THEAKOUNDOFSWAT akound had reached his library he

THE ATHENS EPORTER, DEC. 19, 1900

the moon come down?"

yard with me.

you?"

"How is this, Remshen? Why didn't

"O ruler," replied the old sycophant as his heart tunked his ribs, "there is a difference between theory and fact."

". see. Theoretically I am owner, of the planets. Practically I am an ass. I ought to have got on to this, but being so busy it never occurred to me. Rem shen, old boy, come out in the back

"O mighty ruler, but what would

"I'm going to give another illustra tion of theory versus fact. Theoretically you are my grand secretary and one of the most eminent men in the kingdom.

As a matter of fact you are a head shorter, and your bones will go to en-rich my gooseberry bushes!"

DOG AND PUPPY CRATES.

Made For the Convenient Transpor tation of These Animals.

alldogs and dogs that gnaw are made with slats that, whether separated on set close together, are iron bound, se that the dogs can't set their teeth in cup is secured in the crate under th end of a pipe to which there is an open ing in the top of the crate through which the dog can be kept supplied tached to the front of the crate is the dog's buffet, like a long canvas walle is carried. The dog crate has at the ends handles by which it can be picked sides these various sizes and styles up and carried as a trunk would be.

of dog crates there are also made in various sizes smaller, lighter crates fo puppies, and crates of one sort and an other of special sizes are made to or

First and last there are sold a good

An English Cafe Charge That Sur

the management of English restau rants," remarked a gentleman who has recently returned from a visit to Lon-with me at one of the most celebrate

a private room, and everything went off splendidly until the coffee and cigar

'ave you 'ad, sir?'

"This question I could not answer.

as I had not been engaged in counting one of my guests, who had evidently the number of slices consumed, but "One of the strangest things about envelope, in which the dog's food

At

without opening the crate at all.

the edges.

M. QUAD.

DAIRY FEEDING.

from clover without provender.

there must be abundance of the more provender. Mr.

results each successive year.

my margin may be no greater.

it up.

If I follow this course, I, with well satisfied with the course which salar

MONDAY, Dec. 17 -Mrs. Ann Carson is on the sick list. Arch Hudson is after the luscious bullpouts as usual this winter. He reports good success. Jas. Sexton is also in the bullpout business. January 1st, 1901, will decide who will have the monopoly in this industry for next year.

LAKE STREET.

James Moulton and wife and Dr. Moulton are living with Mrs. Beulah Schofield this winter.

Chas. Stevens has put up an addition to his house, which adds greatly to the appearance of the farm. Heber has got a pair of very evenly matched bay mares. They are the best broken team that passes through the Hollow. People say they even The nod their heads to passers by. are driven to church nearly every night now a-days, and are the envy of all lovers of horse flesh.

The special services held in the Baptist church, Plum Hollow, are eing carried on very successfully. Gordon Purvis is visiting friends the Hollow and vicinity these days, as he is not able to work. He seems to be putting in a good time.

Wedding bells are expected to ring on Lake Street in the near future, and and will sound loud enough to be heard as far away as Phillipsville. Uncle Wm. T. has been favored with an invitation and will no doubt attend, with the necessary little reminders of his kind regards.

Mrs. Maria Hamblin has improved the looks of her house on the farm on Lake Street by clapboarding it.

Wm. T. Stevens has also improved the looks of his buildings in many ways the past fall and winter. He is thinking of giving a grand musical entertainment to his friends in the near future. His entertainments are always "without money and without price" to those whom he deigns to favor with an invitation.

Bert Bullard and family are expected home on Friday next from the Western states.

GREENBUSH.

SATURDAY, Dec. 15 .- Mr. Wesley Tackaberry, formerly of Addison, has moved to our town and resides in R. Rickett's house on Mill street.

L. B. Kerr has returned home from Ottawa, where he spent a very profitable season, engaged at the carpenter

Ex-mayor Forsyth is among the number who have suffered the loss of a number of fowls lately, taken by light fingered persons. Sevaral other parties have been equally unfortunate.

Mr. L. M Smith, formerly of the Athens Reporter staff, spent a few days at the home of his mother, but has gone to Smith's Falls, where he has secured a situation in a printing office

The members of the Sabbath school are preparing for a Christmas entertainment, which promises to be very interesting.

