FACTORY FIRE.

Considerable Damage Done to Allith Company's Plant.

At 4.55 o'clock this morning the fire brigade was called to the premises of the Allith Manufacturing Company, Bay the Allth Manufacturing Company, Bay street north, where fire had broken out in, one of the store rooms. Lines of hose were quickly attached, and the advance of the flames was checked before they reached the main building. It took barely half an hour to put the fire out, and although it was confined entirely to the store house, considerable damage was done. The stock was fully covered by insurance.

done. The stock was fully covered by insurance. Yesterday afternoon an ash barrel in the rear of 149. Wilson street got ablaze as the result of hot ashes being placed in it. The fire department was called to extinguish the blaze.

The fire which took place at the home of William Duffus yesterday morning is alleged to have taken place as the result of a burning match thrown in the window by a small boy named Landers. The matter has been reported to the police, but as little damage was done and the offender was so small it is not likely that any action will be taken.

Held Up By Floods

Denver, Col., July 7.—Hundreds of eastern people bound for the Pacific coast are blocked by landslides and floods in the mountains in various parts of Colorado. Along the line of the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad west of Can on City, in the famous Royal Gorge, landslides caused by rains have covered the track to a depth of several feet in places. Three through trains are held at Canon City, carrying 1,000 passengers, including delegates to the Elks' national convention at Los Angeles and the Epworth League conven-after their terrible experience in the mountains of Pennsylvania.

The boys, John Edgerton, thirteen; Charles Novic and John Towney, sixteen each, decamped from their homes on the night of June 27, after making full preparation for flight, the first having a bicycle and the latter two with a tandem. Each strapped a knapsack upon his back. They had $40 between them, and decided that the Cobalt region of Canada was the proper place to make their fortunes. Towney's father is interested in the Nipissing mine in Canada, having placed his boy in an eastern school. During the first two days everything went well. The boys cluded the police, who had been placed on their tracks by their unhappy fathers. The third night brought adventure. Young Edgerton was in the vanguard pedaling for dear life when he received the stern order to hold up his hands. He did so and his companions followed suit. Then a lone highwayman went through their clothes, took $36 they had left, threw the bicycle and tandem over the cliff and ordered the runaways to follow their noses.

Undaunted by this experience, the boys kept right on, and the very next night were again held up. This time they had nothing to give the highwaymen, and in anger he threw young Egerton over a precipice. The lad fell about twenty feet and landed on a shrub, which he grasped, hanging between blue sky and a creek 200 feet below. For hours he hung there until rescued by his companions, who had run away while the hold-up man was maltreating their younger companion.

It is said that the latest ideas in large cities is to house the cars in the open, and that this is found more eco nomical than erecting large, expensive buildings. The work will either be done this fadl or the first thing in the spring.

The Board holds that it cannot deal with damage actions under its creative legislative acts, these cases being the prerogative of the courts. The case was adjourned indefinitely without costs to permit the city to go to the Court of Appeal with a view of having the question of the Board's jurisdiction defined. The City Solicitor says this is the first case of its kind that has been before the Board, and this is the reason for the lengthy judgment. The city, however, has no intention of going to the Court of Appeal. It wants the by-law with the company interpreted, and the Board has power to do that. Mr. Waddell will put in evidence that the company was ordered to do this work outside the rails and refused. As soon as the Board gives its interpretation, if it is in favor of Hamilton, the city will undertake to collect the money through the courts. on, the city will undertake to collect he money through the courts.

Edgerton going out of his head completely. For six days the three subsisted upon berries.

This morning the boys reached Pittsburg, even in their delirium intent upon reaching the Cobalt region. The police here, however, were on the watch for them, and Detective Fred Will picked them up. Their parents wired car fare and they were sent back to Camden to-night.

Young Edgerton's father owns a large tract and has valuable options in the Cobalt region, and it is supposed that the boy had an idea that gold could be picked from the ground surface in Canada. Towney's parents formerly lived in Hamilton, Ont., where they still have relatives and where they still have relatives and with mind of disk worship, said that the latter had used him roughly and ended one melee by hitting him over the head with a hoe handle. He had not meant to do any bodily harm. The charge laid, however, was one of criminal assault, and the magistrate could only send Elley up for trial.

