWA, June 3 caucus this afternoon that the obstruction to go into supply is being maintained.