Our cheese factory has closed a very successful season, paying its patrons the following sums per ton per month for their milk: May $15.64, June $16.55, July $15.83, August $18.05, September $19.94, October $20.04 November returns are not yet made

PHILLIPSVILLE.

MONDAY, Dec. 17 .- H. Elliott and ist, whom some older readers may re-member having heard in this country, sister, Laura, have returned from Dunhere Mr. E. has been making cheese the past season, to spend the winter with their brother. Mr. Elliott goes back to Dunrobin next season. Wales Hogaboon spent the past week in this village and returned to his home, east of Smith's Falls, on Thursday last, taking the bulk of his household goods. Mr. H. has made cheese in that section the past season and intends making cheese the coming vear. A very pretty reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Davison in honor of the home coming of their son, Harvey, with his wite (nee Miss Lucy A. Stevens of Plum Hollow). About 40 guests were invited. A splendid feast was spread on the tables, and when all had partaken of the good things a very pleasant evening was epential games and other amusements. The most of the guests repaired to the chamber to inspect a splendid array of valuable, useful and decorative presents. All went home at 10.30, leaving their best wisnes for a long life to the happy young couple.

ni

This has been a prosperous season HE CALLED FOR THE MOON, BUT IT over the country for dairymeny for the cheese makers whose DID NOT COME DOWN. range all the way from $500 An Experiment Which Opened His to $1 20. many of the makers getting salari of $700 or $800 for 7 or 8 Eyes to the Difference Between the Theory and the Practice of Things months' work. Milk producers may and Incidentally Shortened His decline to pay as much if the price of cheet falls materially. M. Milton Mansell has been exper-Grand Secretary. [Copyright, 1900, by C. B. Lewis.] One day, as the akound of Swat had ng a little in feeding his cows. to returned from a trip around town. dursee if be could learn to obtain better ing which thousands of his subjects results than heretofore from the same had knelt to do him homage, he called cost and labor. His winter feedingin the morning, a good ration of ensil-age. At noon, a few mangels or sugar beets and hay. Ton for ton, the man-gels are the cheaper grown. At night, for his grand secretary and said: "Remshen, I'm a good deal of a feller, ain't I?" "You are, O heaven born!" was the ensilage. His cows are in good condireply. "Would you call me the biggest thing tion and have milked well into late on earth?" fall. He was surprised at the of milk

"Truly, but you are!" "While I'm around on this earth

Sugar beets or mangels or both for there can be no other boss, eh, Remfall, winter and early spring with bay shen? and ensilage-first class clover pasture with a little bran-or none if it is diffi-"All other things are but a fly on a bull wheel compared to your extra cult to get-for summer and early fall, highness." he says, will give a fine result-for the "But how about the heavens, Rementire season, with little or no grainshen?" continued the akound greet chuckling his satisfaction. "I am satclover, hay and mangels, or lots of isfied that I boss the earth, even to the grain, for a good flow-the less clover, mountains and rivers thereof, but I'm Mansell not exactly clear as to the sun, moon tried the matter and puts it in this and stars. Don't they come under my rule as well?" way: If I buy 1 ton of bran, say at. "Dost not remember. O mighty ruler.

$16.00, then buy clover seed with the second $16 00, I shall be able to keep that your title is Akound the Mighty, many dog and puppy crates, and they are regular article of stock where dog CRIED OUT FOR THE MOON TO TAKE & DROP. boss of the earth and owner of all the supplies are sold. planets above? Your humble slave as sures you that the sun, moon and every THE BREAD WAS AN EXTRA star will hustle to do your bidding.' "Thanks, Remshen. I must be a daisy for sure. Not being clear on the subject, I haven't given much atten tion to celestial matters, but now I think I'll give them a whirl. If a fe ler is going to be boss at all, he might as well be a boss on wheels." "That is true, O akound, and when you get ready to command the moon to come off her perch I will issue procla mation and gather the people."

Old Remshen was a fawning syco-phant on skates. He had a good thing and wanted to keep it. He had said the same fulsome words to his master a hundred times over, but nothing had come of it except to make his position more solid. A day or two after the above conversation and while he was going around the palace with a molasses grin on his face the bell fingled. and he was called into the press his master.