The crown asked for $200 bail in the case, which was granted. Mr. Elly is a highly respected farmer, and his friend are sorry that he finds himself in such predicament.

There was a conference in Toronto and after it was over Premier Whitney and the members gave out statements which the Globe reports as follows:

"The situation in regard to the Hydro Electric power project is very satisfactory indeed. From now on the work of onstruction on the transmission line will be carried on with the greatest possible expedition. There is no doubt whatever that the whole work will be ompleted before the time allotted by the contracts."

"As far as we can see now, with the progress already made, the work will be completed well within the stipulated time."

Mr. McNaught added that the fact that the commission had gone at their work carefully and without haste had proved an advantage to the whole scheme. "For instance," said he, "the original plan contemplated transmitting at a voltage of 60,000. This has now been raised to 100,000, the loss in transmission being reduced proportionately one-half. Moreover, the design of the transformers has been greatly improved."

The enlarged case of Joseph Goldberg, disposed of by Magistrate Jelfs at the Police Court this morning. George S. Kerr, who appeared for the defendant, pleaded not guilty and declined to elect. Before the taking of evidence counsel for the defence asked the Magistrate if was willing to allow the case to be dropped if the private prosecutor was agreeable. The Magistrate replied that agreeable. The Magistrate replied that he knew nothing about the case, and referred the matter to the Crown Attorney. Mr. Washington, however, thought the charge was too serious to be allowed to drop. The case was accordingly gone on with. The first witness called was Charles R. Brown, secretary of the Canadian Drawn Steel Company. He said that the company had a contract with the Goldberg Iron Campany for a load of scrap. This contract was made on the 11th of June. On the 23rd of June, he said, the prisoner telephoned him, saying that it was Goldberg speaking and saking him how much scrap was ready. Brown naturally supposed that it was the Goldberg Iron Company speaking, and said that there was not yet a carload there. The prisoner gave him to understand that he was in a hursy for the scrap, and suggested that he send a wagon down and cart some of it away. rown replied that there was only about the could have hat if he wanted it. This was the end that if he wanted it. This was the country action. On the that if he wanted it. This was the end of the telephone conversation. On the following morning, witness said, the prisoner called with a wagon and took away a load of scrap. After this Brown became suspicious, and decided to trace the scrap. After making enquiries at the Armstrong Cartage Company, whose wagon was used, he found that it had been delivered at the junk yard of Saul Takefman, on Cannon street, near Caroline, instead of being taken to the Goldberg Iron Company's yard. In the afternoon Brown called on Goldberg, sen, and told him that Takefman had possession of the scrap, and asked him if he had sold it to him. Mr. Goldberg said that he knew nothing about it, and that the Goldberg Iron Company had not drawn any scrap. Brown then placed the matter in the hands of the police. Charles Armstrong, of the Armstrong Catage Company, when called, said he recognized the prisoner as a man who hired one of the company's wagons on the 23rd of June to haul scrap. W. Webster, teamster, said he had drawn one load of scrap for Goldberg on the day in question from the complainant's yard to Takefman's yard.

Saul Takefman testified to having received the load of scrap. He said he knew that it came from the Canadian Drawn Steel Company.

WILL APPEAL

But Eddie Smith Will Have to Stay in Jail Till Sept.

Mr. A. M. Lewis will enter an appeal against Magistrate Jefts' conviction of Eddie Smith, found guilty of varrancy yesterday. The Magistrate sentenced Smith to six months' imprisonment, not withstanding the fact that he had $35 on his person at the time of his arrest. There is a difficulty, however, which stands in the way of an appeal of this nature. In the case where a man is sentenced to imprisonment only, the appeal must come hefore the Court of Gen. derstand that he must not drive a horse when it was in such a condition, and fined him $10 to impress it on him.

Charles Reeve, 81 Walnut street, charged with walking on the grass at Gore Park, was allowed to go as no damage was done, and the portion hestepped over was not fenced in.

George Skinner, no address, was fined $2 for being drunk.
