DEATH OF JOHN E WEBSTER

On Thursday, March 14, John E. Webster, aged 60 years, passed peacefully away at his home, Oak Leaf. Though not in good health for the past year, deceased was able to attend to his farm duties until about three months ago, and during that time he bore his sufferings with fortitude and patience. The members of his family and his neighbors have reason to long remember many acts of kindness.

On Saturday morning, after a short service of prayer at the family residence, the remains, followed by a large cortege of sorrowing friends, were borne to Trinity Church, Oak Leaf, where an impressive sermon was delivered by Rev. W. Hilyard Smith of Lyndhurst, who chose as his text I Cor. XV. : 36.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. Theron McCasdy wishes to thank the friends and neighbors for their kindness during the illness and death of her aunt, Miss C. Lee

BE A BOOSTER

Do you know there lots o' people
Sitting round in every town
Growlin' like a broody chicken,
Knockin' every good thing down?
Don't you be that kind of cattle,
'Cause they ain't no good on earth.
You just be a booster rooster,
Crow and boost for all your're worth.

If your town needs boostin', boost 'er,
Don't hold back and wait and see
If a-me other feller's willin'—
Sail right in this country's free;
N. one's got a mortgage on it,
It's just your's as much as his.
If your town is short on boosters
You get in the boostin' biz.

If things don't just seem to suit ye,
And the world seems kinda wrong,
What's the matter with a boostin'?

Just to help the thing along?
'Cause if things should stop agoin'
We'd be in a sorry plight.
You just keep that horn blowin'—
Boost 'er with all you might.

If you see a fell r tryin'
For to make some projec' go.
You just boost it up a trifle:
That's your clue to let him know
That you're not agoin' to knock it
Just because it ain't your "shoot."
But you're going to boost a little,
'Cause he's got the best thing out.

If you know some feller's fallin',
Just forget 'em; cause you know
That same feller's got some good points;
Them's the ones you want to show.
Cast your loaves out on the waters;
The 'll come back, savin' true.
Mebbe they will come back buttered
When some feller boosts for you.

—Homer Clark Bennett.

Are You There With a Good Front?

Its more than half the battle nowadays. You don't require to be extravagant in your dress; but well-dressed man—by that I mean the man who is well tailored with good material—will command attention every time.

Show me a man who is particular in his dress, and I will show you a man who is particular in his business. If this is a problem with you, let me help you figure it out.

I Guarantee Fit, Workmanship and Material.