"By the way, Remshen, do you remember our little conversation the other day?" queried the akound.

Henri Wieniawski, the famous violin-"Can a slave forget his master's asked Remshen as he lifted his hands in protest.

JINGLES AND JESTS. Gratitude.

I courted her a year and more, I called her more wirine than Venus, And all the knowing ones were sure That there was "something on between us"

I bought her scents and gloves and rings Without the alightest thought or question And ice and sweets and other things That play the deuce with one's digestion. She'd say I was the only lad ed her for her love and won it. And in her guileless way she'd add That I might bet my shirt upon it.

Yet such is fickle woman's way In love to hesitate and falte it's just twelve months ago to Since Thompson led her to the Once life was sweet i told her how But when I see poor Thompson nor I'm glad I haven't got to do it.

She must have loved me very much, And that's the reason she misled me. Ah, yes, her love for me was such She hadn't got the heart to wed me!

It's a Way They Have.

She stood in front of the meek little man near the door and looked at him The dog that is shipped by express is "There's a seat up ahead." suggested likely to travel in these days not only in safety, but also in comfort. There are various kinds of dog crates made She gave the conductor a scornful especially for such use, some of them why should I walk so far," she deglance topped and some of those of later manded, "when I can get a seat here by simply looking hard at some one?" design gable topped and some oval topped, so that nothing can be placed Here the meek little man siched and on top of them. Dog crates are ma got up. He knew he ought not to de it, but then a woman can make one feel so uncomfortable, even when she is in the various sizes as well as styles, some with open, slatted sides and ends, some closed all around, except for the open wrong. spaces left for ventilation. Crates for

The Gallant Leonidas.

"This article says that a woman's brain is, as a rule, smaller than that of a man." remarked Mrs. Meekton rather esentfully. "Of course," answered Leonidas. "Ev-

The dog crate is provided with a cup erybody knows that for water which is so constructed that the water can't spill out of it, and this

"It's one of nature's magnificent econo mies," he continued hastily. "It is a method of making up in quantity for a We male lack of quality, my dear. We males ought to have some little show in the ruggle for existence, you know."-

Stage Talk.

Stage Talk. If I were a vodeveel artist; Cavoring around on the stage, I wouldn't swell up and get chesty, Unless I were strictly the rage. I wouldn't go posing and strutting Nor dress like a fright or a freak Nor say that my pay was a hundred When I only drew twenty a week. If I only Drew twenty A week, I wouldn't get stuck on my manner Or be a sartorial freak.

Or be a sartorial treat. If I were a voice that needed a file, I wouldn't make fun of De Remks Or Lillian Russell the while. I wouldn't call Sheehan a dead one, I wouldn't call Meiba a freak Or criticise Patti to sharply, If I only drew twenty a week. I I only drew twenty a week. I I only drew twenty Drew twenty A week, I wouldn't claim all of the honors And thereby be stammed as unique.

Odious Comparison

don to the writer, "is the custom of "Tell me," said the seeker after known charging diners for every slice of bread which they eat. For instance, a day edge, "wasn't it Snakespeare was your "The evil that men do lives after them; the good is oft interred with their bones?" or two before my departure from the British capital I, as a mark of esteem, invited several English friends to dine

"I don't know." replied the man who had married a widow, "but I'm sure i was never said by a man whose wife in sists upon comvaring him with her first husband." of the fashionable west end restaurants. Well, the repast was served in

The Fair Partisan

stage was reached and I asked that my bill be brought to me. There, to "I will marry you. Horace," the maid-en said resolutely, but shyly, "if you will promise to vote for William"-"I promise, darbing," impulsiyely broke in the young man, clasping her in his my utter astonishment, the head waiter, in the hearing of the assembled company, approached me and in a loud voice asked, 'And how many

Arms. And the fond girl thinks that in win-ning a husband she has made a convert Opportunity. Good Fortune rang the bell one day;

A Matter of Course.

r you.

JINGLES AND JESTS.

The Girl to Wed, Here's to the gay and witty girl, The girl who is full of tan, Whose eyes are as bright as a shaft of light And whose smile is a ray of the sum. She docen't care for the rip and tear In the daily round of life, In the daily round of life. And, though she's great, you'd hesitate To make this girl your wife.

