other Skin Diseases.

After fomentation with warm water, the utmost relief and specifiest cure can be readily obtained in all complaints aftering the skin and joints, y the simultaneous use of the Omtment and Fills. But it must be remembered that nearly all skin diseases indicate the depravity of the blood and decangement of the liver and stomach consequently in many cases, time is required to purify the blood, which will be effected by a judicious use of the Fills. The general health will readily be improved, although the eruption may be driven out mere freely than before, and which should be promoted; perseverance is necessary.

On the appearance of any of these maladies the Ointement should be well rubbed at least three times a day upon the neck and upper part of the shest, so as to penetrate to the glands, as asl it is forced into meat: this course will at very remove inflammation and ulceration.