Here's to the staid and solemn girl Who at you will often frown, Whose words are so wise that they Surprise And make you feel like a clown. Her heart is true, but it makes you And oftentimes afraid; On some bad luck you might get stuck And wed this mournful maid

Here's to the cute and dainty girl,

With manner so petite; Her way isn't loud, but she gets the growd As she trips down the street. So let each sing with joyful ring Of her with lustrous cycs; I'd marry now if she knew how __To make good pumpkin pies. James H. Lambert, Jr., in Philadelphia Press.

Lost Track of It Years Ago. "What is your age?" asked the

"Must I answer that?" inquired the

"You must," said the judge. "Truthfully?" "Yes, truthfully." "Oh, well, if I must I must," she said resignedly. "My age is-a secret."

A Book's Attractiveness

Ferguson-Don't you think it wretched taste to spend so much money on a book's binding instead of upon its contents? Chumley-You must ask somebody else.

I have an eye for beauty in bindings, but life is too short to read books.

Hot Air.

The skies they were perfectly sober, The morning was icy and drear, The morning was chilly and drear; It was deep in the month of October, In the soberest part of the year, That I blackened my clothes at the furnace, That I piled coal and kindling in ther That I knocked off the skin from my kn For the purpose of making hot ai

The wind it veered round ere I finished, The clouds they went filting away. The leaden clouds drifted away; The chill from the north was diminished; It became a most beautiful day! I had blackened my clothes at the surnace; We sat, and we gasped for fresh air. I had knocked off the skin from my knuckles, And I said—perhaps you don't care.

Dignified Reply.

"Is it true, Mr. Pritts," we can conceive the questioner as asking-"is it true that you made whisky in the mountains, in a manner not contemplated by the stat utes?

"Pooh!" we can conceive Mr. Pritts as replying, with digpity. "That's all moon shine."-

Her Loving Friends.

Mand-Mabel is trying to catch the new minister, isn't she? Irene - Desperately. She thinks he would have proposed the other evening if he had come prepared, but that he was afraid to undertake it extemporaneously.

Don't Worry.

Don't worry when your neighbor's leaves Come dancing o'er your lawn And strew your porch and clog your caves And scatter pro and con. Just smile and gladly bide your time; There'll surely come a day When the wind that gave his leaves to you Will blow the other way.

> Truth Is Often Spoken In Jest. Mix-I don't like the cold formality of some fashionable women. They ought to put more warmth in their manners. Lix-Well, you marry one of them, and you'll find out she can make it hot enough > > Kipling.

His fancy still takes wondrous flights, And he—the print men say— Gets fifty dollars a word and writes Two thousand words a day! Heroes and Biographers.

She-Tell you the truth, Alfred, I do elieve in heroes He-That's funny. If you had said you didn't believe the people who write their biographies, I should have thought nothng of it.

greatly encourages me as I look toward the future. My cows have an average to date (Dec. 1st) of $43, less 3-13 of a dollar. I will take enough more per cow from Glen Buell factory to give an average of over $44, besides winter butter. Mr. Mansell claims that his view not new and that others have thought the same thing, but it may not have been convenient yet for them to follow Nor does he doubt the fine results from bran and oats. But the improvement of the land is the first consideration with him. He also thinks there may be in his vicinity those having a higher average than he has from just as light an outlay. He has been sending his milk to the Ronan factory.-Com.

Those Who Lndure

plications fail to give permanent relief

MUSIC UNDER DIFFICULTIES.

An Odd Experience of Wieniawsk

Violinist, In Russia.

The pains of rheumatism should b reminded that a cure for this diseas may be found in Houd's Sarsaparilla which, as the One Blood Purifier neutralizes that which causes rheuma tism. That is why it absolutely cure when liniments and other outward av

The teachers and pupils of the M. E. Sabbath school are preparing for their annual Christmas tree in the M. E.

Ninety siz, partridges, seized at Perth by deputy game, warden Sliter of Elgin, were donated by Mr. Henry Taylor, police magistrate of Perth, to the House of Industry at Athens last weak. For which the Inmates return thunks, and hope that the Inspector of Tisheries, ander similar circumstances, will not forget them.

Every Movement Murta. my ou have rheumatism. muscles feel stiff and sore and join's are painful. teef stuff and sore and join's are painted. It does not pay to suffer long from this disease when it may be so promptly and perfectly cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This when goes right to the spot, n use as the acidity of the blocd, the anses rheumatism, and puts in 1, 10, the pain and with his brother Josef, a noted piano player, had some peculiar experiences. The two brothers were to play in large town in the interior and wished to ee the hall in which the concert would take place. They were conducted through mud and snow to a large plank hut which had been used for a circus, and on entering found nothing but bare walls. "And is that where we are to play?" asked the brothers. "There are neither benches nor seats."

"Oh, that makes no difference," replied the marshal. "With us every one brings the marshal. "With us every one brings his own seat." "Yes," answered the musicians, "but what about lights? There is not a lamp down to earth."

tes, answered the humans, our lass what about lights? There is not a lamp in the room."
"That's nothing either," replied their companion. "With us every one brings his own lantern."
Having learned the simple manners of the country, the musicians asked how the concert was to be advertised.
"Oh, that's easily arranged," answered the marshal. "It's true we have no printing press, but I will get a servant to write the announcement in large letters on the door, and it will spread through the town fast enough."
A man soon appeared with a pound of chalk and began writing on the plank door. The brothers were somewhat de-

The brothers were somewhat defocted, but the marshal assured them that everything would be satisfactory. Toward evening all the inhabitants were seen flocking to the place of per-formance, each carrying in one hand a seat and in the other a lantern. The house was crowded to overflowing. The mother of the performers was present, mother of the performers was present, and, seeing the rain and snow dropping through the roof on Henri while he play-ed, she was greatly disturbed. "My poor son! He will take his death of cold!" she murmured half aloud. "Is that your 50n, little mother?" asked a kindly old man sitting near her, and, rising, he shouted to the young violinist, "Put your fur coat on!" Then, turning to the audience, he said, "His-mother, who is sitting near me, fears he will take cold."

cold." Other voices at once repeated the com-mand: "Put on your fur coat! Put on your fur coat!" Henri paused and thanked them for their permission, but added that he could not play in a fur coat. "That makes no difference!" cried the whole audience. "Put it on! Put it on!" He did as he was bidden and played as best he could so incumbered. -- Musical Enterprise

"I've been thinking. I'm a heap of a feller, and you know it, and I know it, but there may be a man or two on the outside who differs with us. I want to lo something big to knock 'em all out." "Will it please thee to behead a thousand men?" "Well, yes, it would, but as it is just about tax time we'd better leave their heads on their shoulders until they have paid in the sugar. I think I'll go for the moon, Remshen. She'll be full Star. tonight, and I'll order her to come

breads

"But, O ruler, she might be damaged in the fall." protested Remshen, beginning to quake with fear. "I'll look out for that. We'll spread a feather bed for her to light on. Just issue a proclamation for the people to gather on the east side of my palace at 10 o'clock tonight." "The moon, O ruler, is sometimes obstinate," suggested Remshen as he felt a pain. "She has even been known to disobey mighty potentates." "But she'll tumble for me, or I'll know the reason why! Is it not in my title that I am owner of all the planets the military one still in use. above? Get along, old boy, and issue that proclamation. When my subjects discover that I can wallop old Luna around at will, there'll be no more ever see it except in eclipse of the kicking about high taxes." Old Remshen was boxed up and couldn't say another word. He went away and issued his proclamation and then beseeched the grave of his father, the bones of his mother and his lucky stars to send a dark night to knock the experiment on the head. He was looking bilious when night came and the old York state cheese arose in all her glory. Everybody in town was out,

She-What are you thinking about, and the odds were five to one that the Harry? akound would win. At the hour named He-Nothing. he appeared on the steps of his palace She-Aren't you afraid of overtaxing and lifted his hands and cried out for your brain, dear? the moon to take a drop. It was a "De man who talk de mos' erbout he dead failure. He cried out again and again, but the moon continued her gait. "Remshen," said the boss of earth when he realized that he was knocked out, "dismiss the populace and come with me,"

It is said that mate, the South Amer The populace went a way with their ican tea, will sustain life many days without the pange of hunger. in their cheeks and when the

the stopped to fluff and fix her embarrassment, said in my behalf, To swing her skirt the proper way And dab on powder here and there. 'Four plates.' "'Ab,' muttered the waiter, 'that's

And, being satisfied, at last She hurried to the door to find Whoever had been there had passed Along and left no card behind. 1 shillin hextra.' And after adding the amount to my bill he handed it to me for inspection

"Of course I paid for the bread, but I have been wondering ever since I did A practical Georgia poet, evidently a ood liver, sings to this purpose: so why the American custom of not charging for 'the staff of life' is not introduced over there."-

in mediæval armor and apparently on

The Earth's Shadow.

or pink arc on the horizon opposite the

it attains the zenith and even passes it.

His Gigantic Intellect.

fightin qualities," remarked Uncle Eph, lanta Constitution.

usually got mighty long laigs."-At-

This is the shadow of the earth.

The earth has a shadow, but few

The world must needs seem fair and bright In every time and place To him who has an appetite, Full fare and faith for grace! Ancient Origin of Military Salute. When did the military salute come into use? It certainly dates from the According to Directions. earlier half of the fifteenth cen-

"And I want it to say, "To my hus-band,' in an appropriate place," said the widow in conclusion to Slab, the gravetury, says the London Chronicle. In the "Speculum Humanæ Salvationis," which was issued before the invention stone man. "Yessum," said Slab. And the inscripof printing by movable types, there is an exceedingly quaint illustration in tion went on: "To my husband. In an appropriate place."-Tit-Bits. which Abraham is represented as saluting Melchisedec. The patriarch is A Schoolboy's Reflection.

voice were all that's needed to make people truly great, strength of lung were all it took to guide af-fairs of state, guard, and it would seem that Melchisedec is bringing him refreshments of water, and the salute is distinctly On tasks now set before me I would never pause to look; I'd throw my lessons all away and buy a singing book.

Saved Her the Trouble.

moon. Nevertheless many of us have noticed on fine, cloudless evenings in "Do I make myself plain?" asked the angular lecturer on "Woman's Rights," summer, shortly before sunset, a rosy "You don't have to, mum," replied a roice from the rear. "Providence dome sun, with a bluish gray segment under t for you long ago."-Pick-Me-Up. it. As the sun sinks the arc rises until adways get up in the ady a seat? y. The great difficulty Cobble-Do y Stone-Certa s that it often kes me so long to decide lady.-Harlem Life. hether she in

> A Perished Delight. Old things all give place to new; O'er this fact I sadly muse. Let's hold back a joy or two; What's me of squeaky show Queer. Oh, merry bird, your ways almost Make human life a failure flat! You cost a shilling served on toast And twenty on a lady's hat.

" No Eye Like the Master's Eye."

You are master of your health, and if you do not attend to duty, the blame is easily located. If your blood is out of order, Hood's Sarsaparilla will purify it.

It is the specific remedy for troubles of the blood, kidneys, bowels or liver.

Heart Trouble—"I had heart trouble for a number of years and different medi-cines failed to benefit me. I tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and three bottles completely and perfectly cured me." MES. C. A. FLINM, Wallace Bridge, N. S.

Wallace Bridge, N. S. A Safeguard.-" As I had lost five chil-dren with diphtheria I gave my remaining two children Hood's Sarsaparilla as they were subject to throat trouble and were not very strong. They are now healthier and stronger and have not since had a cold." MES. W. H. FLECKER, Pembroke, Ont.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills; the non-irritating and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cook's Cotton Root Compound

Is successfully used monthly by over 10,000 Ladies, Safe, effectual, Ladies ask your druggists for Coeffectual, Ladies ask must take no other, as all Mixtures, pills and initations are dangerous. Price, No. 1, Si per bor; No. 8, 10 degrees stronger, $$ per box. No. 1 or 1, mulied on receipt of price and two S-cent stamps. The Goek Company Windsor, Ont. By Nos, 1 and 2 seld and recommended by all responsible Draggists in Canada.

Wood's Phosphodine is sold in Athus by J. P. Lamb & Son.

